THE staff of the 1933 "Renegade Raconteur" presents this edition of the yearbook to the students of Bakersfield Junior College with the hope that it will serve as a pictorial and written record of a happy and successful year of student life.

The use of campus photos as division pages was prompted by a desire to represent in this book our campus, as well as its students. It is the desire of the staff that the spirit of co-operation and good fellowship among these students, which made the publication of this work possible, will be revealed throughout the following pages.

IV. From the Sidelines
THE phenomenal growth of the Junior College has brought with it problems that may change the whole nature of our present "Renegade" institution. For many years past the Junior College Student-body has been a closely knit organization that developed a spirit which was rather unique. This "Renegade" spirit was built on a happy personal relationship among the students and an exceptional cordiality between faculty and students. The danger in increased size is that these former cordial relationships may become impersonal. So far we have avoided this danger to our school, but we need to continue to cultivate our personal relationships in order to retain the best of what we had. To the maintenance of this cordial relationship I am sure the Raconteur contributes materially.

DEAN'S MESSAGE

I AM glad of the opportunity your editor has given me to offer my congratulations on the successes you have achieved this past year and to speak my appreciation for the contributions you have made to the wholesome development of this institution. A large number of you have conducted yourselves in ways which have acknowledged the social obligations which go with the privileges extended to you by the people of your district. Public tax-supported education for the thirteenth and fourteenth grades can be justified only if the welfare of the state is enhanced by such services. "Social personalities" and not "selfish personalities" must be developed. This is a challenge not only to the junior college as an institution but to every young person who seeks instruction therein. It is because many of you are accepting this challenge with a more thoughtful responsiveness that we feel grateful. Never, I think, have so many of you done so much thinking in fields outside the immediate limits of your student group life. It is a good omen for America.

Within your student group life you have made the year one with many good things to remember. The best of these is your friendship for one another. Education through friendship is real and vital. Idealism, after all, is caught, not taught.

ORGANIZATIONS
STUDENT BODY

The student body officers of the Junior College co-operate with the Dean in conducting the business matters and social affairs which in any way relate to the Associated Students as a whole. This year a new office has been created, that of second vice-president. To the second vice-president falls the task of acting as chairman of the Activities Board, thus leaving the first vice-president free to direct social affairs.

During the fall semester, the student body undertook the starting of a movement which it is hoped will become a precedent in the future—that is, the use of rooters' caps and the organization of an active rooting section at major sports.

Social affairs sponsored by the student body have included an opening dance, a Christmas dance, a spring dance, and a spring picnic. To those qualifying in the major sports gold footballs and basketballs were awarded. In the field of debate, it is interesting to note that the junior college has participated in forty-seven debates, has eleven members of Phi Rho Pi, and was awarded the Central California championship.

Another new step undertaken this year was the organization of the Associated Men Students.

To carry out the precedent started last year, the members of this year's student council were awarded pins for their services.

ASSOCIATED WOMEN STUDENTS

The Associated Women students is an organization in which every Junior College girl has membership. Its purpose is two-fold: first, it attempts to provide opportunity for closer contacts among the women students of the school; and second, to support and promote general student activities on the campus.

These aims were achieved through monthly program meetings and intermittent social activities.

The outstanding event of the year was the “A. W. S. Big Day” sponsored for the college women of the neighboring Junior Colleges. The day was spent in sports, a luncheon, and in a fashion tea. This type of program proved so successful that it is hoped it will become an annual affair.

President Hanawalt attributes what success was enjoyed in the year's activities to the splendid co-operation of the committees, through which most of the work was carried out.

Officers of the A. W. S. this year were: Isabelle Hanawalt, president; Thelma Davis, vice-president; Esther Hay, secretary; Esther Bassett, treasurer; Holly Howsman, publicity chairman; and Mrs. Hazel Aldrich, adviser.
Women's Athletic Association

The Women's Athletic Association of the Bakersfield Junior College is formed for the purpose of promoting interest in athletics and of creating a higher spirit of good sportsmanship among the women of the college. The activities offered during the year are association, soccer, speedball, volleyball, baseball, tennis, and swimming.

The freshmen carried off the honors in association and volleyball, while the sophomores triumphed in the soccer and speedball games.

During the year the members enjoyed many social activities which were: a horseback ride, skating party, direction of sports at A.W.S. Big Day, bicycle ride, swimming party, all climaxed by a banquet for the purpose of presenting awards.

Activities of the Varsity Club this year started with the initiation of twenty pledges with a bean feed at Kern River Canyon last fall. Besides the regular business meetings when the club transacted its business a big social event was held in the nature of a Barn Dance on April 1.

During the spring semester eight more new members were admitted to the club. Much of the success achieved this year may be attributed to the support and active interest of Mr. Theron Taber, Commissioner of Athletics.

During the fall semester since political questions were in the foreground, the society invited Mr. Bradshaw to speak on the activities of the Republican party and Mr. O'Neill to give the views of the Democratic party. At the last meeting of the semester Mr. Victor Svminoff told of conditions in Russia, where he had previously lived. As this talk aroused much interest and in order to promote interest and understanding toward foreign countries, the society has heard this last semester only speakers who are personally familiar with the customs, people, and places of interest in foreign countries.

Last spring the society made a trip to Yosemite Valley and it was greatly enjoyed. As it was then decided to be an annual event, the trip this year will take place during the last part of May.

At the end of the year Alpha Gamma Sigma will be happy to award Peggy Cooke, Margaret Bailey, and Isabelle Hanawalt with permanent membership pins.

PHI RHO PI

FORTY-SEVEN debates, two tournaments, two oratorical contests, and one extemporaneous speaking contest indicate the magnitude of the unprecedented 1932-3 forensic season. Not only was the season unsurpassed in the large number of contests, but also in the wide variety of questions and styles of debate. Three propositions were discussed, War Debts, the Manchurian situation, and Unemployment Insurance. Oregon style, the regular Oxford style, and extemporaneous debates were held. At the end of the season the new Direct Clash style of debate was studied and experimented upon.

This season the squad gained permanent possession of the large silver Central California J. C. Conference trophy, being the first school to win the cup three times.

In March the Bakersfield or California Beta chapter of Phi Rho Pi was host to the Pacific Southwest Division of Phi Rho Pi in a forensics tournament. Teams representing the Southern California and Arizona junior colleges were in attendance. Later in March the local chapter entered three teams in the College of Pacific tournament.

Much of the honor of the past season goes to Coach W. K. Peterson. Officers include: Isabelle Hanawalt, president; Evelyn Schmidt, secretary-treasurer; and W. K. Peterson, adviser.

The Spanish Club, or "Los Argonautas" as it is called, was organized for the purpose of promoting an interest in Spanish and serving as an aid in the study of the language.

The meetings were scheduled to be held on the first Tuesday of each month at which time a program was given and refreshments were served. At each meeting there was a short period devoted to the business and social affairs of the club. There have been several very interesting gatherings during the last two semesters. Some of the outstanding events of the year were: initiations at the Kern River Country Club, a treasure hunt which terminated at Jastro Park, a dinner at the Highland Park Community Club House, and a "weiner bake" at the Shell Picnic Grounds.

The social event of the year was the Spanish Club dance held on May 19 in the boys' gym. The dance was informal and held in a tropical atmosphere.

The club is comprised of the following members: Margaret Belsit, Allan Garber, Katherine Price, Geraldine Graham, Margaret Bailey, John Hawkins, Herb Martin, Victoria Achin, Patricia Seawell, Kathleen Cassady, Kelly Steele, Maybelle Dabney, Virginia Dougherty, Asa Meudell, Rodger Dennen, Leonard Mumford, Helen Clark, Mary DeLacy, Al Price, Willis Beckwith, William Dolan, Larry Davidson, Al Smith, and Walter Frost.

Associate members were invited to attend meetings and "Los Argonautas" was a great success throughout the year.

The Areopagus and Social Clubs represent those students in the Junior College who are interested in studying as a group present day social and political problems. In the first semester the liquor problem as it presents itself both in the United States and in foreign countries was studied. In the second semester unemployment relief in its local and national aspects was carefully investigated. The working motto of the clubs—to study the topic under consideration at first hand whenever possible—was carried out to a considerable extent. Both students and authoritative speakers took part in the programs.

This year has shown an appreciable increase in the interest evidenced in the clubs, which seems to promise that they will become a fixed institution in the Junior College.

THE Engineers Club was founded this year for the purpose of acquainting the students majoring in engineering with the various branches of the profession and also to promote a further interest in technology among all students at B. J. C.

The club has done this by sponsoring lectures given by prominent men in all the phases of the profession and by showing films of engineering projects.

Several visits were made this year by members of the club to various localities showing the reconstruction of the Caliente and Keene disasters, the new Kern River bridge, and the Boulder Dam.

Among the speakers at the club were Dr. Watson of California Tech., Mr. R. A. Hutchison, bridge engineer for the California Department of Public Works, and Mr. J. B. Yager, district engineer for the Portland Cement Association. Talks were also given by members throughout the year.

One of the principal requirements of the club is a written thesis each semester by every member on any subject pertaining to engineering.

Mr. Taber, head of the Department of Civil Engineering, was not only the founder of the club, but also has taken an active part in promoting its growth. He was assisted by Mr. Sagen, Mr. Rich, Mr. Buckley, and Mr. Cross.

Officers this year include: Ed Berges, president; Clayton Dougherty, vice-president; Bill Giddings, treasurer; Gerald Estep, librarian; and Harold Estep, secretary.

THE Kappa Rho Sigma began this, its seventh year, with only a few of its members still in school. Despite this, the organization was immediately resumed and a group of pledges initiated. During the spring another group was also initiated. As most of these were freshmen, the perpetuation of the fraternity is more assured.

This year the Kappas held their second annual Whiskerino contest and dance. They also sponsored a trip to Boulder Dam as their annual field trip. The expeditions took three days with side trips to Zion Park.

As in former years, the system of student and guest speakers was continued. Guest speakers included faculty members as well as local men. The year was concluded by an Italian dinner at a local cafe.

DELTA PSI OMEGA

RECOGNITION of an unusual nature was awarded Delta Psi Omega last fall when, for the first time stepping beyond student sponsorship, Bakersfield Junior College chapter of the national honorary dramatics fraternity presented Oscar Wilde's brilliant comedy, "The Importance of Being Earnest," under auspices of the Bakersfield Community Theater.

Justifying the confidence of Community Theater leaders, the dramatics fraternity cast, under the direction of Miss Ethel Robinson, gave a mature and polished interpretation of the comedy of manners. An able cast consisting of Al Price, Fay Helm, John Crawford, Virginia Voll, Richard Bailey, Jane Bellows, and Marian De Cew deserve much credit for their admirable performances. Minor parts were handled creditably by Donald Ayer and Frank Donovan.

The splendid co-operation between Miss Robinson and Gerald Smith, stage manager, was a most important factor in the successful play production.

Concluding the year's activities, Delta Psi Omega gave three one-act plays before an invitational audience on May 25. As something a little out of the ordinary and highly enjoyable, the presentations of "Aria Da Capo" by Edna St. Vincent Millay, "The Little King," by Witter Bynner, and "A Minuet," by Louis Parker, were extremely well received.

In recognition of outstanding work in Delta Psi Omega productions of the past year and in the student body play, "Love In a Mist," the following persons were admitted to membership in the fraternity: Beatrice Allen, Elizabeth Krug, Gretchen Sanders, Patricia Gore, John Crawford, John Twaddell, and Harlin Wilson.

JUNIOR COLLEGE BAND

THE Bakersfield Junior College Band under the leadership of Mr. H. J. Burt has completed its second year as an organization of the school. The Band played at all of the Junior College football games and other functions during the school year.

The chief contribution of the Junior College Band was to stimulate pep in the audience and to give the whole atmosphere at the games a better co-operative enthusiastic spirit.

NEAR the end of the fall semester the Renegade Quartette was formed under the direction of Miss Ruth Morgan. The motivating purpose of the group is to provide a musical activity for their personal edification as well as to furnish the Junior College with an active musical unit in vocal work. Throughout the spring semester the group has worked diligently to achieve this end.

The quartette made its formal debut under the auspices of the Musicians’ Club at the Vespers service at the First Congregational Church. A secular repertoire was mastered to meet the many engagements at local services, clubs, churches, and schools.

On April 12th a humorous assembly program was presented by the Renegade Quartette for an audience of high school and J. C. students. Vaudeville stunts and the same program were presented before the Coalinga student body.

The big event of the year was the trip to Los Angeles. A Vespers service was given in the Bridges Hall of Music at Pomona College on April 30. The following morning a group of humorous secular numbers was sung for the Occidental College student assembly.

The last important date of the year was on Friday of National Music Week at the Emerson school auditorium.

They anticipate trips into the northland as well as the south next year.

THE Junior College Choral Club met early in the first semester to elect officers and to carry on vocal work either as a recreation or as a part of students’ music course.

The Choral Club was conducted entirely in the form of a laboratory class with exercises in sight reading, music appreciation, quartette singing, and ensemble singing.

Several of the more talented members of the class were selected for an A Capella Choir which gave some excellent performances, and also for a mixed choral group that performed for a final concert given by the Musicians Club. Jim Stone and Carma Woodard took solo parts in the Christmas cantata given by the high school.

Officers for the first semester were: Lloyd Bartee, president; Marjorie Collins, vice-president; Florence Moore, secretary-treasurer; and the second semester the same except that Herb McBratney was vice-president.

ACTIVITIES
THE possibility that there would be no "Raconteur" this year because of lack of finances proved that the student body did not wish to do away with an established institution. The enthusiastic response to the selling campaign of Glenn Bultman and his associates indicates that the publication of this annual can be attributed to the students themselves.

To publish a year-book entirely new in design and make-up was the aim of the editor and staff of the 1933 Raconteur. This has been carried out by the use of a new cover material; the French-fold page, another new idea in year-books; a rough-finish paper; pictures printed in brown ink; a new division of books; the new arrangement of pictures and written material; and the use of campus photos for division pages. With the assistance of an able staff the editor has been able to carry out this aim.

THE class in newswriting, English 10, has been responsible for the publication of the monthly Junior College newspaper, the Renegade Rip. This class endeavors to publish a paper which represents the entire student body and its activities, as well as news items of interest regarding other junior colleges of the valley. The one difficulty with which the editor was faced, since the paper appears monthly, was the issuing of timely news. This factor proved no serious one, for the Rip was anxiously received by all students each month. The addition of a considerable amount of original feature material supplied by staff members added materially to the readability of the paper.

The class in English 10 spent all class periods not engaged in writing for the Rip in studying the essentials of newswriting and journalism. Daily newspapers from towns and cities in different parts of the United States were studied, with the twofold purpose of developing critical reading ability and promoting better standards of journalistic writing. Thus the students, in writing for the Rip, have had an opportunity to apply the principles of their study.

"LOVE-IN-A-MIST"

LOVE-IN-A-MIST," a comedy in three acts by Emelie Rives and Gilbert Emery, was presented on Friday, March 17, as the annual Junior College play.

White lies and the maze of tangled circumstances they cause are the theme of this delightful piece. Miss Diana Wynne, played gayly and with a sympathetic touch by Elizabeth Krug, succeeds in getting herself into trying situations through her unwillingness to tell bald truths that might hurt her friends. So she tells little white lies which weave bigger and bigger webs, until poor Diana finds herself engaged to two men, Mr. Gregory Farnham, played by Harlin Wilson, and Count Scipione Vorelli, played by Al Price.

The role of a disapproving cousin, Miss Sydney Rose Wynne, was played by Patricia Gore, and that of a still more disapproving aunt, Miss Anna Moore Wynne, was portrayed by Marian De Cew.

Much color and humor was added to the play by Beatrice Allen and John Twaddell, who took the parts of Kizzy, the colored maid, and Colin, the colored gardener. The Italian accent of Count Scipio delighted the audience.

"Love-in-a-Mist" was enthusiastically received by the members of the student body and other Bakersfield play-goers.

The play was directed by Miss Ethel Robinson, the head of the Dramatics department of the Junior College.

An outstanding event in the dramatics field this year was the production by Delta Psi Omega of Oscar Wilde's "The Importance of Being Earnest," as their annual three-act play. Because of the prominent part taken by members of the student body it deserves mention here and highest praise for its success.

Much of the time of the dramatics class this year was spent in preparing and studying for one-act plays. Several of these plays were prepared for presentation in high school assemblies, and then given to various outside groups.

"Magnolia's Man" was a clever comedy received with enthusiasm by a large group of high school students. The cast was made up of: Lucille Jennings, John Twaddell, Beatrice Allen, and Richard Brothers.

"Dogwood Bushes," also presented to a high school assembly, was done by Patricia Gore, Richard Burton, Harlin Wilson, Margherito Durando, and Donald Ayer.

The cast for "Evening Dress Indispensable" was made up of Beatrice Allen, Irene Degan, Richard Brothers, and Richard Burton.

"The Fourth Wall" or "Perfect Alibi" as it is called in America, a three-act play by A. A. Milne, was studied by the dramatics class but not produced by them.

SEASON OF '32

UNDEFEATED in conference competition for four consecutive years—permanent possession of the Valley Championship trophy—amassing a total of 232 points against 84 for their opponents! Take a bow, Rambling Renegades.

Remember the first show that they put on—Renegades 32, Cal. Poly 0—an aerial show as wide open as the old Barbary Coast—that boy Wilton was all that he was cracked up to be, plus another two-bits (remember the gold standard)—just another Gilda Gray in the hips—and can Robinson heave that pigskin—could he show Walter Johnson! If one overlooked the fact that the linesmen, especially Black and Gribbin, were continually becoming entangled in Cal. Poly's backfield, one might say that our line operated in fair country style.

The troupe was then invited south to San Berdoo to put on a show; and, as accidents are bound to occur, Lady Luck burned out a bearing on the way down and was unable to be with us, so our hosts, who incidentally played a fine game (difficult to see with the naked eye), doubled-crossed us to the tune of 7-6 by pulling a fifth ace out of the deck in the last minute of play. But the Renegade rooters (all six of them) stuck by their boys—yes, indeedy.

The next presentation by our boys was a four-act tragedy (for Santa Maria) held in our own backyard. Van Osdel was splendid in the role of defensive fullback, while Thornton and Dennen spent so much time in Santa Maria's backfield that the cash customers began to suspect things. The show netted us a profit of 31 points, while Santa Maria's score looked like a guy's mouth when the Doc said, "Let's see your tonsils."

Feeling quite hospitable, we next entertained a large group from Long Beach. Of course, according to the best people, guests are usually permitted to "bring home the bacon," but our boys gave the visiting lads only 13 slices and kept 25 for themselves.

Our next port of call was Porterville, where we almost lost four men on the kick-off—the weeds were so tall that they couldn't find their way down the field. This was our first conference game, and believe you me, such unorthodox style as was presented by Porterville has scarcely been used by man during the last decade. But a few of the boys—Hawkins, Black, Meudell, and Sargent—proved themselves to be quite adept in the art of solving puzzles and were thoroughly effective. Again I say, can that Wilton run and catch passes and can that Robinson heave the pigskin—Tsk! Tsk! We garnered 20 points to Porterville's 7. Hats off to Porterville's stellar guard, Vossler.

The next week Spud's troupe put on a real show for its public. For Visalia's benefit the Renegades tore, ran, jumped, crawled, fell and slid over the goal line for 59 points just to show how touchdowns can be manufactured when a fast charging line and a flashy powerful set of backs are working as a unit. Oh yes, Visalia failed to score.

Came the Ventura tussle and were they tough! Brilliant passing pulled us through, although the line played remarkable ball. The final gun found us on the long end of a 12-7 score, and may America uphold the 18th Amendment if we didn't earn it.

Then we exchanged punts with the U. C. L. A. Frosh and came out second best. What a conflict! Weight and reserve strength turned the trick for the Frosh. They pushed over two touchdowns in the last three minutes after being outgained by the Renegades—nine first down to four. After this game Spud had only words of praise and admiration for his hard-driving, scrappy aggregation. After all, what's a 13-0 set-back?

This left us with one more cat to skin—Taft Cougars—tougher than a fifteen-cent steak and as friendly as a tribe of starving Zulus. All the Oh's and Ah's, and Hurrahs were well justified because that game had King Kong licked forty different ways for thrills. Up to the last three minutes of play the score was tied at 13 all, and then the fireworks started—Taft punts to Wilton on Taft's 40-yard stripe—he's coming back like a scared rabbit—twisting—dodging—racing—he's to the 30—the 20—oh, they've got, no, no, they missed him—he's to the 10—the 5—he's over standing up—Boy! What a run! What a game! They're lining up for the extra point—the ball is passed—Van Osdel kicks—low—no good—score, Renegades 19, Taft 13. Whew! And that, gentle readers, was how the game ended. Again the cat was skinned and skinned nobly by as sweet a team as Spud ever put on the field. Such linesmen as Hawkins, Thornton, Voorhies, Dennen, Miller, Black, Gribbin, Benton, Sargent, Meudell and Dernberger are answers to any coach's prayer. Hawkins, Voorhies and Thornton were consistently outstanding throughout the season. In the backfield Wilton was sensational yet a mere runt. Robinson, Purtle, Alexander, Panero, Van Osdel, Harrell, Maguire, Ford, Raesler, Poe, and Delfino all proved their work as efficient and hard-driving men. Joe Robinson was a stellar performer. His passing would rank with the best that is offered anywhere in the country and he is no mean line-plunger.

Thus endeth the season of '32 whose fruits were luscious — another Central California Championship. Let us shake your hand, Spud, Pete, and Taber. Your efforts were not put forth in vain and we are proud to have you.

AKERSFIELD Junior College Renegades are again Central California Conference champs. Despite the traditional slow start, the Renegade board bouncers found the horizontal projection for 730 points and top spot in the Central California Conference championship. The determination to make more “hoopie” and less “whoopie” led the title holders to 14 victories in 21 clashes.

Renegades 33—San Bernardino 29.
Renegades 23—Compton 50.
Charge it up to experience. Nice work, Hawkins.
Renegades 20—Woodbury 24.
Renegades 25—U. S. Frosh 45.
They were just too good. Haworth hot that night.
Renegades 32—Visalia 23.
Oh! Woim toins! First conference game tucked safely away. Benton extracted lead (Pb.)
Renegades 47—Porterville 21.
Ho Hum! Another notch, thanks to “Big Noses” Mulvana and Harrell.
Renegades 28—U. C. L. A. Frosh 42.
The hurdle just a little too high. The best team won, but not without a contest.
Renegades 46—Reedley 28.
Renegades 36—Cal. Poly 18.
Dope upset as regulars come through.
Renegades 40—Taft 37.
Fifteen points aren’t to be sneezed at by any man, Purt! Hawk, you played a beautiful game—nothing new for you. Voorhies and Barrett, you’re both sweet forwards. We like your floorwork, Harrell.
Renegades 39—Porterville 20.
Fifth consecutive win and a manifestation of a smoothly working quintet. Keep it up, Skeeter.
Renegades 40—Visalia 30.
Another conference tilt—Oh, Dear, the monotony of it all. Benton, Barrett, and Fisher—just good, can’t help it.
Renegades 34—Reedley 26.
Renegades 26—Taft 37.
Ain’t that just too bad? All Taft’s good work counting for nought.

Letters were awarded to: Captain Barrett, Hawkins, Purtle, Voorhies, Mulvana, Benton, Fisher, Bultman, Stemen, Panero, manager. Barrett was awarded the Peterson Trophy for being the most valuable two-year letterman of this year’s squad. Bultman, Stemen and Barrett were given gold basketballs by the student body for completing two years of competition for B. J. C.
COACH P. M. Bliss's Tracksters brought Bakersfield J. C. their third major sport championship for the year of '32-'33. Strength was shown in nearly every event and the team was greatly aided by having consistent second and third place men who helped pile up impressive scores. Moreover, the Renegades possessed several sure first place men, and the combination made a well balanced aggregation.

Triangular Meet with Visalia and Taft

Bakersfield opened the track season with a triangular meet with Visalia and Taft on Griffith Field. Led by Billy Van, who scored 15 points with a first in high jump and pole vault, second in javelin, third in high hurdles, the Renegades surprised everybody with their strength. Van Osdel was closely pressed for high point honors by Martin and McCall, who gathered 10 points to their credit. McCall won the 440 and 880, and Martin the mile and two mile. Other point-winners included: Ozanich, second, low hurdles and broad jump; Martin, second, mile and two-mile; Dickey, third, mile; Barrett, first in high hurdles, third in discus; Gribbin, first in discus; Cutshall, third in javelin; Kump, fourth in broad jump; and Summers, who tied for second in the pole vault.

Valley Conference Meet

A fighting aggregation that battled for every point was responsible for the Renegade victory in the championship meet. McCall broke the conference record in the half mile by running it in 2:03:3 to better the old record of 2:05 held by Sickles of Porterville. Jerry also placed second in the 440. Van Osdel again took high point honors with a first in pole vault, tie for first in high jump, and third in high hurdles, to score 11 points. Martin again came through with victories in the mile and two-mile. Barrett won the high hurdles and placed fourth in javelin; Ozanich after falling down on the fourth hurdle fought his way to a fourth place. Summers tied for second in pole vault and Gribbin took second in the discus. Morton had an "off" day, placing only fourth in the mile and falling to place in the two-mile. The relay team, composed of Ozanich, Summers, Gribbin and McCall, upset the dope by romping home to a first place, thanks to Gribbin, who ran the best race of the day in the relay.

Taft Dual Meet

Completely upsetting the predictions compiled by "Moon" Mul lens, Taft J. C. Track Coach, the Renegades walked off with the dual meet with the Cougars piling up a score of 81 ½ points, while Taft garnered 49 ½. Van Osdel took high point honors with 17 markers. Barrett came through in the hurdles, taking firsts in both barrier events, and Summers grabbed off a third in the spear heave. Lanky lean McCall lead the field in the 440 and 880; Martin came through in the mile and was conceded the two-mile event because of the illness of Taft's two-miler. Cutshall knocked all the air out of the cash customers by taking a first in the javelin. Gribbin heaved the platter to a first and placed third in the quarter mile. Kump came in third best in the century and second best in the 220. Richardson garnered a third in the broad jump, and to top the afternoon off in proper manner, the relay team copped.

CHANGE OIL EVERY FIFTY MILES
John Hawkins—What kind of oil do you use in your car?
Jimmy Camp—Oh, I usually begin by telling them I'm lonely.

FELLOW STUDENTS?
Our student body president does give inspiring pep-talks. One day he said in a student body meeting—“Come to the J. C. picnic! Pay twenty-five cents and do anything you want!”

BEANY KNOWS
Beany Allen—Silly, what do you suppose the scrub teams are for?

BY THEIR WIT WE KNOW THEM
A group of our brightest students once visited Niagara Falls. Our star reporter, Isaac Newz, jotted down their reactions:
Neville Pyles—Won’t it ever stop?
Jim Camp—That’s a lot of water.
Jean Maurer—I’ll take vanilla.
Sargent—Why don’t they take it out of lockjaw and put it in grandma?
Jane Bellows—Oh, gee—guys!
Harold Hart—that reminds me, I forgot to turn off the water faucet.
Herb Poe—Well, yes and no.
Bog Dougherty—Now, when I was in South America, I saw some falls that—.

GRAND SLAM
Spud—They make a referee out of him.

IS SHE QUICK ON THE REPARTEE?
Viola Jenkins—Will you have pie, sir?
Coy Customer—Is it customary?
Vi—No, it’s apple.

A colored truck operator was informed that he could not get his money until he submitted an itemized statement for a certain hauling job. After much meditation he scribbled the following bill:
3 comes and 3 goes at 4 bits a went—$3.00.

YEAH—BUT—
Esther B.—It took eight sittings.
Lucille J.—What? Have you been having your portrait painted?
Esther—No, learning to skate.

THOUGHTS WHILE STROLLING, WITH APOLOGIES TO McINTYRE
Wonder if Chuck Newberry will ever amount to anything—Those student body dues—One of those half-step boys should wear a hat—Contrary to belief, the original Elsie the Dumb Dame does go to B. J. C. Those in the know say her first name is Neville—No talking in the study hall!—That remark by Mac in Orientation, “I have no faith in common sense.”—Harold Hart, the pugilist, is president of the Men’s Club; he should be able to keep order—When first organized, the Men’s Club considered “Miss Bird’s Boys” as a cognomen—Glenn Bultman, the S. B. prexy, who has a knack for saying the wrong thing at the right time in S. B. meetings. Untouchable Stoop Ma­guire, the capitalist—George Poehner, who knows and knows and knows, and lets you know he knows—In inspirational moments, Mr. Mac can talk for forty-five minutes on the fluctuation of the eye lid and never bat an eye.

You should have seen the Barn Dance—Everyone went rustic—Wonder who the man was under the big sombrero?—These study-hall initiations are lots of fun—for us. Jim Stone seems to be a versatile chap—who said that seven-mile bicycle rides didn’t have bad effects—wonder if it’s my day to buy Ben West a milk-nickel?—Cheerio—.
