The club has been very active during the past year. One of the outstanding activities was the picnic which was held along Kern River in February. The annual Barn Dance was a successful event of March. Later in the year a skating party and bean feed was enjoyed by the men students, along with the women students.

ALPHA GAMMA SIGMA

ALPHA GAMMA SIGMA is a California Junior College Scholarship society, of which the Bakersfield Junior College is a group in the Lambda Chapter. The purpose of this organization is to further the interests of students in scholarship, and to bring into social contact with one another those students who have achieved superior scholarship.

There were some social functions during the first semester, and some very interesting talks were given by Mr. Evans.

Bakersfield members of Alpha Gamma Sigma very ably received the representatives of other Junior College Honor Societies at the convention which was held here on March 13. A very successful day was reported by all who attended.

At a luncheon held at El Tejon, Mr. Claude A. Buss, professor of International Relations at U. S. C., was the speaker.

PHI RHO PI

PHI RHO PI is the National Junior College Speech Fraternity, of which the Bakersfield chapter, California Beta, is a branch.

Phi Rho Pi, which is unique in that it is a national organization with chapters in thirty states, has as its aim the furtherance of interest in speech work, and the maintenance of high ideals in forensic activity.

The Bakersfield chapter is this year the official national chapter, its sponsor, Mr. W. K. Peterson, being the national president.

This year a new activity, the Forum Club, was organized on the campus under the sponsorship of Phi Rho Pi. The Forum Club is intended to give inexperienced students an opportunity to take part in forensic contests. A pot-luck dinner was enjoyed in January by twelve members at the home of Doris Hancock, with President John Fanucchi directing.

One of the highlights of the Phi Rho Pi National Tournament in March was the impressive initiation of thirty new members from El Centro and Kansas chapters. This initiation was held under the direction of Doris Hancock, local president, with the assistance of Peggy Dunn of Virginia and Coy Muckle of North Carolina.

The members of Phi Rho Pi earnestly express their appreciation of the capable direction, both as debate coach and as national president, of Mr. W. K. Peterson. Under his leadership Phi Rho Pi, as a national organization, has made greater strides than it has ever made before.

THE Varsity Club is one of the most important clubs on the campus. It was organized for the purpose of creating a spirit of competition and clean sports in the J. C. The requirement for admission is the earning of a letter in one of the major sports.

The social activities for this year consisted of a Varsity Club Dance and the annual Varsity Club picnic which helped immensely in promoting a spirit of friendship.

The Varsity Club has grown greatly in the last three years and this year's athletic teams contributed many new members.

The Women's Athletic Association was organized to create interest and to encourage women students to participate in interclass games. The games are played after school between teams of freshman and sophomore girls. After playing on four teams, a girl is eligible for her block "B." Points accumulated by playing on additional teams enable a girl to earn a gold "B" pin and a guard.

The organization does not limit itself to competition in sport, but it also includes a social side. After the series of games is ended, the girls enjoy either a party or a "feed." The chief games played during the year are: Association, soccer, speedball, volley ball, baseball, basketball, and tennis. Competition is very keen because of the skill, enthusiasm, and vitality of each team.

DELTA PSI OMEGA

The past year has been one of great activity for members of Delta Psi Omega, the B. J. C. dramatics honor society. "Tea for Three," a three-act comedy, was presented in November and was followed the next month by "The Valiant," a one-act play. Both were successful artistically and financially. During the spring semester a group of three-act plays were given and the year's work was climaxed by the presentation of "The Bad Man," a three-act melodrama.

Other plays were presented at meetings of the Patrons' Club, student body assemblies, and at regular meetings of the organization.

The aim of the Bakersfield cast of Delta Psi Omega is to maintain the high standard of dramatic endeavor which has marked B. J. C. in the past.

Students are allowed membership in Delta Psi Omega as a reward for outstanding work in dramatics.

A large number of students turned out this year to further their knowledge in amateur photography. Since this is one of the purposes of the club all will agree that it has been well fulfilled. The members of the Camera Club enjoyed several field trips this year, at which time they found some very "good shots," according to Mr. Paul Baldwin, their new adviser.

Other activities consisted of a set of lectures which were presented by qualified persons on subjects of art composition and the photography of plants, animals, geological formations, and human interest subjects.

AT THE beginning of this term, a group of students, intent upon learning German and also upon having some fun, met to organize Der Deutsche Verein. They were a hardy looking bunch, for it was just before Frontier Day and many were clad in the clothes of the day that is past. So it was a hilarious meeting that first set Der Deutsche Verein on its way.

The purpose of the club is to foster interest in the German language and in intellectual pursuits among the students. Accordingly, a program of activities was planned.

During the first semester a Hallowe’en luncheon was held, and several meetings with interesting speakers, one of whom was William Grandoschek, who told of his travels in Germany. Two good parties were also given. During the second semester, an April Fool luncheon, a theater party, and a swimming party were the main social events, and in addition, a number of discussion meetings and speakers comprised the activities.

LE CERCLE FRANCAIS

THIS year has been one of the most successful for Le Cercle Francais. Under the leadership of Stuart Chenoweth the club has carried out a well planned program.

The social activities opened with a barbecue at the Chenoweth home. Two parties were enjoyed the first semester—a monopoly party at the home of Miss Violet Franz and the Christmas party at Charles Adams' home. Le Cercle Francais shared honors in the Fashion Show held by various clubs, with Charles Adams as the representative. On April 3, the club presented a skit to its members. Other events were a bicycle party and a spring barbecue. The social activities for the year closed with the annual spring banquet.

WITH a well-filled calendar of outstanding performances and participation in grid games, concerts, and parades, Harold J. Burt and his Bakersfield Junior College Band look back on another successful year for this musical organization.

To stimulate enthusiasm and encourage up-and-coming musicians is the purpose of this musical unit in the school. The written specific duty for each member is that he appear properly uniformed and on time at every rehearsal and official engagement of the organization.

The Renegade musicians have extended their talented services to all home Junior College grid games, at Porterville and Taft, at the Frontier Days parade, Armistice Day parade, Musical Festival at Pasadena, and other events. The year's activities were concluded by the annual Band Concert, which was held during the month of May in the high school auditorium.

PARTICIPATION in a great number of school and civic affairs was recorded by Harold J. Burt's Junior College-High School Orchestra this year. The year's activities culminated in the annual concert given in the auditorium on April 14. Some of the outstanding numbers presented at the concert were Franck's second movement of D Minor Symphony, Luisa di Montfort, a clarinet solo by Ila Baker, and Three Dances from the opera, "The Bartered Bride."

Some other important appearances of the orchestra during the year were at the Student Body play, the Elks' Memorial program at the Fox theater, the High School Musical Festival at Bakersfield, and finally the Annual Baccalaureate Service.

MEMBERS of the Choral Club are proud to say that under the leadership of Ronald Clark they have had a very successful year. Much enthusiasm was shown by the group and an addition of many members resulted in a very interesting year.

The club started the year with a party at the home of Charles Adams. The group later appeared on the program of one of the J. C. assemblies. A double assembly was next in order. The theme of the skit presented at that time was a rehearsal for a radio program. This was a pay assembly and all were pleased with the results. In the spring the group visited many schools throughout the community where they presented programs.

THE purpose of the Junior College Young Women's Christian Association is to aid in furthering the Christian Movement on the Junior College campus. Throughout this year the local group has been well represented at two Y conferences: At Asilomar in December and at Shaver Lake in February. A joint meeting was held in Bakersfield in May and was attended by members of College Y's from all colleges in the San Joaquin valley.

The group enjoyed a Hallowe'en party with the Y. M. C. A., a Christmas party at Dorothy Dodson's home, a co-ed ball with the high school Girl Reserves in February, and a hike later in the spring. The mothers of the Y members were invited to the installation tea in May.

The Y members felt the need of helping others and worked out two service projects. At their Christmas party, each member brought a toy, and the entire collection was added to the Baptist young people's contribution for needy children.

Advisers are: Mrs. Evelyn Benson and Miss Edna Keough.
