THE policy of granting a permanent charter to active junior college clubs subject to the approval of the Activity Board was adopted. A dance was given in the fall following a football game in the boys' gymnasium.

During the spring semester an honor organization for men and women students was formed. Basis of membership, rules, and constitution were defined by the board. Inter-club cooperation in activities was stressed. A committee was appointed to investigate improvements for the student body.

The Activity Board assisted the Executive Council in staging the student body picnic.

FTER definitely proving its importance to the student body, the Δ Renegade Choral Club, under the able direction of Mr. Ronald Clark, adviser, ended the most successful year since its beginning by singing at Baccalaureate and Graduation. The outstanding step toward a future of service and value to the college was the purchase of robes for the members.

For the purpose of raising funds to pay for the robes, a wellreceived radio broadcast skit was presented at J. C. and high school assemblies, and a party was sponsored at the Kern Theater, where the club sang as part of the program.

Participation in the Los Angeles Music Festival was a new undertaking by the organization and might be an annual one. Other trips were made to Wasco, McFarland, and Delano.

ONORING Freshman girls at an introduction tea held last September, the Young Women's Christian Association started the year with the traditional bang which lasted throughout the year, with activities popping in rapid-fire order.

A varied program under the able leadership of Louise Johnson, president, has included speakers on travel, universities, and other topics of interest at the monthly meetings.

A Halloween party, complete with blue lights, ghosts and clanking chains, was the first item on the social calendar. A joint dancing party with the Y. M. C. A. was one of the events of Thanksgiving vacation. Christmas found the Y. W. co-operating with the Y. M. in collecting toys and food enough for two large families.

The Y. M.-Y. W. conference at Asilomar during Christmas vacation was one of the highlights of the season. Early in March, another conference was held for San Joaquin Valley "Y's" in the snow at Pinehurst, just below Sequoia Lake.

MARKED by a program of expansion in the form of an advisory board, the Junior College Y. M. C. A. this year has maintained and increased the importance of its position as a powerful organization. The advisory board is composed of men of the local community who are willing to form a council for advising and aiding the "Y."

During the Christmas holidays, three members of the "Y" group went to the annual conference at Asilomar. Then, in March of this year, a delegation traveled to a meeting at Shaver Lake Retreat. Carl Van Wy participated in a presidents' training conference at Sequoia Lake during the latter part of April.

RADIO RALLY

HE series of Renegade Radio Rallies owes its success to the determined effort of a few members of the student body, headed by Chairman John Besone. who planned all of the programs. The ever faithful band was always the backbone of the programs and brought a great deal of favorable publicity to B. J. C.

The Taft Rally aroused a great deal of desirable student enthusiasm and featured the theme of "Lynch the Cougars." Cremation took place on the largest combined rally fire seen in these parts. Prior to the ceremonies, appropriate trial services were conducted in a jammed, packed courtroom of the Jinx room (broadcast pictured at left) at the Elks' Club which even reached the ears of the Cougar den on the West Side.

The achievement of the rally committee of 1937-38 will always be remembered because of the services rendered by John Besone, including such permanent additions to the campus as the maroon "B" on the water tower, the public address system, the Renegade Knight emblem, stickers. megaphones particularly the and "double headed Ford," contributed by Dean Gay.

FOOTBALL BANQUET

THE annual football banquet honoring members of the football squad and the concluding event of the football season, was held in the Spanish ballroon of Hotel El Tejon on December third. The honored guests included, in addition to the members of the squad, Dean Bird, Mr. and Mrs. Spindt, Mr. and Mrs. Frost, and Ed Barbosa, captain of the team.

Decorations, under the supervision of Ethel Bourdeau, used the school colors, maroon and white, in flowers, the school emblem, and the Victory Flag.

John Fanucchi acted as master of ceremonies, presenting Miss Bird, Mr. Spindt, Mr. Frost, Mr. Clymer, Mr. Robesky, and Ed Barbosa as speakers in addition to the speaker of the evening, Reverend J. Whitcomb Brougher, Jr., pastor of the First Baptist Church of Glendale.

Following the banquet, a dance was held at the Woman's Club.

Those contributing to the success of the banquet were: Ethel Bourdeau and Jane Collins, decorations; Harriette Lockhard, invitations; Marjorie Wilkes, securing the speaker; and Jack Cooper and John Franey, finances.

FOOTBALL SPIRIT

AWARDS ASSEMBLY

ONE of the most entertaining assemblies ever staged before the student body of Bakersfield Junior College was presented on Friday, December 4, featuring as its theme the prologue to the football banquet which was held at Hotel El Tejon that evening.

After a review of the football season had been presented, Coach Frost issued letters to the following: Ed Barbosa, Monte Jones, Bill Jasperson, Rue Pollok, Paul Siemon, Jim Wade, Paul Woollomes, Walter Condley, Bob Montgomery, Roy Harper, Bill Trout, Horace Crandall, Bob Sheldon, Jere Tilson, Louis Grothaus, Guy Wathen, Dave Gay, Lewis Snyder, Gene Duncan, Ken Robesky, George Voll, Elton Rodgers, Joe Clerou, Ken Weaver, Dwayne Mears and Paul Martin.

As an additional reward for their services, ten men received gold footballs for performing on the Renegade varsity for two years and earning a letter at least one of the two. The players who received gold footballs were: Captain Ed Barbosa, Monte Jones, Bill Jasperson, Rue Pollok, Jim Wade, Roy Harper, Bob Sheldon, Gene Duncan, Bill Trout and Paul Martin.

Managers Doyle Miller and Elden McDanel were also awarded monograms for their faithful services to the Renegades of 1937.

YELL LEADERS and SONG LEADERS

POMPOMS waving, crowds cheering as the team comes out on the field, playing at the half—all these are reminiscent scenes of any football game.

Under the capable direction of Augie Schroeter, Ray Morton and John Boydstun, (the latter two not pictured here), the student body helped the team to win many victories with loyal support. These boys inaugurated many new yells during their reign as yell kings, which will no doubt echo over the Jaysee field of play for teams to come.

With the initiation of a new alma mater hymn came the advent of three song leaders, Billie Cox, Ellen Craig, and Oma Louise Dear. These gals not only had to try to get results from the crowds but had to endure a bulletinboard-feud on the subject of "Truckin' ain't allowed round here." Nevertheless, the girls got the loyal support of the student body.

(Song leader-in-chief Oma Louise Dear hails from Taft but nevertheless gave her most wholehearted support in urging on the Renegades to "Beat Taft.")

BETWEEN HALVES

For the first time in B. J. C. history, the dressing room, "where games are lost and won," is revealed to public gaze, showing the Renegade Men in all informality. Trout rests while activity goes on in the rest of the room.

COACHES

HIDDEN beneath an avalanche of scores, statistics, predictions, etc., during each football season, are the men who produce the powerful Maroon and White clad elevens which blaze across the Southern California gridirons—the men who receive very little credit or praise for the mammoth amount of effort they expend in developing championship Bakersfield J. C. football teams.

First, a word about Head Coach Wallace D. (Jack) Frost, known to most B. J. C. students as the "Little Colonel." Like the "Little Corporal" of old, short in stature but big in mind, Jack attained the seemingly impossible—that of tying the "wonder team" of Taft J. C. for the 1937 championship. Yes, Bakersfield Junior College is exceedingly fortunate in having such an able leader guide her destinies in the sporting field. The "Little Colonel's" teams have always been rated "tops" in football circles and with Jack behind the helm the name Renegades is perpetually feared.

A lot of credit for the success of the 1937 Renegades should be directed to Coach Frost's aides-de-camp: John Clymer, ex-California star halfback and a veritable bundle of wit and humor, who educated the backfield students; and Don Řobesky, former all-American guard at Stanford, whose unique and rapid construction campaign turned out another rigid forward wall for the Renegades.

The fourth man on the B. J. C. athletic staff, Mr. Theron Taber, upholds the honor of having served the longest on the athletic board. The modest Mr. Taber arranges all the schedules and takes charge of expenditures for the Renegades. Someone once said: "While Coach Frost worries about the size of L. A. footballers, Mr. Taber worries about the price of steaks at Los Angeles restaurants."

ESTABLISHING themselves as one of the most effective groups in the student body, the Varsity Club has made an outstanding record for itself in the entertainment field during the past year.

Pledges were initiated into the group at a "Kangaroo Court," which convened at a hilarious student body assembly. A stag bean feed and a basketball tilt in which the Varsity Club smeared the Faculty rounded out the social activities for the current semester.

Adopting the design of Don McCarty, Block B pins were awarded members of the society in addition to the regular letter award. The man adjudged the club's most outstanding athlete was honored by having his name inscribed on a plaque upon which the organization plans permanently to perpetuate the name of its number one athlete during the years to come.

"Jack" Frost's 1937 Renegade football squad on the road to an undefeated season.

Encountering eight eminent gridiron foes, the Bakersfield Junior College eleven corralled 121 points, limiting their opposition to 75 numerals, for an impressive percentage of .750. The Renegades amassed a total of 72 points in their three conference contests, while 9 points were the best that their adversaries could muster. In the Central California Junior College football realm, the Maroon and White leather merchants won the right to share the throne with a previously undefeated and untied Taft J. C. eleven, tying the highly-vaunted Cougars, 6 to 6.

Although Coach Wallace D. (Jack) Frost's Bakersfield Jaysee Renegades could hardly be classed as a highly lubricated grid machine in their opening game of the season against the powerful Long Beach Junior College Vikings, they certainly didn't show any signs of squeaking in conquering the boys from the sandy shores by a 9-0 score.

The Vikings, coached by Harry Macon, had relatively little to show by way of offense to the Bakersfield gridiron fanatics who packed Griffith Field to capacity, as the Renegades held the upper hand throughout almost the entire fray.

On the third down Harper faded back to pass, couldn't see anyone in the clear, ran to the right of the field, but found a group of Vikings awaiting him, came back to the center and then made an expeditious excursion around left end for a touchdown. Captain Ed Barbosa, who turned in a marvelous defensive exhibition, was called upon for the extra point.

In the third quarter the 'Gades forced the Vikings back into their own land. Nead, Viking halfback, attempted a sweeping right end run from behind his own goal line, but Barbosa corralled him thus adding 2 points for the Renegades.

Confident and raring to go after their decisive victory over the Long Beach Vikings, the Renegades sunk their cleats into the quagmire of Griffith Field once more, with the Santa Barbara Frosh as their opponents. Local talent was the feature of the game as five former Drillers started against Bakersfield.

The Renegades outclassed the Gauchoettes in almost every department of the pigskin game and consequently they emerged on top of a 14 to 0 score.

The initial score of the game came in the second phase when Roy Harper twirled a 24-yard pass to Ken Robesky who fought his way down to the 1-yard standard for a first down. On his second attempt, Harper lunged over the goal line for a touchdown. Ed Barbosa sailed the porkhide directly between the uprights for the extra point.

A bewildered bunch of Renegades saw their undefeated slate become smeared with a nasty 30-0 score chalked up by the strong Los Angeles J. C. Cubs on the Southerners' field, Friday evening, October 8.

In the final stanza, with 30 points scored against them, Bakersfield took the offensive and made a desperate attempt to score. A 30-yard pass from Bud Troutman to Horace Crandall placed the pighide on the Cubs' 20-yard line. Rodgers smacked the L. A. J. C. line, tearing through for 10 yards and a first down. Robesky advanced the ball to the 7-yard stripe. Rodgers hurled a pass over the goal line to Neufeld, but the oval was knocked down by a Cub back, thus thwarting the Renegades' only opportunity to score.

Failing to approach lucrative territory by way of a running foray, the U. C. L. A. Frosh became aeronautical-minded and displayed an efficacious passing attack which paved their way to a 23 to 7 win over a noble array of Renegades on Griffith Field Saturday evening, October 16.

Shortly after this score, the Renegades also donated 7 points to the scorekeeper. A short bullet-pass from Trout to Harper, who in turn rambled down the field for 30 yards and 6 points, turned the trick. Barbosa added the extra tally.

In the third phase the Renegades showed up well both offensively and defensively, but they failed to threaten the Bruinites' valuable soil. The Westwood contingent dominated the final quarter of the fray, scoring 14 points and a safety.

Scoring more points than they had totaled up to date all season, Coach Jack Frost's pupils really showed off before local grid fans on Griffith Field, Saturday evening, October 30, and subdued a belligerent band of Pirates from Porterville Junior College by a score of 33 to 3 in their first Conference game of the season.

Eckard proved to be quite a leather-messenger for the boys from the orange empire, as well as Normandeau, who lived up to expectations by drop-kicking a perfect field goal in the early moments of the tussle, to lead Bakersfield by a score of 3 to 0. Outstanding players for the Renegades were Paul Martin and-George Voll alternating at left half in place of Harper. Ed Barbosa also sent the ball directly between the goal posts in his three attempts for the point-after-touchdown.

The first score came when Martin hurled a perfect pitch to Barbosa, who outran the Porterville safety man and scored the initial touchdown. In a short while George Voll intercepted a pass from Walker and raced 65 yards to score.

The big Maroon and White squad hopped up the second step of the Central California Conference ladder with the greatest of ease, through a 30 to 0 victory over a battling group of Visalia J. C. Tartars on Griffith Field, Friday evening, November 5. A 30-yard pass from Paul Martin to Lewis Snyder, who snatched the oval-shaped leather object on the Visalia 12-yard stripe, trotting the remainder of the distance across the goal line, accounted for the initial tally of the game.

Ed Barbosa missed his first conversion of the season when he failed to add the extra point in his second attempt during the game.

The Bakersfield Junior College Renegades, along with one hundred rooters and the J. C. band, rolled into Fresno one sunny Saturday afternoon, November 14, and sent the Fresno State Frosh Bullpups to the dog house with a 19-13 spanking.

With Robesky leading the attack, the Renegades manipulated the ball down to the Fresno 9-yard stripe in the second quarter. After a couple of plays, Harper plunged his anatomy through the Fresno line for a touchdown.

It wasn't long after this touchdown before Fresno reimbursed the Renegades with one of their own with a long pass from Orchard, Fresno halfback, to O'Connor, left end. The Bullpups failed to convert and the score remained 7 to 6 in favor of Bakersfield at half time.

The Renegades treated the Fresno lads pretty rough in the third quarter, scoring two touchdowns as a result of straight power plays. Bob Montgomery contributed the first touchdown for the Renegades, while Roy Harper donated the other 6 points to the Bakersfield team.

On a nippy Friday evening, November 19, the Taft Junior College Cougars invaded the neatly cultivated gridiron of Griffith Field and were primed to give the meticulous Renegades of Bakersfield Junior College a sound flogging.

The Cougars held the distinction of being the only undefeated and untied Junior College eleven in California. They proudly boasted victories over such powerful teams as Pasadena and Compton Jaysees. BUT they had not chastised the Renegades yet—and they did not! the final score being 6 to 6. The old jinx, that Taft J. C. has never registered a victory over the Renegades on their home grounds, held true again.

Lead by Harold Hogan, a ball-packer of enviable quality, the Cougars journeyed down to the Bakersfield 15-yard stripe before the Bakersfield lads had a chance to work up a perspiration. From this vantage location the Cougars lined up for a

After this bit of action the 6000 fans who managed to squeeze into Griffith Field began to realize that what they had been hearing of the Taft "wonderteam" was veraciously said.

The first quarter ended just as Walter Condley hugged a Cougar punt and returned it to his opponents' 35-yard marker. At this point Voll, Robesky, and Rodgers were injected into the backfield situation for the Renegades. On the second down, Voll fired a long pass which caused the Bakersfield rooters to gasp for breath until the ball was safely enwrapped in the extended arms of Paul Woollomes, who was finally harnessed on the 8-yard line of Taft. After failing to approach touchdown surface for three downs, the ball was centered to Robesky who faded back to pass, dodged an incoming Taft linesman, and rifled the pellet to Elton Rodgers for a touchdown. The conversion failed.

In the final quarter the Renegades "hot-footed" it down to the Cougars' 8-yard standard. Failing to gain for three successive downs, the Renegades decided to try a field goal. Barbosa's attempted place kick, however, was deflected by some of the pesky members of the Taft forward wall.

A GREAT preponderance of strength in the field activities, a good sprinter in Larkin Mackey, and a pair of fair-country hurdlers in George Voll and Bruce Ponton, enabled Coach Percival M. Bliss' Bakersfield Junior College track-and-field forces to run through one of their most successful track seasons. George Voll won the novice division in the discus at the Long Beach Relays with a gigantic heave of 138 feet 9 inches at the opening of the season, and Dean Gay brought B. J. C. into the limelight again at the close of the year when he uncorked a mammoth toss of 44 feet, 9 7-8 in. to win his favorite event—the shot-put—at the Fresno Relays.

FRESNO FROSH DOWN RENEGADES, 69 2-3 to 61 1-3.

After a closely-contested, thrill-saturated track and field meet the Fresno State College freshmen triumphed over Bakersfield J. Larkin Mackey unleashed terrific bursts of speed in the 100 and 220-yard dashes to win handily with times of 10.1s. and 22.5s. George Voll toyed around with the discus, flinging it 128 ft. and his javelin heave of 159 ft. 11 in. was good for another first.

Piling up 63 points—mostly by way of field events—the Bakersfield J. C. Renegades won the junior college division of the Bakersfield Relays for the first time since the inauguration of the annual track and field carnival in 1931.

Lumber-leaper Bruce Ponton got his manly bosom to the tape in 15.7s., severing the old Relays high-hurdle mark by one-tenth of a second. Record-breaker No. 2, Gregory Williams, rounded back into shape to hit the heavens at 12 ft. 4% in. in the pole-vault, eclipsing the old standard by one-quarter of an inch.

Coach Percy Bliss

George Voll, broad-jumping and waggling the discus at virtually the same time, leaped 21 ft. 9 in. in the jump for first and garnered a second in the platter-tossing event, lagging an inch behind Dave Gay's winning throw of 127 ft. 9 in. A three-point margin over Taft J. C., which scored $48\frac{1}{2}$, gave the Bakersfield Junior College athletes their first Central California Junior College conference championship since 1934. Bill Trout slipped the iron pellet out 43 ft. 10 in. for a first, followed by Dave Gay and Dean Gay. Taking off on a mammoth flight of 22 ft. 6 in., Goodwin won the broad-jump, and George Voll uncorked a toss of 129 ft. $8\frac{1}{2}$ in. to win the discus.

B. J. C. NABS EIGHTH PLACE IN FRESNO RELAYS.

Fitting a picked detachment of eleven men from his great track team against some of the best junior college timber in the world, two of Coach Bliss' proteges managed to corral a total of seven points among them in the famous Fresno West Coast Relays. Uncorking a colossal toss of 44 ft. 9 7-8 in., Dean Gay won the shot-put. Getting off to a morbid start, Bruce Ponton staged a "Bonthron" finish to forge ahead into a third place in a speedy 14.5s. hurdle race.

Standing: Dick Heber, Horace Crandall, Dick Williams, Charles Wachob, Burns Delmarter, Coach John Clymer, Ken Robesky.

ASEBALL returned to take its place among the sporting activities in Bakersfield Junior College after an absence of a decade, and, although Coach John Clymer's 1938 Renegade nine won but two out of eight contests, they displayed much spirit and perseverance for a newly-organized club.

A Renegade baseball team took to the diamond for the first time in a decade on March 18, and emerged victorious over a powerful Cal. Poly nine by a count of 5 to 3. Paul Woollomes grabbed batting glory, receiving two singles and a double in three excursions to the plate.

On March 24, the Taft Junior College nine staged a one-run victory over Clymer's clouters, 3 to 2. Gene Bertolette, center fielder, starred for the Renegades. Innumerable errors on the part of the Renegades virtually donated a lop-sided game on April 15 to the Compton J. C. nine with a score of 18 to 1.

The Bakersfield Jaysee nine suffered a couple of losses in a week-end tour to Santa Barbara and Cal. Poly. The Renegades dropped a 7 to 2 decision to the Saints on April 22, and Cal. Poly retaliated in kind on April 23 for their previous defeat at the hands of the local school by pounding away a 3 to 1 victory. Headed by Dick Heber, premier first-baseman, who slammed out two doubles and a triple to bring in three runs, the Bakersfield Jaysee diamond men on April 29 defeated the Taft J. C. Cougars 7 to 6. Accumulating a disastrous total of 10 errors, the Renegade horsehiders bowed to Compton Jaysee on May 7 by a 10 to 3 count. Drawing a curtain on their baseball competition for 1938, the Bakersfield Junior College boys on May 19 dropped a one-sided decision to the Taft Jaysee horsehiders, 16 to 3. "Bud" Heffernan turned in a scintillating performance for the locals.

TENNIS

LED by the brilliant performance of Margaret Hendrickson and the men's doubles team of Warren Cox and Stewart Lovelace, the B. J. C. netters under the tutelage of Forest Lynn and Harry Hall, captured the valley championship, May 7, at Visalia.

Performances in the other divisions enabled the Renegades to win many early season matches. Illness at the end of the season played havoc with the mixed doubles team.

Nevertheless they proved themselves to be worth mentioning in the early season matches.

Halbert Bing, Renegade singles champion, played beautiful tennis all season but met with very strong competition. He played well at Visalia in the valley conference finals, placing second to the Taft man.

The women's doubles composed of Dot Sturgeon and Phyllis Stancliff played a good brand of tennis but need a little more seasoning before they can stand up under strong competition.

Bing, Cox, Gribble, and Lovelace of the men's quartet and Hendrickson and Stancliff of the women's have played two seasons of tennis for B. J. C. and should go on to further the glory at a higher institution.
