RENEGADES SMEAR CAL POLY

DRILLERS WIN EASY CONTEST

With a brilliant offensive the Drillers handled the California Tech Frosh by a 45-0 score. Though outweighed the locals won on superior speed and smash.

"Perishable" Jones played a wonderful game going over for four scores. His long gains featured the game. Curtis made two scores, one on a spectacular 65-yard run from behind the line of scrimmage. Sadocchi scored on a 40-yard end run squirming through the grey and blue defenses. Cooley played a remarkable game, cracking through the opposing line and swelling the play before it got under way.

SANDABS WIN

The high school lightweight defeated Maricopa for the second time when they ran up a 33 to 0 score Saturday. At two weeks ago the Sandabs won 21 to 0. The team won on straight football, penetrating the Oil City defense at will. Coach Davis used practically all of his subs in the contest.

FRENCH DIALOGUES

Each Friday Miss Bird's French class entertain themselves with original dialogues. The vocabulary is so limited that the dialogues range from kitchen scenes to football games, and really prove quite amusing.

It is rumored that a great many of these "Go Home to Mother and Dad" songs are written by college deans.

TEAM WINS SPECTACULAR GAME BY 21 TO 3 SCORE LAST FRIDAY

Attemg the the defeats of the past the Renegades rushed through the California Poly variety in a thrilling game on Griffith Field last Friday. Fumbles at important times prevented a much higher score. A powerful line and a smashing backfield spotted victory for the J.C. gang.

San Luis Obispo scored in the first few minutes of play on a 20 yard drop kick. The Renegades came back strong. Freeman plowing through for a touchdown. Beatty scored on a 20 yard run after intervention a forward pass. The last score came on one of the most spectacular plays of the game. Freeman crashed through center 20 yards to the goal line, shaking loose half the opposing team. Bob Harris converted all three touchdowns via the drop kick route.

Chris Freeman starred on the offensive, rippings holes through the opposing line at will. As a local sports writer expressed it, "on line backs be looked like a Christmas tree with green and yellow jersied men for ornaments. He consistently outposted the opposition booting 59 and 60 yards. Beatty thrilled the stands with his long runs and forward passes. "Nasty" Newberry played a powerful game at full. His ability to call plays got the opposing team's goat. Chain played his usual "beany" game at quarter.

"Brute" Brite time again drove through the line and nailed the runner for a loss. Brite was injured in the third quarter, though not seriously. Harris snagged a number of passes for long gains. Carnakis, at end, played a great game despite his injured leg. Cross, sub center, played an excellent game despite his inexperienced. Laird, McCam and Carl completed the stone wall defense of the Renegades.

The invaders made a determined defense but were unable to stop the advance of the J.C. gang. The Renegade offensive showed a great improvement though somewhat marred by bobbles.

FACULTY PARTY

The faculty of the Junior College and High School threw seriousness and dignity to the winds last Saturday night, to romp in the gymnasium at their annual Halloween mask.

Among the events were a political speech by Andy Gump; the faculty, laudey; a bachelor's dream (George Gurr); a marionette show; and a mock initiation of the new faculty members. The stunts were staged in the auditorium, while the refreshments were served in the gym. Dancing and games completed the evening's program. The gym was beautifully decorated in Halloween fashion.

The committee in charge was composed of Clarence Cullimore, general chairman; Miss Robinson; Miss Smith, Miss Altona, Mr. Potter, Mr. Gur, Miss Heil, and Miss Hansen.

ARMISTICE DAY FOOTBALL GAME

The next football games are scheduled for Armistice Day, November 11. The Renegades travel north to meet Modesto Junior College. The game should be a good one with the locals having a slight edge on the home team. A number of the men now out with injuries are expected to be ready for the game. The contest is our third C.C.C. battle.

On the same date the Drillers meet Occidental Frosh in the last practice before the county championships. The game will be played on Griffith Field. The Frosh are the first time the Sherman Indians 7 to 7. A fast battle is expected.

J. C. MASQUERADE GREAT SUCCESS

Practically the entire junior college turned out for the pepsys Halloween mask held Friday evening at the Kern River Country Club. The crowd, dressed in every imaginable costume, met at the home of Virginia Arp at 6:30, whence they proceeded to the club in cars provided by Orral Adams.

Dancing and games filled the early hours of the evening full of movement, while clever stunts were given to close the hours of fun.

Those who participated in the entertainment, planned by Jessie Winn, general chairman, were Miss Bird and Miss Robinson, Ellen Owen, Rowan Holston, Mary Contrasto, Mary Wilkerson, Bernice Callagy, Al Johnson, Mike Carnakis, Pavey Stanley and Harold Corp.

Prizes for the most beautiful costumes were won by Gladys Price and Virginia Rood, while prizes for the most original costumes were won by Bernice Platt and Chris Freeman.
The Renegade, thus far, has not made editorial comment on the presidential race, but now with the fever of election day upon us we are coming into the open with our unapologetic support for the people's choice—Andrew Gump. Correction and disclaimer have marred the names of the other candidates leaving unscathed the true defenders of the people—Andrew Gump. Today Gump is fighting the battle of freedom against the machinations of Wall Street and Secretaries. Thanks, against the political buffoon, he stands as the one hope of this American people. The Renegade, following its consistent policy of progress, sends to the people this message: Mr. Gump the largest majority ever rolled up as a result in the annals of party politics. Regular today your progressivism, by marking an X after the name Gump. A vote for Gump is a vote for prosperity and fewer examinations.

As proof of the popularity of Mr. Gump:

- Don't cross the bridge until it is finished.
- I have a small dog, but I like it.
- Historians tell us the rubbish invented to prevent gloveless stabbing parties.

ANDY GUMP ADDRESS TO STAFF

Gump presents the statement of prominent citizens:

Justice Freer: "Gump will reduce the tariff on foodstuff. I refer to the time when we were able to purchase foodstuff for the price of a loaf of bread."

Miss Blair: "Gump's stand against the barroom has encouraged me to live more cleanly."

Critical Pundits. Gump will make it easier to catch the game. Burgher for Gump and free character.

To the editor: inform because the old people wouldn't give the Renegade any advertising.

- Yes—People, say, I have eyes, just like father.
- Worse—Don't, pop-eyed.
- Test of ability to describe others as they see themselves.

SOCIETY FLUTTERERS

The dancing set of Bakersfield was entertained Saturday night at the Woman's Club ball by the Bakersfield Symphony Orchestra. Artistic decorations, symbolic of the occasion, were provided by the women of the city, while a group of Bakersfield girls and fortieths motorists for Bakersfield for the dance. The committees in charge were composed of Betty Gray, April Davis, Everett Shier, and Howard Kendall.

Marguerite Shepard, a former Bakersfield student, was here during the weekend at the guest of Mrs. Robert Harris.

Virginia Stoddard, a graduate, was here on Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Stoddard.

Tired of winning the well known stock of what the Beanpods warped California Poly by a 21 to 3 score …

* California Poly team's motto was—"What a few learned pass among friends?"

* It's all right to forward guts but they didn't have to make a fight out of it.

* The California Poly ends handled the passage like a hot potato.

* A mighty shout of admiration came from the crowd, who saw the Poly team finally solve Beatty's ploy revealing his delightfully humorous nature.

* One of the most perplexing replays resulted. "Oh, how erroneous thinking—my word, I think Beatty saw it.

* In the first part of this game it seems as if the Renegades center, Cross, and the skinny bean pod, Fassman, beard and Newberry were playing center.

* Finally, Newberry foolishly led that pass and began to trash the gorge on the Poly line.

* From that point forward the friendship rivalry between the two teams became apparent.

* California Poly ran in a relay of gobs who had been playing against McCauley and Beale.

* A call for such plays by the Beanpods could have imagined by such an effort. "Try to get them."

* As it appeared, all three of the Beanpods who got 12 points in the first half were standing on the twenty-yard line.

* Yes, "touchdown child," George McCauley's tight end, who looked like a Notre Dame would.

* What he lacked in ability, he made up in willingness. George heed to nothing in the Washington tenure 10 yards from the goal on the Poly line.

STAY AT THE GAMES

At every football game people begin to leave in the middle of the last quarter. It is a peculiar thing that at most any event some people leave early to avoid the rush. Not only do they lose the best part of the game but in their attempts to move they block the view of others who want to see the game. The few minutes gained by rushing away are more important than the event itself. As a courtesy to the players, those about us and to ourselves let's stay in the stadium until the game is over.

CONSCIENTIOUS POLITICS

The election scrap is over, a candidate has been elected and the country has again returned to normalcy. Andy Cuyk has been named as the official political leader of the dirty politicians of his opponents. The constitutional amendments have been settled.

Personally we wonder—how many voters impartially consider the things they were voting on. We wonder if they voted after careful consideration or as some newspaper editors tell us. For everyone we hope that in the younger generation there are none of those blind sheep who follow political propagandists.

BOOSTING TOGETHER

Sometimes we wish that the Junior College was larger but there are many advantages in our small size. J. C. spirit is a big compensation. Every Renegade and Renegade knows every other member of the student body. In high school one is acquainted with only a few students. The J. C. is more like a family that works together.

The Junior College pop has given us a reputation—for once a Renegade always a K. J. C. booster. If you wear your red and white leg, an alumna, whether she knows you or not. Always there with a cheery "Hello Renegade! How's it going?" Kern Junior College has a big future before it and we hope it will never lose the old spirit. There may be only 12 of us but we're there just the same. Keep up the scrap, gang.

Hard luck brought abler defeat to the Renegades but let's keep on fighting. "It's bound to break the other way sometime. Let's give them the answer to the question, "Are we downtowned?"

THE RENEGADES BATTLE TO TIE

SANBABA VICTORY

The Rhenegades fought a hard game, but the Rhenegades are back on the field. The hard work has paid off, and the Rhenegades are on the way to victory. The Rhenegades are the future of football, and they will continue to fight for victory.

RENEGADE EDITORIALS

The Renegades gave Santa Barbara a terrific battle. The gang was there from the word go. We hope all the students appreciate properly the fight they have made for J.C. The Renegades hope that the same fighting spirit will always exist in this Junior College. Winning every game is the guarantee of the future.

A REAL NECESSITY

With the approach of Christmas we begin to think of the things we hope Santa Claus will bring. Work has started on a new high school building, the gift of the citizens of this community therefore we are jealous.

The Junior College is a homeless orphan living on the charity of the high school. The thing we are hoping for is a home of our own. A separate building on our own campus is the thing the need to make J.C. The institution it should be. There would be a more unified spirit and a better support of student activities. J.C. would be more like a university and less like a department of the high school.

Our little group of 121 has done big things; consider what might be accomplished as a separate institution. The citizens of this community have made the high school one of the best in the state; are they going to do the same for the Junior College?

Bakersfield—a college city—is the dream of every Renegade. Let's make it the ambition of every citizen.

DON'T FORGET

Under the stress of a hard fought game we sometimes forget the elements of sportsmanship. We are reminded of the high school game on Arrandiste Day. A number of times when penalties were given some people in the stadium roused the referee. There always is some reason for penalties so it seems funny for a spectator who knows but little about the game to cry at a referee that does. Let's maintain as good sportsmanship in the stands as is shown on the field.

REAL NECESSITY

J. C. CHATTER

At least Dana is seen. We accomplish our mission. We exchanged.

The Eagle, Santa Barbara State, had big front page stories before the kickoff. They were commentating on their chances. The Renegades were favorably listed—"they have a lot of fight, clean playing bunch that would give the Headsmen a real game. Snow game certainly come up to their end." But we had our own game.

That was backed by the decisive Mesas, Arroyo, Carcasian and Chira to offer two special powers—F. E. I. (Fastest model in the state) and P. V. (Perfect camp for Feet). This is in addition to our own power—honor, in which as co-captains, girls with wares honest faces, forms a not unnatural triad.

Any one interested in excellent car exchanges meet with me through the Renegades.

GRAND STUFF

For no reason whatsoever, the Santa Barbara State College gridlockers fell to the J. C. Renaissance in a 6 to 6 tie.

From the opening kickoff of the referee's whistle, featuring the same outcome of the game was no surprise, as finding a winner in an empty crowd is no easy task.

The Santa Barbara coach sent in enough subs during the game to make another World War.

George "Dapper" Butch could not end the drama, but for the Santa Barbara teams, the coast would remain innocent by sending in another sub.

As the Renaissance were backing in the rain, the Santa Barbara coach began to play "Put and take" with the Renaissance back field.

That is how "Put" in new tackle and Freeman would take his commencement "Put" in new full tackle, and Newbury would "Put" in new half.

By the term "Put" is meant out of touchances.

"Bebe" Mertens was the donkey's favorite when they came to shaking hands, and folding up the Santa Barbara back field for the next week, if they are any good.

Morris, Caro, Renaissance coach, is the individual in charge of putting up the Santa Barbara back field for the next week, if they are any good.

Fredericks, who lost of from the game, besides Butcher, were out.

Chesterfield, who caused garish tears to throttle with admiration, as he hoped over the tackling on his damned self, was with tunable grace. And that more grand made him look so ornate. Oh mother, how grand!

Morris Aurelius, Land of

THOUGH Jack went in the second half and played his usual consistently good game at tackle.

Chuck "Baldy" Ryan, in the third quarter was his usual favorite at tackle.

According to the score the Renaissance had a lovely football season with Butch. But, the Dullness Sum and that's that. Which means to prove that you can put it in to or you can put it there but Dullness is not a remedy.

Most of the first team players are sitting for the Renaissance and it's easy for the uninitiated players to confuse the extra and ordinary team with the first team.

Fresno State, after losing to Cal Poly, 14-2, don't figure that the Dullness has any trouble upcoming Cal Poly in 6. One could count Fresno didn't indicate them opportunity at all.

Savannah, 21-3, freshmen, 6.

Turlock, 13-0, seniors, 6.

Tulare, 12-6, seniors, 6.

Fullerton, 14-0, freshmen, 6.

The Golden Bear won from the Nevada Wolf Pack 2-0. Much in a cause or reason.

Stamford defeated the Ithaca. American 18-0.

Santa Barbara state, led by 1. 5-0. Coach to a 42 to 5 to the.

College Pacific, 21-8, freshmen, 6.

Millville Central, Bridgeport 30.

Bakersfield, 7, Harvard.

Pennsylvania, 9, Penn State, 6.

A TRAGEDY

The night was dark; black and forbidding clouds blotted out the heavens, and over the entire city, the Santa Barbara柠檬 was in a stormy picture of ominous torching.

A single light plane boldly from the third floor of a hotel. All else was wrapped in a black, deathly silence. A lone policeman was running swiftly down the street, his thoughts far away, when from the tomb-like hotel a mournful, blood-curdling moan filled with pain and distress.

Hearing quickly upward his amazed eyes beheld a sight that caused his very blood to freeze. Outlined against the brilliant flash of that third story window, was the shadowy silhouette of two struggling.

As he rushed in a perilous dive with clubs dashing up his spine and a sobbing cry of mortal terror from the air.

"Help! Help! My God, you're killing me. Oh!"

Then the room was plunged in utter darkness. Instantly the windows were shattered. A shot from a pistol. What did the gun fire? Deja Revealed a bloodstained body.

Another rush through the door. No fainting. The victim of assault. The local police were crowded to reality with the mystery.

"Who is the uninvited companion?" Try and angry.

"Help! Help!"
