Christmas Dance Event of This Month

A. W. S. Sponsors Bridge Party Tuesday Night

Something novel in the way of an entertainment will be held by the A. W. S. when the organization will sponsor a bridge party for the women students in the junior college study hall next Tuesday night at 8:00 P. M. A small charge of 25c is asked to help cover the expenses that the party will involve.

In order that the girls who do not know how to play bridge may learn it, arrangements have been made to provide them with teachers. These pupils and their teachers will be separate from the other players and they will have their own games.

Girls who expect to attend the party are urged by Marion Higginbotham, president of the A. W. S., to get their tickets as soon as possible so that an approximate number of the guests can be taken. Alumni and former students home for vacation are invited to attend.

If the girls are enthusiastic about the party more will be held in the future according to the president.

Many preparations are being made to insure a good time for everyone. The committee heads and their helpers are as follows: Chairman of refreshments, Teresa Lucacella; assistants, Benerty Stancliff, Lucille Sloan, Mary Alice Erickson, and Holly Howsman; chairman of entertainment, Marjorie Collins and assistant, Frances Weaver. Chairman of arrangements, Marjorie Grothaus and assistants, Florence Leppig, Barbara Reid and Nona Louise Cripps; chairman of decorations, Doris Thornber, assistants Margaret Ashton and Virginia Voll, chairman of hospitality Kay Faber, assistant Laura Coats. Chairman of Publication, Mary Bowen.

STUDENT FUND READY FOR USE

It has been requested that any student who finds another student in need of anything should report the incident to the dean's office or to the Parent-Teachers Association.

All needy students are also asked to discuss the matter with the dean. Christmas season means "helping" season, and the above organization will do its share.

Football Men Receive Letters This Morning

Twenty football men received their felt "B's" at the student body meeting held this morning during third period. For the first time the student body was together to show their appreciation to the team and the coaches.

Brief talks were given by Herman A. Spindt, Theo Harder, Basil Peterson, Theron Taber, Jimmy Higginbotham, Glendon Rodgers, and James Day of the Californian. Marion Higginbotham, president of the A. W. S., talked upon the co-ed's attitude toward football. A jazz orchestra furnished popular music as a part of the entertainment.

Letters, presented by Miss Grace Bird, dean, were given to the following players:

STRING QUARTET GIVES PROGRAMS

Busy days and long hours of practice confront members of the string quartet as they are asked to play on many programs. Leslie Chatfield, Beverly Stancliff, Mary Alice Emery, and Mr. Parker are the members of the group.

In connection with the effort of the junior college to acquaint branch high schools of its activities, the quartet played for the Shafter High School student body. Isabelle Hanawalt was the representative who told of the activities of the junior college, clubs, classes, sports, etc. Another similar program will be given at the McFarland High School on Friday, Dec. 11.

Tomorrow afternoon the quartet will be the main feature of the high school Musicians' Club program. Numbers will include Op. 5 of Mendelssohn, Hyden's "Largo," and lighter numbers, "Flight of the Bumblebee," and two selections from "Blas."

Ruth Kim, former J. C. student, since moving to Los Angeles, has been working in the motion picture studios.

VISALIA DEBATES COMING FRIDAY

The debate season will open with a bang Friday when Bakersfield J. C. meets Visalia in mortal forensic combat. Bakersfield will send its affirmative team up to Visalia to take their negative team by strategy, while the local negative team will remain here and defend the home fort against the terrific intellectual onslaught of the Visalian affirmative team.

The battle of wits will begin promptly at 2:30 o'clock in the high school auditorium, where John Young and Jack Bethune will strive to corner, harass and generally squelch the Visalia team. Bakersfield is sending its Amazonian affirmative team, Isabelle Hanawalt and Meriam Martius up to Visalia to beard the lion in his den, so to speak.

The debate squad, under the generalship of Mr. Wiley K. Peterson, has spent the last four weeks in preparing to meet Visalia on the question: "Resolved that uniform marriage and divorce laws should be adopted by the several states." Classes that meet during the scheduled debate time will be excused at the option of the teachers.

SCIENCE CLASSES GOING TO COAST

Botany and zoology students are packing lunches, cars, and pockets these last few days in preparations for a field trip over to the coast near Cayucas next Sunday. Accompanied by Lyman Benson and Marian Neilson, instructors, all students who get a written permission statement from their parents are urged to go.

Leaving Bakersfield early Sunday mornink the group will travel to the coast via Wasco, Lost Hills, etc., and begin their study of sea-weeds and marine life. Low tide will be around 2:30 in the afternoon, and Mr. Benson expects to gather some valuable specimens.

FRENCH GROUP TO ENTERTAIN

Hot coffee, gingerbread, dancing, and bridge will be the chief attractions at the French Club social meeting next Wednesday evening, Dec. 9.

Stanton Jones will act as host to the group at the Greeley home on the Kern River bluffs.

Annual-Affair To Be Given At Woman's Club

Seasonal greetings and best wishes will be exchanged by junior college students and alumni at the third annual Christmas dance sponsored by the Bakersfield J. C. student body, to take place on Friday, December 18, at nine o'clock, at the Bakersfield Woman's Club, on the corner of Eighteenth and D streets.

Harry Tibbett, vice-president and social chairman of the student body, recently named a committee of six which will have general charge of the Christmas dance and other social functions this year. Members of the committee are Cleo Daugherty, Inez Goding, James Hayden, Harold Hart, Joe McNamara, and Leonard Lucio.

Plans for the affair will be completed by this committee soon.

Kay Goode, secretary, has sent out nearly two hundred invitations to out-of-town alumni and a large percentage of local former students have promised to be present at the holiday social function.

A special decorator has been hired to decorate the hall in keeping with the Christmas season.

OXFORD DESCRIBED BY OMEGA TAUS

Three interesting talks on Oxford University were the main features at the Omega Tau meeting held November 24th at Mr. Ewerts' home. Bernice Bradden gave the history of Oxford, Mary Bowen gave its curriculum, and Alice Davis spoke on its social life.

An interesting difference from our universities is the fact that the students do practically no studying during the school year, but in vacation a student bundles up his books, and he and his tutor strikes out for southern France, where he does nothing but study until finals are given. Then he goes back and takes his finals. As soon as they are over he again takes his place in the social world, where he entertains almost exclusively.

Questions were asked on these subjects and a free discussion was held. Refreshments were served as a usual thing and the meeting was adjourned.

The next meeting will be held December 17 at the home of Kathleen Cassady.

THE HOLIDAY SEASON

As this is the last publication of the Rip before the Christmas vacation, the editorial staff extends a wish for a "Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year" to every member of the student body.

This is December 3. Twenty-two more days until the big event. We hope that everyone will have a full of turkey, gifts, and fun, but don't forget the other fellow!

Give your share!

Women Students Form New Club

A group of women students, not to be outdone by the new men's America Club, have united to form a new social science discussion club with the name "Areopagus"—the name of an aristocratic political discussion group in Greece.

Formed for the purpose of studying national, international, economic, political and social problems, the group will meet.

Once a month the club has a joint forum meeting with the Social Science and Young America clubs.

At a recent meeting the following officers were elected: Isabelle Hanawalt, president; Miss Margaret Levinson, adviser and secretary; Jane Belows, program chairman, and Miriam Martins and Floyl Cook, members of Constitution committee.

During the present time, the members are studying the problem of law enforcement in municipal, county, state, and federal governments.

Any girl wishing to join the club should see one of the members. Isabelle gives a statement as follows: "We have and want only one kind of members—that is, active members!"

Present members of the group include Isabelle Hanawalt, Jane Belows, Mary Bowen, Miriam Martins, Floyl Cook, and Miss Margaret Levinson of the faculty.

U. S. C. and the University of Iowa have recently added courses in radio announcing to their curricula.

Letter Box

To the Editor of the Rip: The attention of the student body should be directed toward the presentation of gold footballs to the men winning their letters this season.

Many objections are to be found in connection with the financial end of the proposal, but it should be remembered that the money which would be used to pay for the footballs has been earned by the SQUAD and NOT by the school.

Y. M. C. A. PLANS BIG SNOW PARTY

A week-end snow party at Mr. Sagen's cabin on White River, eight miles north of Jack Ranch, is being planned by the Junior College Y. M. C. A.

Sez Madam!

Ladies and Gentslemen, this is Station RIP broadcasting from the J. C. Study Hall.

It is our pleasure to present Madame Ovaltina Bovina, who will answer the letters she has received this week. Madame welcomes all letters. Write to her in care of this station.

"Good-morning, friends—My first letter this morning is from Mr. G. Rodgers. He finds that his friends are wasting an appalling amount of time in study hall.

"I am very sorry, Mr. Rodgers, that little can be done until you revolutionize your own technique."

"My next query is from Mr. Eldon Sprayberry. He writes: 'I am six feet tall and weighs 312 pounds.'"

"May I suggest, Mr. Sprayberry, that you walk to and from school at least five days a week, retire at 8:15 every night but Thursday, when it would be advisable for you to retire from one to two hours earlier."

"And here is a letter from Miss Jane Jensen. Miss Jensen writes: 'Please help me out of my dreadful dilemma. I am desperate! I spend hours poring over my French to no avail.'"

"I believe, Miss Jensen, that your French would be greatly improved if you would attend class at least two or three times a week."

"This letter comes from Mr. Roscoe Morgan. Mr. Morgan writes: 'I am a young man, considered quite good looking, and the girls seem to like me. Yet when I try to talk to them I can't find words.'"

"Mr. Morgan, you are to be pitied. However, if you consult Mr. Clayton Dougherty on this matter, he may be able to give you some valuable pointers."

"Miss Frances Stockton—wants to know if Mr. Bill Wharton is the type for her. Because of 'redheaded' reputations she is filled with misgivings."

"My last letter this morning is from Mr. Harry Tibbetts. Mr. Tibbetts says: 'I would like very much to become a radio artist. I think my baritone voice is fairly passable.'"

Just TRY to Study

By HANNUM

Come here, binder, we have to get some paper out of you. There now, I guess three sheets will do—one to write on and two for a pad.

Let's see. What shall I write about? This sounds like a good subject. Let's go. Hi, there, Jack Fine, How are you? No, I didn't go to the game.

Well, half of it done. Won't be long now. Oh, hello, Alice. Sure, sit down. Got your zoology? Neither have I.

Well, well, here we are back at the old stand again after being banished to the sport page for two issues. We wish to state for the benefit of the first year students and those who have not read our column before that anything said in this poor, blundering attempt at winchellizing, is uttered purely in the spirit of good clean fun and we hope that it will be accepted as such.

It is rumored around school that a certain member of the debate squad is "that way" about one of the well-known honor students. How about it Jack?

Those boys who hang their pins on high school babes. The other day we saw a Kappa pin on a certain member of the high school musicians' club. My! My! Such goings on!

Lately we have noticed a certain freshman and a gentleman who last year attended the Boeing School of Aeronautics in each other's company quite a bit. Can it be serious?

The bulletin board in the study hall seems to be attracting quite a bit of attention lately. What with excerpts from various columnists, anonymous poetry and what not. The current attraction seems to be a piece by the very Odd McIntyre concerning two mismatched gold-fish. Alas, such is the taste of College students!

"That is all I have time for this morning, so until the next broadcast of RIP at this same hour I will say Au Revoir."

New Constitution For Kappa Rho

Members of the Kappa Rho Sigma met last Sunday evening, with the following speakers: Norton Jaggard upon the subject, "The Weather Bureau Work," and Lyman Benson on "Botany as a Profession."

Some provisions are as follows: Twenty students, ten at a time, in junior college are to be invited as guests to future meetings. These are all eligible for memberships, and a list of members will be chosen from this group.

The purpose of the organization shall be to promote general interest in science and to encourage high scholarship.

No one shall be made an active member until they have served a probationary period of at least one month.

John Hale and Wallace Mitchell were in charge of refreshments. The next meeting will be held Tuesday evening, December 15. Mr. Sagen and Wallace Mitchell will speak upon some phase of psych.

Wharton's What-Not's

Well, well, here we are back at the old stand again after being banished to the sport page for two issues. We wish to state for the benefit of the first year students and those who have not read our column before that anything said in this poor, blundering attempt at winchellizing, is uttered purely in the spirit of good clean fun and we hope that it will be accepted as such.

STUDY HALL SCENE OF BULL FIGHT

A bull fight was held November 10 in the J. C. study hall. It was a riot, and Clayton Dougherty conquered the bull. A loud burst of cheers came from the crowd as the bull fell.

At 7 o'clock the old members with the initiates joined in a Spanish dinner at Fragers. After dinner a very comical initiation was held in the J. C. study.

Max Dolan did a graceful Spanish dance with Verral Allen and Lucille Thorn. It was enjoyed so much they were recalled three times to repeat the performance.

Clayton Dougherty and Audrey Gill gave a Romeo and Juliet scene in modern slang. Juliet's balcony was a frail chair but she managed to stay perched up on its back.

Charles Salcido sang La Paloma after which he was dared to come back.

With the initiation over, the members danced and at 11:30 pie a la mode was served.

Smirks and Smears From South Campus

Blondes and brunettes both have their place. But when it comes to a red head look at her face. By Kenneth Dennen.

Sprayberry—"What do you think of this story, Kay? Give me your honest opinion."

Kay Faber—"Well, it's not worth anything."

Sprayberry—"I know, but tell me what you think of it anyway."

Jimmie Higginbotham doesn't think it would be so bad to be a farmer's son if he had Hay to shock all the time.

Isabelle Hanawalt has contemplated organizing a new J. C. society. She was heard recently discussing her plans with her partner in crime, John Young.

The theme song of the organization, which will be composed of Isabelle, only, if others do not receive her plan better than John did, will be, "When It's Round-up Time in Reno," and the by-word—well, you'd better ask Isabelle.

A loud chuckle recently came from Miss Nielson, instructor in science, while she was correcting some zoology test papers. One of the questions was: "What is a parasite?"

The following answer was found on Delbert Slack's paper: "A parasite is one who goes through a revolving door without pushing."

CHORAL GROUP PLANS PROGRAM

Planning a snappy, harmonizing program for the next student body meeting, the choral club members are now working under the direction of Miss Ivah Fullerton.

A stunt directed by Jack McQuiddy will be given by the men of the group as the main feature. Those taking part will be David Mills, Henry Karber, Elmer Lowell, Willard Youngsdahl, Mathew Dennis and Nick Johnson.

Mathew Dennis is to play a saxophone solo and Kathleen Cassady will give a vocal selection.

Two numbers, "Plantation," a synoposed southern melody, and "Night of Love," will be presented by the club as a whole.

FIRST SNOW PARTY THIS WEEK-END

This winter's first snow brawl is to be held by members of the junior college and high school orchestra this coming Sunday at Frazier Park. The weather which has prevailed in the mountains for the past two weeks makes excellent sledding conditions.

The old stand-bys, beans and coffee, are to be taken along, and when chow is called, it will be every man for himself. All former members of the orchestra have received invitations to attend and help make the party a real success.

The party plans to assemble at Central Park on Nineteenth street, and leave there at 10 o'clock for Frazier.

JUST WONDERIN'

Why Kay Faber always whistles "I Get the Big Go-By?"

What "Rodg" finds so interesting in the J. C. study hall?

What would happen if somebody called Thornley Roe a "cream puff"?

Why Jimmie H. has taken such an interest in dancing?

What strange power Kay Goode wields over her new boy friend?

What distracts Joe "Mac's" attention in the study hall?

What would happen if Roscoe Morgan lost that ring he has been carrying around on his watch fob?

If Les Buchner knows Jane's Philosophy on Life?

Where Bill Wharton got the idea HE could wear side-burns?

Why the A. W. S. indulged in all the price-slashing on the noon dance? Could it be the depression?

Why Herb Martin reads out loud to himself in Spanish A, third period?

Why Laura Coats wears a different sweater nearly every day? Just why "Dynamite" Nichols played pool, during training, too.

BIRD EXCUSES FOOTBALL TEAM

Miss Bird, appreciating the fact that our football team has worked hard this season, and is in great need of rest and relaxation, has granted them a brief respite from all physical exertion.

The wear and tear on the team is made evident when it is disclosed that "Red" Mitchell has lost every ounce of sixteen pounds since the football season opened. Miss Bird hopes that the members of the team will regain their lost bulk during the Christmas vacation.

KOLLEGE KAPERS

The modern co-ed doesn't believe in the man in the moon, but she has often received indisputable evidence of the moon in the man.

Making the football team is an arduous task for the Renegades but an easy one for our co-eds.

"The class will kindly pay a bit more attention to me," said the bald-headed professor, "as we study insignificant worms."

Frosh—"What would you do if the captain fainted during a football game?"

Water Boy—"Bring him to." Frosh—"Then what?" Water Boy—"Bring him two more."

Room mate over phone—"Mary says she isn't in. Is there any message?" Third sting hero—"Yes, tell her that Sam didn't call her up."

The sky with all its galaxies, Is an inspiring sight, But oh, to see a football star, When he goes out at night!

WOULDN'T IT SEEM FUNNY IF Walter were ice instead of Frost? Joe were parrotson instead of Robinson?

Laura were shoes instead of Coats? Robert were Cross instead of Sterns?

Clyde were per-buy instead of Per-sel? Jean were less instead of Moore?

Inez were helling instead of God-ling? Kay were naughty instead of Goode?

Audrey were sloppy instead of Neate? Alice were polite instead of Rude?

RENEGADES DEFEAT CITRUS IN SEASON'S LAST GAME

HARD FOUGHT GAME YIELDS 12-6 SCORE

The Renegades gave the current football story a satisfactory ending here last Saturday afternoon by a 12-6 win over Citrus J. C. Led by the gallant and elusive Van Vliet, the Southerners put up a game but losing battle. The game, as the score testifies, was no walk-away for the local pigskin warriors. It was anyone's game until the final gun.

Jim Tyack, wearing the Maroon for the last time on the football field, played a fine game, completing one of those almost mythical 40-yard passes. Bud Mier, who was on the receiving end of the pass, deserves at least half the credit for the performance. Incidentally Mr. Mier played a bang-up game both offensively and defensively. O'Connor turned in his usual steady performance. Hannum, Stanley and Williams also did their share to further the Renegade cause. Roe, Packard, Muedell and Mitchell showed up well on the line.

For the visitors Van Vliet was undoubtedly the bright and shining light, playing a wonderful defensive game, as well as more than starring on the offense. It was his 50-yard run in the second quarter that gave the visitors their lone tally. Farr also showed up well for Citrus.

The first quarter saw the ball in the Renegades possession most of the time with O'Connor, Hannum, and Stanley doing most of the ground-gaining. The locals drew another of those long penalties that they have come to expect. Van Vliet completed a beautiful 20-yard pass to Farr as the quarter ended.

The second quarter saw the visitors draw a 15-yard penalty on the first play. After a determined march from their own 25-yard line featured by brilliant gains by O'Connor, Hannum and Stanley, O'Connor went over for the touchdown. O'Connor's kick was wide.

Score—Bakersfield 6, Citrus 0.

After recovering the safety man's fumble, Citrus scored, Van Vliet making a beautiful 50-yard sprint for the touchdown. The attempted conversion failed.

Score—Bakersfield 6, Citrus 6.

Shortly after the kickoff, Tyack, who replaced Stanley, completed a 40-yard pass to Mier for another Bakersfield score. O'Connor's kick was blocked.

Score—Bakersfield 12, Citrus 6.

After a few intercepted and incompleting passes and an exchange of punts the quarter ended.

The visitors threatened to score early in the third quarter, but Hannum's interception of La Due's pass broke up their drive. The rest of the quarter the ball saw-sawed up and

TENNIS PLAY-OFFS EXCITING EVENTS

Closing an exciting contest last Saturday, Al Price defeated Richard Baily for the lead in the men's tennis tournament now in progress. The score for the match was 5-7, 6-4, 6-4. This was regarded as an upset, as Bailey was a champion player and hoped to hold the title.

Holidays interrupted the play-off matches, with but a few playing as scheduled. Many of the players decided upon next Saturday, December 5, as a better time for the contests.

Vernon Jackson defeated Gilbert Homfeldt in a hard fought match, 7-5, 7-5. Jack Wells won from Norton Jaggard by default.

Games which will be played over the next week-end are:

Max Erwin vs. Leslie Chatfield; John Crawford vs. John MacQuiddy; Sinclair Ives vs. Edward Lowe, and Charles Penn vs. Lester Makoff.

"SPUD" BREAKS INTO PICTURES

How many Jaysees saw a recent short subject at the Nile theater called "Football Forty Years Ago"? While noticing the grotesque whiskers and head adornment of the players, it was an important fact that "Spud" Harder was one of the most terrible of the "big bruisers" of the gridiron. "Spud" was called to the Stanford campus by "Pop" Warner last summer along with many other former Stanford football stars. The picture was made to illustrate the methods in defense, and offense used in the gay '90s.

down the field, going from one 15-yard stripe to the other.

Score—Bakersfield 12, Citrus 6.

The fourth quarter saw several incompleting passes, a nice 25-yard run by one Jim Tyack, a few penalties one way and another and substitution of all men on the Renegade squad.

Final score—Bakersfield 12, Citrus 6.

BASKETEERS START PRACTICE AS HEAVY SCHEDULE LOOMS

GRID GOSSIP

Graduation, ineligibility for further competition or what have you will make quite a hole in the Renegade forces next year. Those who will be incapacitated next year include Roe, Dougherty, Findley, A. Smith, Mitchell, Tyack, Higginbotham, Hannum, Stanley, McBratney and Jennings.

This list numbers among its constituents some of the best football material that ever wore the Maroon and White.

The loss of such men as Higginbotham, Tyack, Stanley and Hannum will be very keenly felt in the backfield. A. Smith, McBratney and Jennings will be missed at the wing positions. The absence of such men as Roe, Dougherty, Findley and Mitchell will leave a gap in Coach Harder's fast-charging forward wall that will be hard to fill.

On the other hand there will be quite a galaxy of stars, both potential and proven, returning next year. Coach Harder's main worry, however, is to keep these men eligible for next year. Profs. have been known to be a little lenient on football men during the season, but as soon as it is over, may the Lord have mercy on their souls! (and grades!)

Here's an item that takes us into the wrestling field. Chet Whitten, a professional wrestler, is now attending B. J. C. Chet came back to school for the winter but will take part in matches during the year.

mer along with many other former Stanford football stars. The picture was made to illustrate the methods in defense, and offense used in the gay '90s.

One play that might be of interest to hopeful Renegades who lack the proper "poundage" for the team would be that old play that called for the leather belt with the handle. A big linesman wore the belt. The ball-carrier, pushed by another "bruise" from behind, takes a firm hold on the handle and is carried far down the field for yards and more yards. Can't you just see Hannum in between O'Connor and Packard?

Sprayberry—"I dreamed last night that I had a job."

Martin—"Yes, you do look tired."

Experienced Men to Help Renegades

Last Monday night 34 boys turned out for basketball with more probably coming out in the remainder of the week. They were made up of a diversified mess of former Drillers, former Renegades, stars for other schools, and non-experienced men.

Barrett, Hayworth and Stemen were of last year's Drillers. Former Renegade basketballers present were West, Stanley, Higginbotham, Jennings, Haught, Clemens and Crawford, who played on the 1929-30 team. O'Connor is here from Schnecktady, Camp from Shafter, and Williams from Los Angeles.

This looks like plenty of material but we will need it as the Renegades face the toughest schedule they have ever faced.

For the first five weeks they have a double-header every week-end and after that one game a week.

The night was given over to practice in fundamentals and a lecture by Coach Basil Peterson.

In Pete's lecture he stressed the ideas of team work, good passing, close shooting and personal care. After practice each member of the squad was given a pamphlet on the Fundamentals of Basketball written by Coach B. Peterson.

This year Wiley Peterson, debate coach, will coach the "Goops," that is, those men who do not make the team, and Basil will arrange games for them against the night league and teams from other towns.

Asked if he thought he had a championship team, Pete declined to reply only saying that he had hopes.

The Renegade hoopsters have their first scheduled game on December 19 with Richmond Santa Fe apprentices. This team may always be counted upon to furnish stiff competition. Year before last the Renegades beat them while they turned the tables last year.

The schedule for the games is as follows:

- Dec. 19—Santa Fe, Richmond, Calif., here.
- Jan. 8—Calif. Poly., here.
- Jan. 9—Calif. Frosh, 145 pounds, here.
- Jan. 15—Santa Maria J. C., there.
- Jan. 16—Calif. Poly, there.
- Jan. 22—Visalia, there.
- Jan. 23—Reedley, here.
- Jan. 29—Porterville, here.
- Jan. 30—Taft, there.
- Feb. 6—Calif. Frosh, there.
- Feb. 12 or 13—Reedley, there.
- Feb. 19 or 20—Porterville, there.
- Feb. 26 or 27—Visalia, here.
- March 4 or 5—Taft, here.

Doctor—"You've certainly got acute appendicitis."

Virginia Voll—"Oh, Doctor, you flatter me."
