Dance Proceeds To Help Buy Varsity Blankets

Plans for raising money to buy blankets for the Varsity Club were discussed at a meeting of the A. W. S. last Thursday. It was decided to restore the former price of the moon dance, 10 cents, to help pay for these blankets. It was also noted that a social function for the Junior College women was 1 a month or. held sometime during the earlier part of next semester.

Mrs. Aldrich, adviser of the A. W. S., gave an informal talk concerning the girls about cramming for the finals. She pointed out that late hours for cramming, besides being detrimental to the health, really give no lasting value to the student. The question of girls smoking near the vicinity of the campus and its influence upon the impressions of outsiders was also discussed by Mrs. Aldrich.

It was decided that at all following meetings programs and talks will be given. These programs will be under the direction of different girls appointed by Marion Higgins, president of the A. W. S.

Minutes of the meeting were read by Helen St. Clair, secretary, and Elizabeth McCann, treasurer, and the A. W. S. has $47.26 in the treasury.

Separate P. T. A. For Jaycee Aid Now Organized

A new parent-faculty-student club was formed Wednesday, January 6, when the Junior College Parent-Teachers Association was separated from that of the high school.

During this regular meeting of the joint organization, the new group was approved. The purpose of the club is to be the financial aid to new students, the buying of blankets for the football boys, helping in any way with social affairs when asked to do so, furnishing necessary transportation, and in acting as a general advisory group to students needing financial or social aid. Plans are already being made to help the student body with the annual spring conference of junior colleges to be held here next March.

Glen Dodgers, Harry Tibbetts, Kay Goode, and Kay Faber, of the executive committee, were special guests at the last meeting. During the afternoon a discussion upon the value of such an organization to the junior college took place. Members of the executive committee, Miss Bird, and Mrs. J. F. Faber, chairman, acted as the speakers.

A special highlight of the last meeting was the talk by Mrs. Dana Bing upon various colleges, their requirements, tuition charges, living facilities. All of which was of interest both to mothers and students. Miss Grace Bird, dean, was the chief speaker. Her topic was "Occupation and Leisure."

A special meeting of Junior College mothers will be held Wednesday afternoon, January 27, when the group will have its final organization.

POSSIBLE GRADS AT MID-TERM

If circumstances continue fair for six percent students at B. J. B., a new crop of mid-term graduates will leave at the end of the semester. According to reports from the Dean's office, Kay Goode, Ggal James, and Milton Kief are almost certain to graduate. Lucille James, Glen Dodgers, and William Wharton are possible graduates. At any rate, the campus is due to receive a heavy loss in population.

Many new students are expected to enter for the spring session, and an enrollment of over four hundred and fifty is expected.

With the close of the first semester next Thursday the subject of finals and registration for the second semester rises. As posted on the bulletin board in the Junior College study hall, finals will begin next Wednesday and end on the following Wednesday. They will be given in J. C. 12 and all students must bring blue books with them.

Registration will take place Thursday afternoon and Friday morning, January 27 and 28. It is necessary for anyone to register before that time who he should Miss Bird as soon as possible. Regular or part time students, who are in attendance this semester will register in J. C. 12, post graduate students in J. C. 113, and new students, who were not in attendance here this year, in J. C. 114.

New students entering Junior College will not be required to take an examination in Subject A but are to enroll in either an English 1A-class or Subject A class. After a trial of two weeks they will then be placed in a definite English class.

To make certain that there will be no uncertainty about the time the finals will be given, the entire program will be as follows:

Students for Final Examinations

An interesting fact about the choral club is that it has apts the tradition of keeping its members involved throughout the year. Regular meetings are held every Tuesday evening, and all members are expected to attend. The club is made up of 15 members, and the majority of them are women.

GERMAN STUDENTS

No More Excusable Reason for New Club

Students of Miss Peterson's first and second year German classes met on January 15 to form a new club, "German Student Union for New Club Mates." A constitution was adopted at the meeting, and the club is expected to have a membership of about 30.

Miss Peterson, the German teacher, said that she had been looking for an opportunity to organize a German club for some time, and she was pleased to find that the students were interested in the idea.

The club will have regular meetings, and its purposes will be to promote interest in the German language and culture, and to provide a forum for discussion of German topics. Members will be required to attend at least one meeting per week.

Miss Peterson said that she hoped the club would be successful, and that it would provide a good opportunity for the students to learn more about the German language and culture.

She added that she was looking forward to seeing the students develop a greater appreciation for the German language and culture.

Balfour: "See You Later" to Junior College Students

Balfour, C. J. spoke on Friday, January 13, in the Union, and expressed his appreciation to the students for their interest in the school. He said that he was looking forward to seeing them again soon.

The Balfour address was the second of the year, and Miss Brown was the first. Balfour's address was more informal, and he made a point of saying goodbye to the students, saying that he would see them again in the near future.

He ended by saying that he was proud of the students and that he was looking forward to seeing them again soon.

Final Supplies

Now that the finals are approaching, Mrs. Edith B. Donaldson, proprietor of the Blue and White Lunch Stand, sends her wishes of good luck to all Renegades and Renedettes.

It is to be remembered that all teachers require blue books for all examinations.

Mrs. Donaldson wishes that students may know that all school supplies and Bakersfield Junior College blue books may be obtained from her and at Roebuck's store also.

SMILE WITH ME

"Well, Sambo," said an American judge. "Do you and your wife have been fighting again, Liquor, I suppose?"

"No, sir," said Sambo, "she locked me this time."

Kind old lady—"My good man, you had better take that street car home,"

L. Findlay—"If he's no use, Wife wouldn't let me keep it in the housethe"

And then there's Mildred Gibbons so nearighted she wears her glasses to bed to see the boy of her dreams!

A. Smith: "I suppose you find your wife can live on your income all right?"

L. Findlay: "Oh yeh, but it's up to me now to make another one for myself.

Host: "Then you did get here tonight, after all?"

Absent minded Prof.: "Yes. I meant to forget to come but I forgot to forget it."

NEW TOPIC CHOSEN

For DISCUSSION GROUP

The Areopagus, members are now studying the topic of "Unemployment Insurance.") This group, made up of women students interested in current problems, met last week with the Social Science Club and heard Mrs. Inge bow's lecture on the above topic.

Alice Davis and Evelyn Schmidt were recently admitted as new members.

HARD WEEK-END CONTEST FOR CASABA TOSERS

The Renegades' third basketball tilt is to be played off Saturday night against the Cal-Poly squad on their home courts. The entire squad, 18 in all, are making the trip. The "Gods," or third-string men, are scheduled to play a preliminary game with the Cal-Poly "goodies" and are in high spirits at the prospect. "Pete" expects to arrive at the same squad that started the last game, with Haworth at center, West and Barrett, forwards, and Crawford and Higginbotham, guards.

Cal-Poly's outstanding threats are McClain, guard, and Vandam, center. Although Saturday's contest is not a league game, it will be a close battle due to Cal-Poly's high rating as a prospective contender for league honors next year.

The games scheduled for the following week-end are league games—Visalia at Visalia, and Reedley at Bakersfield.

FROSH CAPTURE SOCCER TITLE

The freshman girls won the soccer championship last week by defeating the sophomores two out of three games. This victory makes the chances even for the season's championship, since the association games were won by the sophomores last month.

Girls on the winning Frosh team are: Victoria Achin (Cap.), Margaret Bailey, Genevieve Borel, Lottie Ellen Cave, Katherine Colburn, Holly Howman, Felische Sandbergen, Evelyn Schmidt, Vivian Smoot, Adele Thayer, Ruth Mary Westfall, Shirley Mae Andreas, Eva Fillik, Emily Finch, and Charlotte Way.

The defeated sophomores are: Frances Weaver (Cap.), Katherine Faber, Judith Fiedler, Mary Higginbotham, Dorothy Johnson, Helen Knight, Doris Thorborn, Elizabeth McGinn, Una Walters, Priscilla Willard, Laura Rennerman, Nona Louise Crisp, Theresa Lacasella, Mary Kay Sheaff, and Lucille Sloan.

Wharton's What-Not

Now that the censored finals are rapidly approaching, many herdsmen happy and carefree students are no longer seen in the Loiterers' Row in front of the J. C. B. building. They are seeking more quiet surroundings away from the mob in which to attempt to assimilate at least a mediocre amount of knowledge before the dreaded events.

Another item also censored—we wonder if some of the instructors are as tired with their students as their students become during classes?

After the hail storm Tuesday, which left the campus with a clean white covering, the college children enjoyed sporting about and petting their hair with "snowballs" made of hail. A good time was had by all the Honorables Gilbert—Homfeld included.

We notice that Renegade Jack Byfield held his old eagle eye working well in Friday night's game. Fouls were called right and left, let the gys fall over.

And then there's Mr. James discussing marriage in the study hall. We wonder why he thinks the way he does on many phases of the above subject?

As we've heard before: "It's a great life if you don't weaken"—but who wants to be strong? So, take this opportunity of saying au revoir, and off to sleep for another month.
