Annual J. C. Play To Be Presented Next Week-End

Do you know "What Every Woman Knows"? You'd better come to the annual junior college student body play, next Friday and Saturday, March 18 and 19, and find out the secret. Yes, the secret of woman's intuition, will be told by the members of the cast for Sir James Barry's play, "What Every Woman Knows."

The plot of the play is the tale of a young woman, who thinks she is without charm. Her two brothers fear that she will never marry and, upon the discovery of a night caller, urge an immediate marriage between the two. The part of the young woman is played by Jane Bellows, under the name of Maggie. Her brothers, David and James, are played by David Mills and Glenn Bultman, respectively. The night prowler, a rising politician, is played by Herber Poe. The other characters, who add charm and vividness to the plot are Lady Sybil Tanderden, a young English woman, who is experienced in the ways of the world, and thinks herself in love with John, the young politician. Marian DeCew plays this part with unusual grace. The Comtesse de la Briere, the worldly wise French matron is played by Mary Brown. The part of the father of the heroine and her brothers is played by Harold Brown.

The play is a costume performance of the early twentieth century, 1900 to 1908. Costumes from the time are being collected by the director, Miss Ethel Robinson, and her staff of workers, and the play promises to be one of the best, put on here for some time. Virginia Voll is assisting the director.

Reserved seats go on sale in the ticket office next week. Don't forget to get yours, and find out "What Every Woman Knows."

TRAVEL TOPICS INTEREST OMEGAS

The guest speaker at the next meeting of the Omega Tau, March 22, will be Harold Estep, who will speak on his world travels.

The last meeting was held at the home of Elizabeth McGinn. Isabelle Hanawalt spoke upon the Republic of Andora.

The programs for this semester will be travel lectures. The March meeting will again be held at the home of Elizabeth McGinn.

A. W. S. Convention At Modesto

Marian Higginbotham, Margaret Bailey and Mrs. Hazel Aldrich, attended the annual meeting of the Associated Women Students organizations in the Alta and Central districts of California, at Modesto, last week-end, March 4 and 5.

More than seventy-five girls and their advisors attended the sessions, which started with a tea for delegates on Friday afternoon. Following the tea, the local girls were introduced to their hostesses, who "treated them royally," according to Marian.

Friday evening, a basketball game was attended.

Saturday morning was devoted to conferences, following the general assembly, when welcomes were given by Myrre Hawkins, president of the Modesto J. C., A. W. S., and Dean Baker, the dean of the junior college. Margaret attended the conference on social problems, Marian, the one for presidents and leaders, and Mrs. Aldrich, the one for advisors.

Following the luncheon for delegates, the afternoon was free. In the evening, the delegates again met for a banquet, which was enjoyed by all the girls.

A Leap Year Dance was the feature of the evening. Escorts were provided for the delegates, and a good time was reported by the local delegates.

This is the first time, the local J. C. has taken part in the A. W. S. convention, and, according to Marian, many interesting and helpful points were gained from attendance.

NINE MUSICIANS NAMED ALL-STATE

Nine musicians were selected by Mr. H. J. Burt, head of the music department, to represent Bakersfield in the All-State Orchestra. These musicians made the trip to Santa Barbara last week-end with representatives from all the Junior Colleges of the state.

Bakersfield J. C. was accorded a compliment in being allowed to contribute so large a percentage to the ranks of the All-State Orchestra. Those chosen to represent our school were: Virginia Dougherty, Ellen Kerr, Rees Rees, Jack Dougherty, Jack Reese, Mary Alice Emery, Elizabeth McGinn, Beverly Stancliff and Carl Chitwood.

Debaters Share Honors With Taft In Dual Debate

Bakersfield J. C. vanquished her most formidable opponent, Taft J. C., Friday, in the race for the valley debate championship. In the dual debate we beat Taft by the narrow margin of four out of six decisions.

Taft's most worthy representatives, Mr. B. S. Genes and Mr. J. G. Peterson, valiantly attacked the arguments of Isabelle Hanawalt and Merium Martius, Bakersfield affirmative team; but were hopelessly outmatched, the home team winning the debate by a sweeping victory, 3-0.

Winning this debate is much to our credit, for our affirmative team was badly crippled, due to the fact that Miss Isabelle Hanawalt had a bad cold. Though her voice alternated between deep bass and piccolo soprano, she successfully presented her own arguments and knocked down those of Taft; and, in spite of her monstrous and overwhelming handicap, took first speaker ranking. That this was appreciated by the audience was evidenced by the enthusiastic applause at the conclusion of Miss Hanawalt's last speech.

Miss Martius made one of the strongest thrusts possible in debate when she showed that one of Taft's authorities was of ancient date and that that same authority had superseded its previous statement with one favorable to the affirmative.

Our negative team did not fare so well at Taft as far as decisions go, losing the debate 2-1; but they made a most excellent showing, completely annihilating every major contention set up by Taft. The Bakersfield negative team was composed of Harry Miller and John Young.

The Taft affirmative team was composed of Mr. Boshem and Mr. Thorton. They were hard set to win the decision over Young and Miller and may well be proud of their victory. Mr. Young, of Bakersfield, took first speaker ranking at Taft. Thus far John Young is highest ranking speaker in the valley. Bakersfield now leads the Valley Debate Conference and will win the Valley Championship unless something unforeseen occurs.

Jack Bethune and Harold Estep will debate Visalia Junior College sometime this month.

Bakersfield will debate Occidental College women's team April 29. This

Local Students Urged To Attend Saturday's Meet

Welcome, delegates, to the annual spring conference of the Central California Junior College Association! Bakersfield J. C. is happy to act as host at the most important event of years of Junior Colleges. Plans have been made to make this conference a big success in a social as well as business way. The general program of the day has been divided so that these two ends may be accomplished.

REGISTRATION

Registration and reception of delegates will take place at 11:15 in the Women's gym. Miss Wilkinson will head this committee and working under her will be Kay Faber, chairman; Shirley Mae Andress, Margaret Belsit, Margaret Baily, Esther Hay, Peggy Cooke, Jack Alston, Jack McWilliams, Frank Columbia and Richard Baily.

LUNCHEON

The luncheon in the cafeteria will be provided for by the Congregational Church Guild and served by Home Economics students. Miss Mentzer is the chairman of decorations for the luncheon and her committee includes: Elizabeth McGinn, Mary Alice Emery, Victoria Achin, Frances Stockton, Irene Main, Pauline Love, Jane Ireland, Eva Filkel, Alice Davis, Helen Knight, Avis Beckwith, Beatrice Kitch, Mildred Stockill, Mary Kay Sheaff, Mengia Mattley, Virginia Dougherty, Ellen Kerr, Anita Durand, Elfa Westland, Joe Tener and Larry Chenoweth.

GENERAL SESSION

The general session at 1:15 in the auditorium will be presided over by Mr. L. J. Williams, president of the Junior College Association. The guest speaker will be Dr. Paul F. Cadman, of the San Francisco Stock Exchange and former instructor and dean of men at the University of California.

MEN'S RALLY

The men's rally at 2:15 under the leadership of Mr. W. N. Petersen will have as its guest speaker Coach "Navy Bill" Ingram. Besides the general discussions, popular songs by Ed Richardson and piano solos by Gerald Adams will be given.

WOMEN'S JINX

During the time of men's rally the women delegates will assemble at the Woman's Club for the Women's Jinx

HOW ABOUT IT?

Preparations are rapidly going forward to be in readiness for the three hundred visitors who will visit our campus Saturday. Entertainment has been planned, luncheon preparations have been discussed, committees are at work, all to make this one of the best conferences for representatives of Central California Junior Colleges.

There is only one thing in question, will the students of Bakersfield Junior College support the conference and attend the luncheon, rally, hi-jinks, "mixer," and other parts of the day's entertainment? The tickets for the luncheon and program are fifty cents. All who can possibly afford to come should not hesitate. The schools which will be represented have a reputation for co-operation and "putting things over" when they have the conferences.

Let them say the same of B. J. C.!

KAPPA DANCE

UNIQUE AFFAIR

All the journalists, alias dirt throwers, alias Rip-reporters, congregated at the apartment of Miss Margaret Levinson, faculty advisor to the Rip, for a meeting, last Thursday night, to organize a club for the budding J. C. journalists.

The meeting was brought to order by Herb McBratney, who acted as chairman for the evening.

Russel Black moved that the club have a flexible constitution like England and not have it written. Jack Bethune, well known debater, (and by the way, his secret is out: he hails from dear old Kentucky), immediately vetoed the motion. Jack was for longer and better constitutions with plenty of by-laws. Jack had a staunch supporter in Frances Drouillard, who brought up the suggestion that the club have a Greek name. From then on the battle waxed hot; and if it had waxed much hotter there would have been no need of electing officers. The near riot was quelled by Jack Bethune's announcement that he was a boxer. From then on the meeting was fairly peaceable with Alice Rude and Jack Bethune disagreeing on only seven things. The matter of the constitution was finally settled by the appointment of three to form a constitution to be voted on by the members at the next meeting. The members of the committee were Jack Bethune, Alice Rude and Everett Jones.

After the meeting Miss Levinson, Everett Jones and Herb McBratney.

One bandit was killed and another captured after a hard battle with Sheriff Mitchell and "Alky" James, in the Dead Man's Gulch Saloon, late Saturday night. The bandits were Jim Tyack and Tony Ozanich. This and the "Whiskerino" contest were the features of the Kappa Rho Sigma dance, last Saturday night.

After a thrilling contest, the charming judges awarded a shaving set to Jim Tyack ("Arsenic" to you) for the possession of the longest beard; Fred Koenig became the proud owner of an after-shaving set for having the thickest; Tony Ozanich received a shaving brush for his unique crop; and John "Hair Tonic" Hale received a bottle of perfume and a compact for carefully cultivating the thinnest alleged beard.

Jack Rees' "Foot Warmers" furnished the music for dancing. Drinks were served at the bar. Jack served an Italian supper to the group; and Miss Beth Dye, of the Bakersfield Californian, gave a talk on some of the things an editor of a newspaper expects from a reporter and the humor in newspaper life.

Those present at the meeting were Miss Beth Dye, Miss Margaret Levinson, Dorothy Arnold, Eleanor Champion, Frances Drouillard, Kay Faber, Alice Rude, Darrell Berrigan, Jack Bethune, Russel Black, Allan Garber, and Herb McBratney.

Local Students Urged To Attend

An operetta called "The College Girl and the Milkmaid" under the direction of Miss Fullerton, will be the Bakersfield part of the stunt.

CONFERENCES

During this time there will be faculty conferences including an English discussion group with Miss Levinson, chairman; a social science group with Mr. McDaniel, chairman; and a natural science group with Mr. Vander-Eiker, chairman.

DANCE

The dance and dinner held at the Woman's Club at 3:30, is under the direction of Harry Tibbets. Dick Lowe's orchestra will play and there will be bridge. Virginia Voll is chairman of the bridge committee and Inez Goding will have charge of refreshments.

EVERYBODY COME!

From the amount of work and effort that is being spent in preparing for this conference it cannot help but be a success if everyone comes and enters into the spirit of the day. Let it be said that the conference at Bakersfield was the biggest and best in the history of Central California Junior College conferences.

STOCKTON INVITES ALL GRADUATES

Bakersfield Junior College graduating students are invited to attend annual open house of the College of the Pacific to be held there Thursday, April 21.

A special program has been arranged as follows: An assembly for guests at 10:45 to be followed by luncheon at 12:15 in Anderson Hall on the campus and an evening performance of "Alice in Wonderland," given by the Pacific Little Theatre. Plans are also being completed for an open-air night track meet.

The campus and various buildings will be open for inspection throughout the day.

URGE JAYSEES TO ATTEND CONCERTS

Announcing the artists who will appear during the third season of the Musician's Club Series for 1932-1933, Miss Ruth Harper is urging the support of Junior College students especially. Four major events will be given and each artist group is of world-wide renown.

At other universities and colleges, students are required to attend cultural performances of this type. These concerts are opportunities for the students of Bakersfield Junior College. All dates for performances will be announced later.

Ticket information and subscription blanks may be obtained at any time from Miss Harper.

The artists to be featured are described in the letter sent to all possible subscribers:

"Each year, since organizing the Musician's Club, we have tried to raise the standard of our programs and next year we can say without boasting that it is the finest course that we have undertaken to sponsor. We have selected our artists independently of any bureau or manager, have chosen only that which we have heard previously and know to be musically worth while.

"Olga Steeb, who played in Bakersfield some time ago, needs no further introduction because her work will be remembered as one of the finest piano concerts given in Bakersfield. She is one of the most outstanding concerto artists and is always acclaimed by both conductor and orchestra, as well as audience for her genius in that field of art. We feel highly complimented to be able to present her as soloist with our Civic Symphony Orchestra.

"Fred Scott, who is a young tenor, and is just stepping into the lime light, has a beautiful voice along with unusual dramatic ability which makes any program an inspiration. All of his performances have received unusual comments from the leading critics and we can assure you of a very attractive concert. Mr. Scott has been heard in recital by a number of local people who are very happy to know that he is going to give a concert in Bakersfield.

"Kathleen Parlow, another artist who is being welcomed by local people, is one of the outstanding American violinists today, if not the greatest of women violinists. She is well known, not only as a solo artist, but by many in connection with her work with the Parlow String quartet."

We see in Glendale Jaysee's Galleon that the red-headed men students of the University of North Carolina have formed a club of their own. Their password "Fire!" seems quite appropriate. Well, that's an idea—How about making Messrs. Wharton and McBratney charter members of the B. J. C. chapter.

Cadman, Ingram To Be Speakers

Convention delegates and faculty members join together in a hearty welcome to Dr. Paul F. Cadman, who will act as speaker at the general session of the annual spring conference here Saturday. Although Dr. Cadman is by no means a stranger to Bakersfield audiences, having been speaker at two former high school graduation exercises and at an annual dinner of the Civic Commercial Association, it might be well to go over a few significant events in his life.

Before his graduation from U. C. in 1915, he was prominent in student affairs and held the responsible position of Chairman of the Students Affairs Committee. He later went abroad for further advanced study and was awarded his doctor's degree at the University of Paris.

Returning to his former alma mater he took up the position of professor of economics and dean of men. At the present time he is the executive secretary of the San Francisco Stock Exchange.

Dr. Cadman's talk to the delegates of all these junior colleges is assured of being particularly instructive and interesting because of his previous experience with college students.

Coach "Navy Bill" Ingram of U. C. will be the speaker at the men's rally at the J. C. conference. As he is one of the outstanding coaches of the west his talk will hold a great appeal for the students.

To go into his past a little it is found that "Navy Bill", a native of Indiana, was first recognized as a football star when he made the team of one of the west coast naval training stations during the war. Ingram gained nationwide fame after he was appointed football coach at the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md. His success at the academy won for him his present position.

His first year at University of California was much more successful than critics had expected. Only one game was lost and that was to U. S. C., the national champions. This game ended 6-0, a very remarkable score considering the one-sided one of the year before.

"Navy Bill" is noted for his pleasing personality. It is said that Bill's success came through his knowledge of football and his personality and ability to organize students.

String Quartette

J. C. Quartette is presenting a concert, March 30. This concert is scheduled as the third annual concert given by the J. C. string quartette and is looked forward to by both the community and students as a homecoming event. The number of university and college concerts has been very extensive this season. "They were all received with enthusiasm," says Mr. Parker.

EVENING MEETING FOR PATRONS' CLUB

The first evening meeting of the Junior College Patrons' Club will be held next Tuesday, March 15, at 7:30 o'clock in room 12 of the J. C. building. According to Mr. Jaggard, president, the parents of J. C. students are urged to attend and become interested in this club.

"Junior College Functions and Standards" will be the topic of Miss Grace Bird's talk that evening. The relation of this institution to other colleges as to scholarship, functions, and other problems will be discussed. "Junior College Financial Problems" will be the topic for discussion by Mr. H. A. Spindt, principal. This is a problem of interest to all parents, and he will try to answer any questions on this topic.

A special feature will be a question box, wherein any question about the junior college mailed or submitted that evening to Mr. Jaggard will be answered.

Students and parents are urged to attend.

Herb: "I can say this—I'm a self-made man." Kay: "Are you boasting or apologizing?"

University of Nebraska women declare that "living" in dormitories decreases their individuality. That is, if they ever had any!

Miss Robinson: "I hear you and the leading lady are on the outs." Stage Hand: "Yeah. It was one of those quick change scenes with the stage all dark and she asked for her tights and I thought she laid 'lights!'"

W. Peterson: "Did I ever tell you about the fright I got my wedding day?" Harry Miller: "Careful, old boy, no man ought to speak like that of his wife."

And then, talking about professors, that reminds us that an Indiana professor gives football only ten more years as a major sport. Perhaps his college will do better next season.

Margaret and Bill were driving in the country. Margaret: "Oh! Jack is that a Jersey cow?" Bill: "I don't know; I didn't see its license."

He: "It doesn't take much to turn a woman's head." She: "You're right. That one just turned and laughed at you."

"Are you Jane's room-mate?" "I am."

"No wonder that lipstick tastes familiar." "But it's Audrey's!"

Spring Fashions For Coeds To Be Featured At Tea

A Fashion Tea will be sponsored by the Associated Women Students for women of the faculty and student body, on Wednesday, March 23, from four to six o'clock. Miss Marie Long is in general charge of the affair.

Fashions for the collegian, will be featured in the latest spring styles and colors for afternoon, sports and evening wear. Mrs. Burney, buyer for the fashions for Malcolm Brock Company, will bring an interesting group of the latest togs, to be modeled by a group of popular coeds chosen from the local junior college campus. They are Doris Thornber, Inez Goding, Virginia Voll, Nona Louise Cripps, Holly Howsman, Margaret Ashton, Jane Jensen, Esther Hay, Kay Faber, and Adele Thayer.

Committee chairmen, assisting Marie, are: Refreshments, Lucille Sloan; decorations, Marjorie Collins and Laura Coats; tables, Thelma Davis; music, Louise Hamilton.

This is the first attempt of the kind ever to be sponsored by the A. W. S., so let's back them, girls, and make it a success. Remember: Fashion Tea! March 23.

CHORAL GROUP PLANS INITIATION

The Choral Club is holding a wienie roast at the Kern River Country Club Friday, March 18. At the party the new members will be initiated. The membership has increased to twice its former size since last semester so it will be a big job but lots of fun, according to Jane Jensen, the new president of the club.

Kathleen Cassady will have charge of refreshments (wieners and all that goes with them) and also of the entertainment. Jane Jensen is to get the club for the party. As she happens to know the chairman of entertainment of the Kern River Club through his son better than the other members, she has been asked to get the club house for the roast. Jimmie Higginbotham and Jack Rees are supervising the gathering of wood with the initiates helping. Dancing and refreshments will follow the wienie roast.

The old officers were reelected last meeting: Jane Jensen, president; Elmer Lowell, vice-president and librarian; Kathleen Cassady, secretary-treasurer, and chairman of entertainment.

Debaters Share Honors With Taft

Practice For Track Season Gets Under Way

The Renegade track squad has gradually begun to look like something in the past week. Now that the basketball season has officially ended, Spud is expecting to see every man with track talent out on the oval. Prospects are rather good for a real season, with a schedule of five meets out of six weeks coming up.

The meet that was scheduled with the U. C. L. A. Frosh for this Saturday has been postponed until some time in April due to conflicting arrangements, but a meet with Taft has been scheduled for the following Saturday, March 19.

A number of last year's veterans have appeared in the last week, viz: Jim Tyack, who is relied upon to take honors in the dashes, relays and javelin throw. Jack Alston, another crack dash man and fast quarter-miler. Thornley Roe, an outstanding weight and discus man in last year's meets. Bill Van Osdel, who clears 6 feet 2 inches in the high jump and is also a high hurdler. Herb Martin, who turns the mile in 4 minutes and 45 seconds, and Herb McBratney, who is expected to be confined to the broad jump due to leg injuries.

Those new men reporting for practice are: Bob Barrett, a fine high hurdler and javelin tosser. Russell Erickson, who offers plenty of threat in the dashes and relays. Kays, a low hurdler and fast relay man, and Bob O'Connor, a weight and discus heaver.

There are plenty of positions that are yet to be filled, and Spud is still calling for every man who is willing to try. Alright men, let's see you out on the oval!

SKATING PARTY FOR ARGONAUTAS

Los Argonautas held their monthly meeting at the home of Irene Maine last Tuesday evening. The entertainment was unusual and novel. Skating races and relays were held on K Street. Malcolm Heckathorne won the prize for fancy skating. Some skaters broke the crystal of their watches and were slightly damaged; however, they were all able to play cards later, dance and of course, they were able to eat. It was said this party was the best that has been held as yet.

A dance was planned for April and committee appointed and organized. Mary Bowen, chairman of its publication, Bernice Bradden, chairman of decorations; Cleo Daugherty, chairman of refreshments; Bob O'Connor, chairman of tickets. Patrons and patronesses to be invited are Mr. and Mrs. Faber, Mr. and Mrs. Basil Peterson and Mr. and Mrs. Harder. The dance is closed to all but J. C. students.

Spring Practice Starts With New Grid Material

Spring football practice has once more brought old "Sadie" and the "mule-sled" into action. About eighteen men have reported for drill, and we find that there will be a good many new faces on the old field next fall. As usual, Spud is handling the backfield-prospects, and Pete the line material.

So far, practice has been devoted to tactics and fundamentals of offense and defense with some time given to the running of plays on the machines. Spud and Pete are looking forward to another championship next year and are highly enthusiastic with the material they hope to develop.

Well, we're behind every man on the 1932 squad!

BRUIN FROSH WIN FIRST TRACK MEET

This article will interest the Renegade men in that it will show them what they have to shoot at in order to defeat the Bruins in our scheduled meet in April.

Taking the majority of the second and third places, the Bruin Frosh defeated the Beverly Hills track squad 64-40 in a meet held last week-end at Westwood.

The marks were as follows:

100-yard dash—won by Beverly; time: 10.4 seconds.

220-yard dash—Won by Frosh; time: 23.1 seconds.

440-yard dash—Won by Frosh; time: 53.4 seconds.

880-yard dash—Won by Frosh; time: 2 minutes, 5 seconds.

Mile run—Won by Frosh; time: 4 minutes, 50.5 seconds.

High hurdles—Won by Frosh; time: 16.2 seconds.

Low hurdles—Won by Beverly; time: 27 seconds.

Relay—Won by Frosh; time: 1 minute, 36.5 seconds.

Shot put—Won by Beverly; 43 feet, 8½ inches.

Pole vault—Won by Beverly; 12 feet.

High jump—Won by Frosh; 5 feet, 8 inches.

Broad jump—Won by Beverly; 20 feet, 2½ inches.

COLORFUL SKIT FOR GIRLS' JINKS

"The College Girl and the Milkmaid," an operetta in one act, will be given by the choral club at the Women's Jinx during the J. C. conference here Saturday. This stunt will be the Bakersfield part of the program, as the other colleges have agreed to put on programs also.

Miss Ivah Fullerton of the music department is directing the skit. Virginia Bellamy will take the part of the college girl and Kathaleen Cas-

RENEGADES DEFEAT TAFT FOR VALLEY CHAMPIONSHIP

THIS 'N THAT

Virginia: "Should I marry a man who lies to me?"

Fortune Teller: "Lady, lady! Do you want to be an old maid?"

J. Bethune: "She seemed like a good, sensible girl."

H. Miller: "Yeh, she wouldn't pay any attention to me either."

And then we see Jane Bellows trying to pick Hy up, and saying: "Don't you resist, now!" (Hy was lying on the floor in the lower hallway.)

L. Findley: "Men are fools to marry."

Anne: "Yes, but what else is there for women to marry?"

We wonder just why Higginbotham had such a falling off on the number of baskets made during the last two games. Blonde or brunette?

Our College Car:

Radiator (always boiling over) — Miss Levinson.

Starter (always stuck) — John Young.

Valves (always chattering) — Audrey Gill.

Motor (the part that gasses) — Leroy Findley.

Gasoline (the thing that makes us go) — The faculty in general.

Brakes (the thing that makes us stop) — Carol and report cards.

Muffler (the thing that keeps us quiet) — Mrs. Craig.

Cut-out (for "popping-off") — L. Chenoweth.

Windshield (something we would like to see through) — Those exams.

Body (squeaks) — Jane Bellows.

Wheels (continuous motion) — Al Price.

John Young announces that his black eye is not the result of being hit with a history book.

We can't sign off without mentioning those passionate poems which John Young and Harry Miller have been writing to Jane Bellows. We only regret that they could not be obtained for publication.

sidey, the part of the milkmaid. The chorus will include: Una Walters, Holly Howsman, Juanita Dalton, Kay Faber, Jane Jensen, Florence Bush, Catherine Basset, and Verral Allen. Members of the high school glee club who will also sing are: Edna Overton, Ruth Cary, Mary Chaplin, Virginia Stall and Katherine Tillotson.

Community singing under the direction of Miss Fullerton will take place between the stunt numbers.

Girls of the A. W. S. will assist with the costumes under Miss Joanna Morgan, chairman.

34-19 SCORE EARNED BY SQUAD

In a fast but one-sided game the J. C. Renegades defeated the Taft J. C. Cougars by the score of 34-19, thereby winning undisputed first place in the Central California Junior College basketball conference.

The game was played in the local gym before a maximum crowd of fans.

Bakersfield took the lead early in the game and was never once threatened by the offense of the opponents.

The fast-breaking offense of the locals was impossible for the Cougars to keep up with, and their air-tight defense was almost impenetrable whenever the Taft bunch got the ball. The uncanny shooting of Ben West during the first half took the spirit out of the Taft boys, although never once during the whole game did they give up. Ben, by the way, made 12 points in the first half. The first half ended with the score at 20 to 12 in favor of the locals.

The second half was quite a continuation of the first only with substitutions frequently.

The high point man of the game was West with 14 points while Wagner of Taft was second with seven points. O'Connor and Higginbotham tied for third place honors with 6 points each.

Following is a summary:
 Bakersfield (34) Taft (19)
 O'Connor F Lyle
 West F Wagner
 Haworth C Eiland
 Tyack G Head
 Higginbotham G Erlewine
 Substitutes — Bakersfield: Stanley, Stemen, Tener, Bultman, Jennings.
 Taft—Kurtz, De Castro, Williams, Forgie, McCullough.

Field Goals—Bakersfield: West, 6; O'Connor, 2; Haworth, 2; Higginbotham, 1.
 Taft—Wagner, 2; Eiland, 2; Erlewine, 1; Kurtz, 1.
 Goal Goals — Bakersfield: Higginbotham, 4; West, 2; O'Connor, 2; Stanley, 2; Haworth, 1; Tyack, 1.
 Taft—Wagner, 3; Tyle, 2.

In the preliminary game the Moose team defeated the Methodist by the score of 13 to 8. Frost and Payne starred for the Moose while no one was outstanding for the Methodist.

TRACK NOTICE!

Junior Pentathlon Training Tips are offered in the sports section of the Los Angeles Times by Boyd Comstock, famous track coach.
