LOCALS TO MEET
Citrus in Last Debate May 15

A debate with Citrus on the 15th of this month will bring to a close the most successful debate season for Bakersfield J. C.

Our affirmative team, Isabelle Hanawalt and John Young, lost the last debate last week in a debate with Visalia, thereby losing the Valley Debate championship title. Mr. Young and Miss Hanawalt put on one of the best debaters’ cases of their career, knocking down every argument of the flimsy case of Visalia, and successfully battling Visalia’s case against the feeble attack of their opponents; but the judges thought that our team “took unfair advantage of their school in setting up a watch-case case, and gave the decision to the home team.

OXY DEBATE
Miss Hanawalt and Young made an excellent showing in a non-decision debate with the Occidental women’s team here Friday. The question was: “Resolved, That the Divorce Law of Nevada Should Be Condemned.” Miss Hanawalt quite deftly expressed her opinion that a woman who does not relish her husband’s “dunking his doughnuts” or “singing in the bathtub,” which proved something conclusively.

The Bakersfield delegates to the national Phi Rho Pi Convention held at Glendale were Miss Hanawalt, Marjorie Collins, John Young, Harry Miller, and Jack Bethune. Mr. Wiley K. Petersen attended and accompanied the group. There were three debates each day for the first two days, the decisions not being announced until after the fifth debate. All teams having lost three debates were then dropped from the contest. The survivors fought it out in the finals.

SERRA TOWN CRYER

ROSTER RATING
Long Beach Poly took the first three places, Patrick and Collins, their first team not losing a debate, their second team losing one. Glendale’s two teams lost two debates each, thus taking fourth and fifth places. Bakersfield took sixth place which is quite remarkable when considering that there were over sixty delegates at the convention, representing Arizona, Oklahoma, Texas, and California. Isabelle Hanawalt took fourth place in the national extemporaneous speaking contest, and John Young rated first in the national oratorical contest.

The school has at least one loyal supporter in Dorene Nieves, a school girl and the head cheerleader in the school’s annual contest of prettiest girl. The next day after the
HONOR SOCIETY PLANS JOURNEY TO YOSEMITE

Members of the Omega Tau have planned a week-end trip to Yosemite, May 23-25. The purpose of this trip is to visit the historic regions. How the water falls, especially during this time of year, of course, will be the main interest in their tour. The outing will be classed as an academic field trip, and will be paid for out of the group and part will be bought there. They have started saving and will have plenty to offer on their trip. In order to avoid conflict with their trip, the members have had to make some changes in their study hours. The members are expected to go and teachers including Mr. Budge and Mr. and Mrs. Morgan.

POMONA INVITES WOMEN SATURDAY

A. W. S. of Bakersfield Junior College have been invited an invita- tion to the Pomona women's party on May 8 for the spring celebration. The party will be held at Pomona College and in the town of Claremont.

CLEVER SKIPT BY HONOR SOCIETY

The results of the book-keen boys fashioned against the direction of a girl's skilful artistry were clear-cut, by the fact that these two boys were very near the floor in the boy's bin. It is likely that the book-keen boys have made as good a show in the school as they did in their earlier days.

Ten men represented Bakersfield Junior College at the second annual Santa Barbara open track and field meet held last week. The Los Angeles Athletic Club was represented by 52 athletes and the schools entered in the meet were as follows: Santa Paula, U. C. L. A., Cal. Christian, Oxnard, Pasadena, J. C., Bakersfield J. C., Long Beach J. C., Loyola, Ventura J. C., Whittier, Santa Barbara State, Santa Barbara High and Taft J. C.

EXCHANGES

It would be interesting to know the truth concerning the rumor that 60 students at the University of California work their way through college by selling tobacco under the direction of Harry Tibbets. Colored streamers were draped from the ceiling to the side walls giving the impression of a New York office as well as adding color to the scene.

The Taft Junior College Student Body was invited and about eleven students attended from the high school. The over-woofed floor lent excitement as well as bruises to many, as they danced to the music of George Snyder's orchestra.

Price and Garber Represent B. J. C.

Sadness prevails in the Coach Lynn's Tennis Camp. It is advisable not to ask Al Price or Allan Garber the cause of this sadness. But reports have no conscience, nothing is sacred, and they will tell all.

It seems that the two boys, Al Price and Allan Garber, were sent down to Ojai, where a tennis tournament was being played. There they met two players from Stanford, Keith Gledhill and Lefty Cougahan. Gledhill and Cougahan won, Price and Garber lost.

Price and Garber are back on the intercollegiate doubles and they went to the finals in singles. Gledhill finially, winning 7, 5, 7.

Although many of the Junior College games will be played away from home, many orders for season tickets have been placed. The public is beginning to show more interest in the Renegades since their successful grid seasons of the last two years.

ANNUAL DANCE GREAT SUCCESS

The annual dance was held last Saturday evening in the gymnasium under the direction of Harry Tibbets. The patrons and patronesses were Miss Bird and Messrs. and Mesdames: Benson, Davy, Brown, Harder, Hart, Angell, W. Johnson, MacDaniel, Pastorlson, Wiley Peterson, G. Smith, Smith and Taber.

Non-combatants were accommodated with Misses and Messrs. and Messades: and Mr. Taber.

A Jew went to Heaven accompanied by a Scotchman. Living conditions there were to be very crowded. Accordingly St. Peter ordered them back to earth for another five years. Both men protested that their hairs had claimed their estates and that they had nothing to live on. "Then I'll give you all you want," said St. Peter. "How much?" the Scotchman. "Gin and tonic," said St. Peter. "Well, I'll do one bit on a hundred thousand dollars," St. Peter handed it to him and turned to the Jew. "How much?" the Jew looked at the Scotchman. "Never mind. You just give me his name and address."
NEW PRESIDENT

A. W. S. To Choose New Officers At Meeting Tuesday

Excitement will run rampant at the annual election of the Associated Women Students next Tuesday, when officers for next year will be chosen. Petitions were filed with Marian Higgins, president, for the following persons: President, Margaret Bailey and Isabelle Hanawalt; vice-president, Thelma Davis and Jane Bellows; secretary, Marjorie Collins and Esther Hay; treasurer, Marie Long and Esther Barrett; publicity manager, Holly Roosevelt and Eva Pille.

A program representing the work of the A. W. S. during the year will be presented during the meeting. Miss Bird will give a short talk and numbers will be given by various members of the association.

Patrons Club Is Host At Bridge Party Tues. Night

The Junior College Patrons Club gave an entertainment and bridge party last Tuesday night in the J. C. study hall. Proceeds from the affair will be used for the student aid fund and to buy blankets for the Variety club.

Bridge tables had been reserved in groups, with a private individual as host, or singly where no partner was played.

During the evening, punch was served by the hospitality committee of the J. C. Social Club and a group of Miss Ann Anderson's dancing pupils were responsible for the delightful entertainment.

Various committees responsible for the party's success were: Mrs. Harder, tables and tables; Mr. Jaggar, Miss Bird, Miss Carson, Nona Louise Harper and Harry Tillet, reservations; Carol Buchner, programs; Kay Faber and Hi Stanley, decorations.

Mrs. Faber was general chairman for the evening.

President Clarence L. Phelps of Santa Barbara State College has announced tentative plans for holding the annual summer session of Santa Barbara State College in conjunction with that of Occidental College.

Miss Margaret Levinson has charge of the meeting which will be held at her home. Refreshments will be served.
McWilliams Winner of Stage Contest

Jack McWilliams, first year Junior College student, won the contest held by the Drama Club for the construction of the stage and setting to be used in this year’s production of "Thetti and the Tiger." The design is modern with the background, and the costume is especially suitable for the speakers’ platform. The actors are to wear their costumes and hats from the show and are to be changed as the show progresses from one act to another.

The plays that are being considered for this year are "Njoeo," "The Devil’s Doctor," and "The Man Who Wasn’t There." The plays will be performed in the evening hours at the end of the month.

Helpful Hints On Studying For Exam

"Don’t study while you’re tired or let your mind wander. Don’t study when you’re hungry. Don’t study in the daytime. Don’t study in the same place every day. But study all the other times."

Editorial Notes

Prospects Look Bright for J. C. Fall Semester

"Dr. Z. W. Davis, president of Bakersfield Junior College, in his annual address, last week, stated that the college will be prepared for the fall semester on time. The prospective enrollment figures show a great increase over last year."

Ms. Grace Bird, director of the college, recently announced that the college will have a new auditorium this fall semester. This will be a great improvement for the students, according to Ms. Bird.

DEBATERS CLOSE SUCCESSFUL YEAR

The debate season for Bakersfield Junior College was a successful one this year, according to Mr. Bird. The debate team participated in several tournaments and won many trophies. The overall record for Bakersfield Junior College was 12 wins and 4 losses.

New Courses At Summer School

The Architectural Association of Bakersfield Junior College will offer several new courses this summer. These courses will be taught by Mr. Bird, who is also the head of the department.

A reading of the following sentences should be done after the first line:

"We have a ball player on our team this year."

"Don’t make that clear to the other team."

"What’s that?"

"Don’t want the author; that’s probably."

"You’re pretty."

"How do you know about nitrate letters?"

"Well, I have been working at it for years.

"What do you think of it?"

"Don’t look so happy..."

"I’ll have one of those on the market at a reasonable price."

Political Speeches Heard At Meeting

Mr. Bird will be the speaker at the student meeting on Monday. He will be discussing the political situation and the upcoming election. The meeting will be held in the student center at 3:00 PM.

"We have been working on this for a while."

"When the time comes..."

"What are you doing over there?"

"Just learning."

"What do you like to do for recreation?"

"Oh, I just love spending time with my friends."

"What are you studying in college?"

"I’m studying business.

"What do you think of the stock market?"

"It’s very volatile."

"What do you think of the upcoming election?"

"I’m very interested."

"What do you think of the upcoming election?"

"I’m very interested."

"What do you think of the upcoming election?"

Spanish Club Has
El Tejon Breakfast

The Spanish Club had breakfast this morning, May 25, at El Tejon Hotel. A business meeting was held at the opening and the breakfast was served a la carte.

Mr. Cheveron Williams spoke on his trip through modern and ancient Spain. He closed his talk with an interesting description of the Alhambra. After dinner, they divided into parties and hiked to points of interest. These included Glacier Point, Sierra Point, Vernal and Nevada falls, and through the mist trail, Sunday they visited the historical museum. A ranger went as guide and explained how the valley was formed by the glacier that once trod to Inspiration Point and viewed the entire valley.

Yosemite Visitors
Report Fine Trip

The members of Omega Tau spent an interesting and sunny weekend in Yosemite Valley. Twenty-one members, including chaparejos, left Bakersfield Friday for the outing. They all went to Yosemite Park, divided into parties and hiked to points of interest. These included Glacier Point, Sierra Point, Vernal and Nevada falls, and through the mist trail.

Sunday they visited the historical museum. A ranger went as guide and explained how the valley was formed by the glacier that once trod to Inspiration Point and viewed the entire valley.

Los Angeles Junior College has organized an Old Reliable date bureau for the bashful men in the institution.

Dr. B. G. Skinner, Ohio state director of education, says this bureau now constitutes 75 per cent of an inspector's qualifications.

Students of journalism at Modesto Junior College recently had a chance to experience the trials and tribulations connected with publishing a newspaper when they were allowed to publish the weekly edition of the Modesto Tribune.

We read recently that students in the Santa Ana Junior College are being inspected daily for mumps.

Pomona College won first place in the National Glee Club contest held in St. Louis.

A fire in the bleachers of the Fullerton Junior College recently caused damage of $1500.

A survey at Minnesota University revealed that study went on most effectively when the radio was turned to jazz music.

University of Maryland students are fined $3.00 for every class cut.

Marian De Cew Cast In "Quality Street"

Marian De Cew will represent the Bakersfield Junior College in the Community Theater play, "Quality Street," tonight. Miss De Cew is the second J. C. student to appear in a production of this kind this season. She is cast as a street young thing," instead of as the sophisticated Lady Sybil Tenderden in "Every Woman Knows" or as the nurse in "The Man of Two Worlds," "The Youngest," and "Seventeen." Incidentally Miss De Cew estimates that at the present time she is playing off of various minor roles total twelve.

STUDENT'S NIGHTMARE

Miss—I'm your teacher, I shall not pass. She made me to study the tales of Cheater; She led me into Thomas Mallary; She showed me Langland. Yes, though I study both night and day, I shall not pass for grades against me. The E's and F's, they beset me. She had no real work to do. I must study for the school productions of this fall, the highest, and the seventeen. Incidentally Miss De Cew estimates that at the present time she is playing off of various minor roles total twelve.

Marian Martin winner of Cross-Country Run

Herb Martin, local J. C. half-miler, before himself a superior distance runner, last year by winning first place in the first annual cross-country run sponsored by the Junior College Athletic Association. Martin's running time for the four and one-half mile course was 29.7 minutes. The prize for the first place was a silver plate. This year, this prize will remain in Martin's possession until next year when it will again be put up for the run. His name will be engraved on the pedestal of the trophy.

Harold Newby, finished second, being about 100 yards behind the winner.

The course started at the high school stadium and continued out to the south edge of the city, across Bakersfield; then back to finish in front of the stadium. This was the second time this race has been run this year. The first running wasn't counted because several of the boys got mixed up on the course. In order to give these lads a fair chance "Spud" Harder, the originator of the race, decided they should re-run. The first race was held Thursday, May 19. In this race Herb Martin came in first.

The four and one-half mile course was laid out by "Spud" Harder and Thomas Tufton. These men also had the chance of the race.

The run showed some good future tracemakers for Harder to develop into the 1933 track squad.

ATHLETIC AWARDS WON BY COEDS

Many present stars transfer next year

The problem of next year's football roster is beginning to cause no little anxiety on the part of the J. C. Coaches. The coming season promises to offer plenty of competition, and Spud is determined to make a team that will hold our present championship.

Spud will lose this year, by completion of their two-year eligibility and by graduation, some of the best football men that have ever played for this Junior College.

The following names are those of the men, who have received honorable mention, and of the colleges which they plan to enter next fall.

The men who will return next year are: M. L. Ray, F. R. Frame, F. W. Herber, W. D. Dellar, G. E. Klein, and G. P. Klein, who played in 1930, will also be back on the field next fall.

A number of new men are expected to report for practice. These men are: Burton, Johnson, Ewart, Stone, and Robinson. Besides these, approximately five or six graduates from the local high school have signified intentions of coming out.

Best of luck, Renegades!

ISSUE YEAR BOOKS TO STUDENTS SOON

The Rencountre will be out the first or second day of June and will answer the many parleyed and voted on question of what students received the honor of dedication of each section. There are four sections: college, athletics, features, and activities, and the two students who have contributed the most service to each of these will have the section dedicated to them with their pictures at the front of that particular section.

Co-eds Treat Males To Leap Year Dance

"May I have the next dance" was uttered in soporific increase of the baritone at the A. W. S. Leap Year Dance in the Boys' Gym. Friday the 16th hour failed to keep the crowd away. Stage coeds were busy searching for dances among the unoccupied boys. The Foot Warmers kept the atmosphere heated with their large demand on the punch bowl. Many say that it was the most successful dance of the season.
