

DELTA CAST CHOSEN FOR FIRST PLAY

"THE IMPORTANCE OF BEING ERNEST" SET FOR NEXT WEEK

"The Importance of Being Ernest," a trivial comedy-for-serious-people, has been selected as the play that the Delta Psi Omega, the dramatics fraternity, will give on November 18. This play was written by Oscar Wilde. Miss Ethel Robinson will direct.

The comedy centers around two young men who both want the name of Ernest. The comedy situations are aroused by the attempt to get the name.

All-Star Cast

The cast is an all-star one. Nearly every player has played a lead or important part in former productions. John Crawford, who takes the part of John Worthing, is the only player without previous experience.

Al Price, cast as Algernon Moncreif, is known for his portrayal of the drunk brother in "Holiday."

Dick Bailey, who plays Rev. Canon Chausuble, had an important part in "What Every Woman Knows."

Leslie Buchner plays Lane (a manservant). Buchner had the title role in "Mr. Fenn Passes By."

Experienced Players

Marian De Cew is cast as Lady Bracknell. She is known for her work in "Skidding" and "What Every Woman Knows."

Virginia Voll takes the part of Hon. Glendoline Fairfax. She played Linda Seaton in "Holiday."

Fay Helm is cast as Cecily Carden. She played the lead in "Little Old New York."

Miss Prism (governess) is played by Jane Bellows, heroine of "What Every Woman Knows."

Large Increase In J. C. Enrollment

A new record in registration at Bakersfield J. C. has been set this semester. A total of 687 students, of whom 319 were women, signed up.

Statistics compiled in the dean's office show that in the lower division curricula there are 157 first year men, 113 first year women, 108 second year men and 73 second year women.

The semi-professional curricula has 50 first year men, 60 first year women, 10 second year men and 18 second year women.

The special courses and repair courses has 33 first year men, 41 first year women, one second year man, and seven second year women.

Elect Student Body Officers For This Year

The election of student body officers held September 27 in the study hall showed that only about one-third of the student body members who were eligible to vote did so. However, the offices where there were two or three nominees were closely contested.

Harry Miller was elected first vice-president over his opponent Ed Greenstreet. The main duty for the first vice-president is to have charge of the social activities of the student body.

Virginia Voll was elected second vice-president over her two opponents, Ed Paxton and Richard Bailey. The duty of this officer is to have supervision over the activities of the junior college.

Peggy Cooke defeated her opponent Eva Filkel. The main job of the secretary is to keep the minutes of the student body meetings and to be the student representative in the Patrons' Club.

Al Smith was uncontested for the office of business manager, as was also Margaret Bailey for editor of publications.

Francis Harper was elected J. C. yell leader over his two opponents, "Happy" Fox and Rex Nutter.

Glenn Bultman, president of the student body, was elected at the close of last semester.

OFFER SIX NEW COURSES IN J. C.

Among the several new courses being taught here this semester is that of geography taught by Mr. Ingelow. It is an introductory course to the study of geography and includes elements, areal forms and their structures, climate, and map studies. This will be followed next semester by geography 2, or regional geography, which deals with the natural divisions of the world and their utilization under different cultural systems.

A course about modern British writers or English 12 is being taught by Miss Gately. This replaces the one-unit poetry course taught last year by Miss Wilkinson.

Geometry R enables the student to complete the geometry requirement in one semester. In previous years students had to make up this deficiency in a regular high school class.

A sufficient number of students finally signed up to form the new class in instrumentation. Mr. Parker is instructing this group.

The other new classes are civil engineering 8 and Math. 10A.

Opening Social Event of Year Is Big Success

The Junior College Student Body opened its social season with a sport dance and reception at the Women's Club last Saturday evening. Festivities began at 9:30 and ended, with the kind permission of the orchestra, at 12:30.

Football furnished the motif for the decorations, with a maroon-and-white goal post at each end of the hall, and colored streamers terminating in the figure of a Renegade.

Jack Rees' orchestra played the melodies for the foot-scraping, while informal bridge tournaments were conducted in the alcove.

Miss Grace Bird assisted members of the student council in receiving faculty and student guests. The committee on arrangements included Margaret Bailey, Laura Coats, Elizabeth Krug, Eleanor Knowles, June Myers, Glenn Bultman, Richard Bailey, Raymond Cross, Ed Greenstreet, Gene Johnson, Rex Nutter and Harry Miller.

PLANS FOR YEAR MADE BY KAPPAS

Leslie Buchner, vice-president of Kappa Rho Sigma, science fraternity, has announced that the programs for the organization's regular bi-monthly meetings will be carried on in the same manner as last year. The plan of having one student speaker and one lecturer from the faculty was very well received last year, and the members of the faculty who took part in the programs have indicated that they are prepared to repeat their performances of last year.

Election of new officers is slated to take place at the next regular meeting.

Last year's officers who are attending Junior College this year are Leslie Buchner, vice-president, and John Hale, secretary. Mr. Chamberlain, science instructor, will again serve as adviser for the organization.

A successful year is anticipated for the club, as there are approximately fifteen of last year's members returning to school.

That fencing is becoming a popular sport is evidenced by the fact that 43 students turned out for the first meeting of La Rapiere, the fencing club, at L. A. J. C.

What a break for the women students at the first campus dance at the University of Nevada! There were only fifty co-eds to the two hundred stags.

NEW MEMBERS WELCOMED AT A. W. S. MEET

ORGANIZATION PLANS NOVEL "FAMOUS KID PARTY" FOR OCT. 21

At the first meeting of the A. W. S. held September 27, a general discussion was held concerning the types of activity to be taken up this year by the organization.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Isabelle Hanawalt. She gave a brief talk on what the purposes of the association are, read the constitution of the association and urged the girls to pay their dues as soon as possible.

It was decided to have a meeting every second Tuesday of each month.

Introduce Officers

The officers for the following year: President, Isabelle Hanawalt; vice-president, Thelma Davis; secretary, Esther Hay; treasurer, Esther Bassett and publicity manager, Holly Howsman, were introduced.

Short talks were given by the dean, Miss Bird, and by Mrs. Aldrich, the advisor.

It was decided to have a welcome party for the freshman girls, October 21, in the girls' gym.

"Kid Party"

The party is to be a "Famous Kid Party." The girls are asked to come in costume as fairies, comic paper kids or as some "famous kid." The gym will be decorated with the kid motif carried out as a play house, with dolls and balloons.

Games and entertainment will be enjoyed during the evening in keeping with the "kid" idea.

The following committees have been appointed:

Committees

Entertainment, Jane Bellows, chairman; Virginia Voll, Marian DeCew, Eleanor Champion, Helen St. Clair and Kathaleen Cassady.

Decorations, Marie Long, chairman; Marjorie Collins, Holly Howsman, Esther Hay, Thelma Davis, Avis Beckwith, Victoria Achin, Laura Coats.

Invitations, Elizabeth McGinn, chairman; Margaret Bailey, Peggy Cook, Genevieve Borel, Evelyn Schmidt and Shirley Andress.

Refreshments, Esther Basset, chairman; Lucille Jennings, Audrey Neate, Eva Filkel, Frances Weaver and Alice Erickson.

OUR AIM

Clear facts written in an easy style and feature material that will be interesting to the student body—these are the aims that the staff of the Renegade Rip will try to hold in mind this year in publishing the monthly editions of the Rip.

To make its paper interesting to the reader is the problem of every newspaper staff; so it is only natural that that would be the main objective of this staff. In explanation of the methods of the Rip and its staff it should be said that the news is written by the class in newspaper writing or English 10. It is the job of this class to put out a Rip that is satisfactory to the student body as a whole and not just to the class itself. From his then it is naturally evident that any kind of suggestions about the bettering of the Rip in content or appearance are welcome if given to the editor or one of the staff members. In many cases students are either too busy or indifferent about making these suggestions, but it really wouldn't be such a job to get in touch with someone connected with the paper and make known his opinions for improving the Rip.

We, on the Rip staff, fully realize the one serious drawback to our success in making the paper an alive affair in student activities. This is the fact that the paper comes out only once a month and consequently much of the news is stale before the paper goes to press. Keeping this unfortunate circumstance in mind, the editor and staff will attempt to eliminate old news as far as possible, and try to play up present events to a greater extent.

After all this discussion we come down to the main idea again. Considering the drawbacks that we'll try to overcome and the task ahead of us in trying to put out a newsy, readable paper, remember that "the readers get the fun, the reporters get the work, and the editor gets the blame"; so make known your suggestions to get the kind of a paper you want to read.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

It was a pleasure to hear Student Body President Glenn Bultman address more than five hundred of the local students who packed the Auditorium at the first student body meeting of this year. The keynote of his speech was a desire for the increased manifestation of "college spirit."

He fluently defended his belief that "we do" possess this spirit which has lain dormant through the early years of this institution.

The following message was given to the paper by Glenn Bultman: "While carrying out the duties of President of B. J. C., I shall endeavor to do my best as the school's representative in fostering both scholastic and social fields here."

LOCAL DELTAS ORGANIZE NEW U. C. FRATERNITY

Mary Bowen is the president of a newly organized dramatics fraternity at International House at the University of California, Berkeley. Bernice Braddon is secretary of the fraternity, and Charlotte Anne Moore is a member. The three girls are graduates of B. J. C.

Each semester International House presents what is called "International night." Mary Bowen and Bernice Braddon are in charge of the program this year. The Chinese members of International House are to furnish the music. The Russians are to give a Russian play, and the English and American will present one of Barrie's plays.

Announce Contest

The editorial staff of the Renegade Rip announces a contest for those interested in short story writing.

- Provisions of this contest are:
1. All persons holding student body cards are eligible.
  2. Only one manuscript may be submitted by each eligible person.
  3. All manuscripts must be typed and double spaced, original fiction or true stories.
  4. They must be of 1000 words or less.
  5. All rights for re-publication will be reserved by the author.
  6. The editorial staff reserves the right to be the sole judge in this contest.
  7. Contest will be closed three weeks from the date of this publication.
  8. The Renegade Rip staff will assume no responsibility for the return of manuscripts. (Author should keep carbon copy).

Language Clubs Make Plans For This Semester

An active season is anticipated by the Spanish, French and German clubs of the Bakersfield Junior College.

Under the able guidance of Miss Isabel Forker the first meeting of "Los Argonautas," the Spanish Club, was held in Aud. 5, September 31. Margaret Belsit, president of the organization, presided at the meeting and an election. The following officers and committee chairmen were elected:

Secretary, Herbert Martin; treasurer, Thelma Davis; sergeant-at-arms, Clayton Dougherty; chairman entertainment committee, Kathaleen Cassady; chairman publicity, Walter Frost; chairman of correspondence, William Dolan.

The next meeting of the club, a business and social meeting, will be held on October 25. At this time an initiation of new members will be held. Al Smith will serve as chairman of the initiation committee, a committee which is making extensive plans for the reception of new members. Said plans as to the type of reception, hour and place are not being divulged at the present time, except to the old members.

The French and German clubs as yet have no definite program for the semester activities. Miss S. Peterson announced that the activities program of the German club has been deferred until after the initiation of new members and the election of officers. This move was considered necessary because the last graduation slashed the membership to such an extent.

ALPHAS HOLD FIRST MEETING OF SEMESTER

MEMBERS TO BEGIN STUDY OF POLITICAL TOPICS TONIGHT

Officers for this semester were elected by the Alpha Gamma Sigma, J. C. honor fraternity, at its first meeting held September 27. The following were elected: Margaret Bailey, president; Esther Bassett, vice-president; Peggy Cooke, secretary, and Richard Bailey, treasurer.

The first social meeting of the semester will be held at the home of Elizabeth McGinn tonight. Isabelle Henawalt will have charge of the program.

Activities of society will include lectures on politics and the study of the presidential campaign. The fine arts will also be taken up.

Plans for the annual trip to Yosemite and an excursion to Teresa Plains in search for Indian relics were also discussed.

Mr. Ewert is faculty advisor of the society.

Aptitude Test Given Students Last Tuesday

The aptitude test was given in the high school study hall, Tuesday, at 8:45. The instructors in charge for the test were Mr. McDaniel, Mr. Ewert, Misses Levinson, Forker and Gately.

The aptitude test is given annually in the Bakersfield Junior College. This year it was composed of two examinations: one from an Iowa high school and the other from Stanford University.

The object of this test is to obtain the average intelligence of the students of the Junior College and compare it with that of other Junior Colleges, and the freshmen and sophomore students of four-year colleges throughout the United States.

Miss Alice Bonaro Wilkinson was married Aug. 23 to Harry A. Overstreet, professor and head of the department of philosophy at the College of the City of New York.

JAYSEE TEAM IS LOSER AT SAN BERDOO

CLOSE SCORE OF 7-6 IS IN FAVOR OF OPPOSING TEAM

The Renegades went down to defeat at the hands of San Bernardino, Friday night, Sept. 30th. The first score was made by the Renegades with Robinson carrying the "pork." The field was considerably soggy, and the ensuing time after the first tally was spent in a fight for territory between the conflicting squads.

San Bernardino pushed over the winning score after a continuous drive down the field, and with fifty seconds in which to play they converted the tally for the extra point.

The strength of the S. B. squad seemed to center around their powerful line plays which never failed to gain yardage. The Renegade offensive was particularly effective in their running plays with the shifty halfback, Wilton, carrying the ball.

Spud offers no alibis for the defeat of his squad but stated that he believed the results would have been better if he had used the seven-man line style of defense instead of the 6-2-2-1, which was used against the southerners. The coming game with Santa Maria will see a fighting squad out to remove the first stain of defeat.

The Student Body is behind every man!

SOCIAL SCIENCE CLUB TO HAVE EXTENSIVE AIMS

The Social Science Club of the local Junior College has commenced its second season of activity.

The first meeting, held on September 13, was attended by many of the old members. Mr. Ewert acted as temporary chairman due to the absence of president Harry Miller.

The topic chosen for research during the ensuing semester was Prohibition. All phases of the liquor question will be studied.

The second meeting of the club was given over to suggestions for social gatherings, and a campaign for new membership was launched.

The drive for membership was very effective, and a large number of neophytes attended the third Tuesday night meeting of the organization.

An initiation of new members will probably be held on October 11.

L. A. J. C. reports a total registration of over 4,000 students, the highest enrollment of any junior college in the United States.

Santa Monica J. C. has sent an S. O. S. for a new college song. Sinking enthusiasm at the games have made immediate help necessary.

Varsity Club Meets To Elect Officers

Hi Stanley, president of the Varsity Club, presided over the first business meeting of the year yesterday afternoon. The meeting was originally called for last Wednesday, but had to be postponed because there was not a quorum.

Nomination and election of officers was slated to take place, but up to the time of going to press, no returns had been received. A discussion of the club's activities for the coming year was held.

Last year's officers who are returning to school are Hi Stanley, president; Charles Shaw, secretary; and James Tyack, sergeant-at-arms.

RENEGADES VS. SANTA MARIA FRIDAY NIGHT

HARDER PROMISES TOUGH GAME SEVERAL SHIFTS IN LINE-UP

Coach Spud Harder has put his squad through some stiff work-outs this week in preparation for the encounter with Santa Maria J. C. here Friday night. Coach Harder considers this one of the hardest games on this year's schedule.

Santa Maria J. C. has an outstanding back-field. At full-back they have Abbernathy. He will be remembered from last year's Santa Maria high school team. Taylor, a transfer from the University of San Francisco, is one of the half-backs. This is a constant threat. Captain Clyde Williams is another back that will worry any tackler. Santa Maria J. C. line outweighs Bakersfield's line by nine pounds to the man. Their backfield outweighs ours by fifteen to twenty pounds to the man.

Spud has given the team some new plays and polished up or revised some of the old plays. The line-up may be juggled a little from that of the San Berdoo game. Purtle may start at full in place of Van Osdell. Alexander may start at left-half in place of Wilton, who injured his foot in the San Berdoo game and may not be able to start.

The line will probably be the same, although Ball may start at left end in place of Benton.

Y. M. C. A. MAKES PLANS FOR YEAR

Members of the local Junior College Y. M. C. A. met in Mr. Sagen's room Sept. 28 to elect officers for the ensuing year, and to discuss a program.

The officers elected were: Harold Haight, president; Herb McBratney, vice-president; Donald Ayer, secretary and treasurer; Gerald Estep, field council representative.

An active program including study of the problems which confront the Y. M. C. A., a program of entertainment, and a membership drive was tentatively arranged.

In charge of the meeting was Mr. George Sagen, Junior College Y. M. C. A. adviser; and Len Dolquist, district supervisor of the Y. M. C. A. The meeting adjourned after arrangements had been made for the next meeting, which will be held on October 12. At this time initiation of incoming members will take place.

A Halloween masquerade dance will be the first social event of the year at Santa Monica J. C. Old fashioned refreshments in the form of doughnuts and cider will be among the novelties of the dance.

J. C. TEACHER TELLS ABOUT YEAR ABROAD

WINNER OF FELLOWSHIP GIVES INTERESTING ACCOUNT OF TRIP

Miss Miriam Gatley, English teacher of the J. C. faculty, has returned this fall from a year's leave of absence. Last year she was awarded the Fellowship for American Student Research in a specific field and spent her time in Europe studying literature of the Romance Period (1100 A. D. to 1390 A. D.)

Miss Gatley, prominent in local literary circles, sailed from Montreal, Canada, aboard the Cunard liner Athenia on August 16 of last year and landed in Liverpool, England.

Bicycle Trips

After a short visit in this most important commercial city in England, she established herself in London, where she remained for the greater part of four months gathering material for her thesis. This part of the trip was very pleasant, for as Miss Gatley explained, she greatly enjoys foggy weather—"and the London fogs are supreme!"

An occasional bicycle trip about the countryside to quaint outlying towns and villages in England and Scotland, and rambles along the Strand added much to the pleasure of this visit, and tended to break the routine of constant study and research.

Meets Friends

Although Miss Gatley was not registered at Oxford, much of her research carried her to that famous college, and to the British Museum. Before leaving for Paris she visited many of the noted cathedrals in the British Isles, including: Fitz William at Cambridge, Canterbury at Canterbury, and Exeter at Exeter.

She met several friends from Bakersfield during her stay in Paris, and when time would permit she was "shown about the city."

From Paris Miss Gatley travelled to the ancient feudal city of Carcassonne in southern France. Much of this city, including the drawbridge, moat, and castle, is a hangover of the period of the inquisition in France.

Visits Conference

Following a brief stay in Belgium, Miss Gatley went to Germany to study two ancient books known to be in the library of the famous Heidelberg college, and then to Fluelen and Geneva in Switzerland. In the latter city Miss Gatley was very fortunate in having the opportunity to visit the Disarmament Conference and to hear Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald deliver an address on behalf of Great Britain, whom he represented at the conference.

After a visit at many noted places in Italy, she returned to England.

Schools Different

Miss Gatley's thesis was completed and accepted for publication shortly before she sailed for the United States

Areopagus Club Studies Subject of Prohibition

The first regular meeting of the Areopagus Club, organization for girls interested in Social Science, was held Monday evening, October 3rd, at school.

Jane Bellows, president, took charge of the meeting. The new members were acquainted with the constitution and plans for the year, which were presented in a short business meeting followed by a study period.

Prohibition

The first topic to be taken up by the club is prohibition. Discussion is to be carried out in a manner which will present both pro and con phases of the subject. In connection with this study the members plan to attend Kathleen Norris' lecture on Prohibition. A book report on the history and evolution of prohibition was given by Jane Bellows.

To Pelican Island

The members accepted the invitation of the Social Science Club to go on an Indian hunt at Pelican Island next Tuesday. Eleanor Champion, Lucille Jennings, and Esther Bassett were appointed as refreshment committee.

Florence Tieck was elected secretary. The program chairman for the following month is to be Evelyn Schmidt.

Members

Members present were Kathleen Cassady, Lucille Jennings, Esther Bassett, Eleanor Champion, Marian DeCew, Margaret Hanawalt, Florence Tieck, Margaret Bailey, Mary DeLacy, Mildred Gibson, Isabelle Hanawalt, Elizabeth McGinn. Virginia Jameson and Peggy Cooke.

The group is particularly interested in social problems of a national, international, and local nature. This interest is going to give zest to the discussion periods and any other project which the organization undertakes during the period.

Victoria Achin New President of W. A. A.

The W. A. A. had their first meeting last Tuesday, seventh period.

The former president, Audrey Gill, has left and vice-president Victoria Achin was chosen to fill her place.

Tessie Williams was elected the new vice-president. Shirley Mae Andress, secretary and treasurer.

To be a member one has to have two hundred points.

A pep rally was planned in the near future for the football game.

to be present for the opening of the present semester of Junior College.

Miss Gatley emphasized the impossibility of a definite comparison between the European and American educational institutions because of basic primary educational requirement differences between the countries.

"I HEARD—"

Jean Maurer, the girl who appeared at school one morning with new auburn locks, says that her car is ready to bear its share of the increased enrollment.

All eyes have been turned toward the certain blonde that Harry Miller and Earl Alexander have set as a goal for their battle of supremacy. May the best man win.

Esther Bassett has lately acquired "Billie" for a nickname—who is he?

Carl Mosen has suddenly found the wares of Newberry's 5 and 10 uninteresting—why?

Helen Jaggard and Margaret Hanawalt have been seen with the Estep twins quite a bit recently—Wonder if Peggy Cooke is biting her fingernails over it?

Mary Alice Emery, with shorn tresses, seems exceedingly interested in the Californian lately—what, ho?

A certain English teacher should be warned to be more careful when identifying Frank Columbia—Jack Bethune, is my face red?

Darrel Berrigan, one of this institution's most outspoken wits, is also an accomplished exponent of the Russian dance. Doubters may ask for a demonstration.

Virginia Voll, our local Ann Harding, has intermittent flares of temperament.

A certain J. C. lad attempted unsuccessfully to chisel a date out of the girl's dorm by feigning ignorance of his imaginary girl friend's name. (He is not unknown in racquetting circles.)

The University of Mexico is the oldest university in the western hemisphere.

It has been necessary for some of "Spud" Harder's newest proteges to order larger hats.

The local boot-blacks are looking forward with anticipation to another of Mr. Baldwin's unheralded zoo lab. trips.

The Estep boys can't tell each other apart in a full length mirror.

Graduate football men are helping "Spud" Harder coach the "rookies"—how does it feel to be experienced men, eh?

DEBATERS HAVE BIG SCHEDULE THIS SEMESTER

ANTICIPATE MANY NEW MEMBERS TO PHI RHO PHI, SAYS COACH

The year's debate schedule was officially planned Friday night when the Valley Debate Conference met at Porterville. The meeting, which was conducted during dinner, was attended by debate coaches and J. C. debaters from all parts of the valley. Those present were: Mr. McGinnis of Taft, who was chairman of the conference; Mr. and Mrs. Wiley K. Peterson and Jack Bethune, of Bakersfield; Miss Ruth Hirschman, of Porterville; Mr. Lehmen and Virgil Hicks, of Visalia; Miss Ella A. Evans, of Reedley; and Henry Basham of Taft.

Debate Schedule

The program decided on was as follows:

First debate to be held Nov. 4; second Dec. 2; third Jan. 20, and fourth Feb. 10. Valley Oratorical contest will be held March 10 at Visalia. The question for the first two debates is: "Resolved, That the Japan-Manchurian policy is justifiable." The first debate will be regular style, and the second Oregon style, a type of debate which is becoming increasingly popular in California. This style differs from the regular style in that all the constructive case is given by one person, while the other debater cross-examines the opposing constructive speaker.

Debate Questions

The third debate, on Jan. 20, will be Oregon style; the fourth, Feb. 20, will be extemporaneous.

The question for the third debate is: "Resolved, That the Advertisement of Commodities as Practical in the United States is more harmful than Beneficial." The subject for the Oratorical contest is "Social Emancipation."

The schedule is so planned that the negative teams of the dual debates will always travel to meet the affirmative of the home schools.

Big Year

Mr. Peterson believes that this will be a big year for Bakersfield debating. Those who have already gone out for debate are: Isabelle Hanawalt, Evelyn Schmidt, Jack Bethune, George Poehner, William Giddings, Bill Tivnon, Harold Estep and Harry Miller.

Phi Rho Pi, national J. C. forensic honor society, will have more members this year than ever before. Present members of this fraternity are: Isabelle Hanawalt, Evelyn Schmidt, Jack Bethune, Harold Estep and Harry Miller.

A non-conference debate with Visalia will be held before the official season opens. In this new debaters may participate, to become eligible to Phi Rho Pi.
