Sophs and Frosh To Tangle In Titanic Struggle

By JIM McDONALD

Wall Street has its panics, Folsom has its riots, but B. J. C. is in store for one of Spud Harder's famed "lip-splitting" contests that will put all of those to shame and shock the city to boot. What's all this hulla-balloo about says you? Well, prop-up your ears "my fran" and get a strange hold on your chair.

A basketball game in the near future, the benefits of which will go to buy "Lindy" Roland an artificial leg, is to be played. Now to the ordinary law-abiding citizen, that is nothing to get excited about—when this one is over, it will be a landmark which in years to come, the venerable "old timers" will refer back to it "as the night a mighty basketball game shook the city!"

Here's the dope! The "sophs" under McAuliffe, will do battle with the sawed-off freshmen runts under the leadership of "Moose" Morelli. Hey—Hey—what a slaughter! There isn't a man on the "frosh" lineup who could hit the Great Lakes with a paddle if it would save his useless neck! Listen to their lineup but don't groan: Morelli, Dickey, N. O'Brien, J. O'Brien, Zuercher, Freeland, Bettencourt, Smith, Baumgardt, Daily, Schroeder, McLaughlin, Pollock.

Now look at the "Sophs"—a collection of athletes, musicians and Communists: Floyd, Sargent, McAuliffe, Clifford, Frey, Thornton, Black, Dennen, McDonald, Newberry, Takemoto.

The worst is yet to come—"Spud" Harder, alias "Honest Theo", will referee. The "sophs" threaten that if he doesn't keep his eyes closed, they will both be closed by the end of the game. The sophs wanted to spot the frosh 100 points and 50 more after the game starts, but Morelli's "cotton pickers" had the jump on the second year men by doubling the offer and handing it back.

All in all it ought to be a great game. Watch the bulletin board for the date and be sure to go. We owe it to "Lindy" and a laugh riot will be enjoyed by all.

Rehabilitation work on Los Angeles Junior College totaling $401,338 will begin soon. In addition to this, consideration is being given to the construction of a new men's gymnasium and restaurant-book store building on the campus.

Jaysee Instructors Delayed By Flood

Four teachers, sans nautical equipment, were stranded in the flooded southern California area and were unable to make Bakersfield in time for classes Tuesday, January 2. They were Miss Fullerton, Miss Howell, Miss Sieman and Mr. Wiley Peterson. Miss Bird, setting an example of bravery, set out alone Sunday during the worst of the storm. With but one mishap, namely getting stuck in the center of a street in river's clothing, she made Bakersfield Sunday evening. In drying her distributor midstream, Miss Bird was forced to put her head under the hood and use her last dry handkerchief. Dodging landslides and falling rocks, she was one of the last to come over the ridge before it was closed.

Mr. Wiley Peterson, one of the stranded, said the roads were no worse than Arizona highways after a storm. He was visiting in Orange county at the time of the down pour.

Dorothy Donahoe, showing a fine sense of duty, brought her small party home via the coast route and Paso Robles in order to arrive in time for work. They left Los Angeles Monday afternoon and made port here at seven Tuesday morning.

A damp good time was had by all!

First Tryouts For J.C. Play Are Held

Preliminary tryouts for the student body play, "Three-Cornered Moon," were held yesterday afternoon in the auditorium. Men's tryouts consisted of one part, that of Kenneth, leading man; while women's tryouts consisted of two parts—that of Elizabeth, leading lady, and Mrs. Rimplegar, character role.

Results of the tryouts will be posted within a few days. Second tryouts will be held soon after the outcome of the preliminaries has been announced.

REGISTRATION

PRELIMINARY REGISTRATION will take place tomorrow during third period classes.

FINAL REGISTRATION will be made during first four days of the last week of the term, that is, January 22-25, in J. C. 12.

Registrations for new students will be made Friday, January 26, in J. C. 12 at 8:45.

B.J.C. Wishes Speedy Recovery, Roland!

Right now this tough old world seems toughest for our own "Lindy", Howard Roland. One of the best all-around athletes ever to be enrolled in B. J. C., Howard has earned an enviable reputation, one that can be looked back on with pride. Coming to Bakersfield with quite a name as an athlete, Howard proved his worth by holding down a wing position on Coach "Goldie" Griffith's all-valley eleven of 1932. Again, earning the name of "Lindy" as the best pole vaulter on the Driller track squad, and a dependable infield man on the Blue Eagle baseball club, Roland showed his worth.

The recent successful season of Renegade football saw in "Lindy" a dependable end when the going was toughest, and when the Rambling Renegades were forced to take to the air. He played enough time to win three letters, won the admiration of the coaches, the respect and warm friendship of the players, and was termed "one of the toughest nuts out there."

"Lindy" has a wonderful personality that has made him one of the most popular students in B. J. C. For a first year man, that's going some! Scores of his friends have besieged the hospital since the accident, and are now sending him their sincerest wishes for his recovery.

Here's to you, "Lindy," a true friend, a real pal, and an all-around good fellow. May your recovery be a speedy one.

Enter Four Teams In Debate Clashes

Four teams from B. J. C. will be sent to the L. A. J. C. invitational debate tournament next Saturday. The question will be "Resolved: That the Powers of the President of the United States Should Be Substantially Increased As A Settled Policy."

Approximately ten junior colleges from the southern part of the state will be represented and freshman and sophomore teams from four-year colleges and universities.

Local debaters entering the tournament include: Evelyn Schmidt, Julia Stankey, Helen Curran, Eleanor Champion, Bob Moon, John Lawrence, Jim Stone and Bill Tivnon.

Opening Gun Of "Waterloo" Heard Next Wednesday

"Into the valley of death rode the six hundred. Blue books to the right of them, 'ponies' to the left of them, finals in front of them." So flunk!

The following subjects will present their finals on Wednesday, January 17: Orientation 1A and 2A, Chemistry 1A, Physics 1C, Social Problems 30A, and Electrical Transmission 42A.

Tuesday, January 23, dawns with the following exams to be placed before tired students: English 1A, English 56A, Geometry R, Jurisdiction 19A, Political Science 1A, Psychology 1A, Aviation Technicians 30A, Machine Shop 30A, Public Speaking 1A, Mathematics 8 and C, Psychology 1A, Music 5A.

Wednesday shows a dropping off in the number of tests given, but as to difficulty—let the student decide: Civil Engineering 1A, French 5A, Spanish 59A, Music 1A, Metal Working, Agricultural 40A, and Subject A.

Thursday, January 25, calls but two classes to the block. Those are: Architecture 2, and Mechanics 2.

Happy New Year!

Renegades Defeat Opponents In Three Week-End Encounters

ATHLETIC CLUB, McFARLAND HI
AND COALINGA J. C.
GET BEATINGS

Displaying brilliant team work, both on offense and defense, the Renegades found easy victory over their opponents in three week-end tilts. Friday evening in the local gymnasium, the quintet defeated the Bakersfield Athletic Club by a 39 to 27 margin while the subs swamped the McFarland prepsters; 22 to 9, in a preliminary game. In their first conference game of the season, the Renegades breezed away to a 38 to 11 victory over the Coalinga Junior College quintet Saturday evening in the northern gym.

Pitted against the Athletic Club, the jaysees found themselves playing against many old teammates Friday evening. Among these were Barrett, Higginbotham, Stanley and Purtle, each an experienced and outstanding player. Despite the fact that the Athletes had advantage due to experience, they were handicapped by the lack of reserve power. The Renegades continuously sent in fresh subs and at half-time they had rolled up a 19 to 12 lead.

Lots of Action

Barrett, pride and joy of the Renegades last year, was the high point man for the Cub quintet, scoring a total of 16 points. Wattenbarger with a total of 12 points, was the high point man for the jaysees. However, it was not good shooting that accounted for their winning the game so much as did lots of action. The Benton brothers stood out quite well in the game, both doing their part.

In the game with the Coalinga jaysees, the Renegades found their opponents to be less hopped up than they were expected to be. Their defensive appeared to be very weak, and when they had the ball they were unable to attempt a shot against the locals. Weems, at forward position, was the outstanding player for the northerners.

J. Benton Injured

Bill Benton scored the most points during the game and Voorhies and Ellis proved themselves outstanding in their respective positions. Jim Benton was injured in the early part of the game, receiving a sprained ankle. Rhoades filled Benton's position and played a stellar role the remainder of the game. The largest crowd ever appearing before the Renegades this season assembled to see the Coalinga-Renegade game.

J. C. All-Conference Team Is Selected

Bakersfield junior college grid stars predominate in the 1933 all-conference jaysee football team, according to the announcement made last week by Miss Grace Bird. The first and second all-conference elevens for the junior colleges were selected by the conference coaches and the votes tabulated by Miss Bird.

The members of the first team will receive medals symbolizing their attainment. Seven of the Bakersfield men will receive these medals. Taft ran very close with the Renegades, having a total of nine men on both teams while Bakersfield had the same number.

The first string was announced as follows: Ends, Bettencourt, Bakersfield, and Stone of Taft; tackles, Denen of Bakersfield and Letlow of Taft; guards, McCormick of Taft and Sargent of Bakersfield; center, Spect of Taft and Thornton of Bakersfield, tied for first team; quarterback, O'Brien of Bakersfield; halfbacks, Morelli of Bakersfield and Wells of Porterville; fullback, Lewis of Bakersfield.

The second team is as follows: Ends, Erlewine of Taft and Voorhies, Bakersfield; tackles, Freedburg of Taft and Swammack of Porterville; guards, Freeland of Bakersfield and Hale of Taft; center, Hammerstein of Reedley; halfback, Martin of Taft and McKean of Porterville; fullback, York, Taft.

San Jose State To Issue Daily Paper

The San Jose State College Times was re-organized under a new editor after the recent vacation. From now on, the staff will issue a daily paper. The editor has organized his staff into departments, with an editor, assistant, and staff of writers functioning in each.

Another major change is in the size of the paper; henceforth it will be five columns wide instead of six, but it will be the same length.

The editor hopes to conduct a campus-wide short story contest each month, the prize to be contributed by organizations of the college.

Team Travels Northward This Week-End To Play Modesto J. C.

Band Makes Trip To Pasadena New Years

Once more the annual Tournament of Roses was held, and once again for the fourth consecutive year Bakersfield Junior College, through the medium of its band, was formally invited to play a major role in the Parade of the Roses.

An invitation to this colorful pageant is considered in itself quite an honor, but B. J. C. goes further. Each year the band has continued to win unlimited praise. Last year it was one of the leading bands, excepting that of Pasadena Junior College, selected as the official representative of the Tournament of Roses.

Results have not been announced for this year as yet, but hopes are even brighter than last year's.

Two large busses carried the contingent south on New Year's eve. Hotel Padre in Hollywood was their headquarters during the stay.

Came the New Year and with it a heavy "dew", and rumors from the south indicated it to be plenty heavy. The musicians were the guests of Bill Sharples on his morning broadcast over KNX. Immediately after they left for the parade. From start to finish the rain came down in heavy torrents dampening the uniforms thoroughly and destroying several drumheads. Despite the odds, the men made an excellent showing, keeping their poise and performing in a well-trained manner.

A comment was heard over the air concerning the soft job of the sousaphone player (Charlie Leitch to you) who played an instrument so vast, it was necessary to place him and the instrument in a rickshaw drawn by two volunteers. Charlie, however, stated that looks are often deceiving.

The musicians missed seeing the New Year's football classic, because of a hurried change of plans to return home before the roads became impassible. Even then, it required ten hours to make the trip home.

Salinas To Have New Stadium

Salinas Union High School students received a nice Christmas present from Uncle Sam—enough money to help build a new stadium and four tennis courts.

School athletics have been left in serious financial condition the last few years on account of inadequate seating arrangements. It is hoped that this will be remedied by the new structure. —Exchange.

Lyle Smith and Bob O'Connor, former Bakersfield boys, made a fine showing for themselves in the Rose Bowl game.

STIFF OPPOSITION PROMISED FOR RENEGADES BY WELL- COACHED QUINTET

Coach Basil Peterson will send his aspiring basketball charges northward this week-end in an attempt to revenge themselves for the recent beating given the football team by the Modesto Pirates.

The northern quintet is coached by Dutch Climber who, incidentally, received his basketball training from the same schools as Basil Peterson—Berkeley High School and the University of California. The fact that the two teams are probably well-versed in the same type of play, predicts a closely-contested game.

Not much is known about the Modesto team except that it is well-coached and not below its usual strength. Pirate quintets have never failed to win a large part of their games.

Renegade hopes run high for a victory in basketball as this will in a measure offset the 28-6 trimming administered the Renegade eleven this fall.

Loss of Jim Benton, stellar guard who injured his ankle in the Coalinga game last week, was expected to weaken the defense somewhat. However, it is hoped that he will be able to see some service in the Modesto game.

Well, Columbia surely made a successful attempt to sweep the Stanford Indians aside on New Year's day in the Rose Bowl. Had the Lions had a few feet of water to play in they might have tallied a 'greater' score against the western eleven.
