Economics Students Debate On Sinclair

Ovide Turner and Walter Reilly, of the junior economics class, won the discussion over Helen Corren and Frank McManus, members of Mr. Young's fifth period Economics class.

The debate was on "What's Ahead?, That Mr. Young's Fifth Period Economics class, the "Government," and Mr. Fair's class, the "Opponent," debated it. It was judged very expertly by Professor Murphy. Mr. Young's class was followed Mr. McManus. the class, a fellow of Mr. Murphy was in the discussion.

The debate proved very interesting and enjoyable to the class. However, it is interesting to note that although the decision was held the affirmative the class, through a ballot, decided in favor of "Miss" Murphy asをsupport in the debate.

Mr. Young's eighth period Economics students are still working hard to win another victory in the debate. The next debate in this program will be John Schwebel and Edward Bambrough of the eighth period class.

President Bob Moon Proposes Fall Meet

Associated student president, Bob Moon, is planning a Junior College yourself with an emphasis on the valley. The students are being called back to their respective groups and the meeting will be held this week for making plans for the Junior College Spring Conference.

Plans for the conference will be submitted to the American Students of the West Coast.
WORDS TO THE WISE

Hot Punch

The book of education today is a book of hot punch, and to pretend it is anything else is to handicap the student. It is false to say that the book is "boring," or that it is "dull." The book is full of facts and figures, and it is a book that will help the student to understand the world around him.

Dr. T. C. Knoll

On a Rip-Tide (SUNDAY, NOV. 17)

Gusty winds are blowing today, and the waves are rippling the surface of the ocean. The sun is shining, and the birds are flying overhead. It is a beautiful day, but the wind is strong.

The waves are coming in fast, and the boats are bobbing up and down. The fishermen are working hard, trying to catch as many fish as they can.

Seizin' the Shows (THURSDAY, NOV. 21)

The plays are playing today, and the audience is enjoying themselves. The actors are doing a great job, and the audience is laughing and smiling.

Dr. Freeland of San Jose State On Matrimony

The professor is speaking today, and he is giving a lecture on matrimony. He is explaining the importance of marriage, and he is giving advice on how to have a successful marriage.

Ripping the News (FRIDAY, NOV. 22)

The news is being reported today, and the reporter is providing information on the latest events. The reporter is giving a detailed account of what is happening, and the audience is paying close attention.

What's Yours? (SATURDAY, NOV. 23)

The question is being asked today, and the answer is being given. The question is a good one, and the answer is clear.

On Campus:

The students are studying today, and they are working hard. The library is open, and the students are using the resources to help them.

The campus is bustling with activity, and the students are moving about. The weather is nice, and the students are enjoying their time on campus.

College Patrons' Club

Get Together Nov. 6

The club is meeting today, and the members are gathering to have a good time. The club is a great place to be, and the members are having a great time.

The meeting is starting at 7:00 PM, and the members are expected to be there. The club is located at 123 Main Street, and the members are welcome to attend.

Sinclair Lauded By One Times

Sinclair is being praised today, and the One Times is giving him a lot of attention. The One Times is a great newspaper, and Sinclair is doing a great job.

The article is being published today, and the readers are enjoying it. The article is well-written, and the readers are learning a lot.

The article is being read by many, and the readers are enjoying it. The article is well-written, and the readers are learning a lot.

The article is being read by many, and the readers are enjoying it. The article is well-written, and the readers are learning a lot.

The article is being read by many, and the readers are enjoying it. The article is well-written, and the readers are learning a lot.

The article is being read by many, and the readers are enjoying it. The article is well-written, and the readers are learning a lot.

The article is being read by many, and the readers are enjoying it. The article is well-written, and the readers are learning a lot.

The article is being read by many, and the readers are enjoying it. The article is well-written, and the readers are learning a lot.

The article is being read by many, and the readers are enjoying it. The article is well-written, and the readers are learning a lot.

The article is being read by many, and the readers are enjoying it. The article is well-written, and the readers are learning a lot.
Renegades Will Invade Porterville Today

Renegades Look Forward To Stanford Freshmen Clash

Have Not Contested Since 1931; Galaxy of Stars In Lineup

After battling the Porterville Friars at this Friday, the Renegades will look forward with eagerness to the battle with powerhouse Cal Fresh, at Palo Alto, Saturday, November 19.

Coach Jack Pistole said the teams in the conference, including Taft, Bakersfield, and Porterville, boys of trouble tomorrow.

Perry Potter going 'six at left tackle. Taft, who has been a hard worker at the line and a very strong player, will have to watch his play at left tackle. He has been a hard worker at the line and a very strong player.

Ramblings With the Renegades

By MURRAY ARNOLD

Last night, Charles Anderson was called to guard the Renegades in their right half back. He started the game with a bang, but was later replaced by Herb Sorensen. Herb is a very strong player, but he has a tendency to overplay his hand.

Both of these games will be very important in determining the fate of the Renegades in the conference. A victory over the Renegades in the conference will be a great boost to the morale of the team, and will help them to make a strong showing in the conference.

Bliss Plans For "Cross Country Run"

The annual conference cross country run will be held at Bakersfield on November 5, according to Coach Perry Sorensen, mentor of the Renegade track team.

Every school in the conference, which includes Taft, Bakersfield, and Porterville, will participate in the run. The Renegades will be represented by Bliss, who has shown great promise in the conference this season.

One of the strongest running backs on the team is Carl Hagemann. He is a very strong player, but he has a tendency to overplay his hand.

The Renegades will be made up of six men, with Bliss and Potter making up the six. The team will be coached by Bliss, who is a very strong player.

The fighting Renegades Trounce Britt Freshmen, 15-7

The Fighting Renegades went on to win against Britt Freshmen, 15-7, on the strength of Captain Gough's two touchdowns and two extra points, scored by Sorensen.

Of the 20 points scored by the Fighting Renegades, 15 came from the game played against Britt Freshmen. The Renegades will now look forward to the game against the San Jose State, which will be played on Saturday, November 19.

Fighting Renegades Trounce Britt Freshmen, 15-7

The Fighting Renegades went on to win against Britt Freshmen, 15-7, on the strength of Captain Gough's two touchdowns and two extra points, scored by Sorensen.

Of the 20 points scored by the Fighting Renegades, 15 came from the game played against Britt Freshmen. The Renegades will now look forward to the game against the San Jose State, which will be played on Saturday, November 19.

Fighting Renegades Trounce Britt Freshmen, 15-7

The Fighting Renegades went on to win against Britt Freshmen, 15-7, on the strength of Captain Gough's two touchdowns and two extra points, scored by Sorensen.

Of the 20 points scored by the Fighting Renegades, 15 came from the game played against Britt Freshmen. The Renegades will now look forward to the game against the San Jose State, which will be played on Saturday, November 19.