Wallace to Head Student Body

Dean Bird Welcomes Students

It is always a pleasant privilege to speak a welcome to your junior college students at the beginning of the new year. It is an especially happy privilege to do so this time when the United Nations arespanning the world and the victory we have had faith would be ours. Among the increasing numbers of young veterans returning to take up the educational advantages that were delayed by the call to arms. To all of you I address a welcome as wide as my dreams.

College will offer you many things. None, I think, are more important than these. It will offer an opportunity to acquire new ways of looking at the world and new understanding of its peoples. Take them in full measure. In the years ahead, you will want to be friendly to family to make friends. Accept them. It will offer you new opportunities to "know thyself." Grow—grow in tolerance and wisdom and faith.

GRACE BIRD, Director.

Fall Semester Calendar

September 9, English Classification Examination
September 15, AHS Rally
September 18, Football Picnic September 19, College "Applite Tests"
September 25, Preliminary Scholarship Reports October 16, First Mid-Term Scholarship Reports
November 22, Last Day to Drop a Course Without Incurring Prejudice to Standing
November 23-24, Thanksgiving Holiday
December 1, Second Mid-Term Scholarship Reports December 16, Final Examinations
January 1, New Year's Holiday January 9, Registration for Spring Semesters
January 26-February 1, Final Exams
February 2, End of Fall Semester Social events have not yet been scheduled.

I am happy to add my greetings to new and returning students. Again, we have a faculty and student body resident in number, but there will be no restrictions on the number of our enrollment or in our club to serve the "One very special element in your clothing which, when properly fitted, the new challenges, which victory will bring to the new students of 1944 and to returning students, welcome.

MARGARET LORISISS, Dean of Women.

School Days (With apologies to the song by (that name)

Friday's are for Tuesday morning; Planning to be there by term. Let's talk the way

Of a very nice "Bird" and seek the knowledge girls' be expected to learn and Maple and Robertson didn't come back.

"Come in and wait.

You'll need both shoes. It seems she's the last to join our pack.

School days, school days. Back to campus role days. When's English and history and botany.

Taught by the pros of old BJC. They're our friends in deep disguise. Smoking and kind and always watchful.

And report cards from them cause our demands. When we walk the campus again.

Howdy Day Will Feature Picnic

Wallace Is Chairman; Roving Reporter To Highlight Event

First social event of the semester will be the Howdy Picnic to be held Friday, September 10, at Beale Park, during fourth and fifth periods. Students are asked to bring their lunches and meet at Beale Park during their lunch periods.

Main feature of the picnic will be the roving reporter, if yet unnamed, who will roam among the picnickers with his portable camera and conduct student interviews. Mr. Rand- old Clark will lead the colorfully painted and Say McCormick, will play the...
First Issue Handicapped!

Our first issue this year makes its debut with a definitely sketchy face. Despite this handicap, we feel this issue accomplishes its purpose. To give you reliable information about forthcoming and scholarly events that will occur during the first week of school.

When the staff is fully organized, the Renegade Rip will be delivered to your desk, and will be the regular language of the Rip. The Rip is included in your list of summer activities. To keep up with your school, you must be sure to buy your yearbook.

With your help, we hope to keep The Rip up to the same high standard that has been its publication. It received an "A" rating in the San Joaquin Valley Contest.

Maureen O'Brien

A Welcome Back to School

to All the J.C. Boys and Girls

From

HARRY COFFEES

Bakersfield, Calif.

First Assembly
Friday, 9:15

Not enough men for student body play

"You truly enjoy exploring, and are always planning and working in the halls of BHS," says Managing Editor Barbara Baldiiri. "You may not realize that you also enjoy participating in school activities. For example, did you know that the J.C. is a student government?"

Helen Harper Sweaters

Sweaters are stealing the show this fall... and you'll find the best of them in your new Helen Harper collection. Short-sleeved chokers to up your suit, slip and uniforms in butter-soft wool. All in a variety of styles. Masterpiece looks with just $2.98-

Budget Shop

WEILL'S

Main Floor

Hayride plans are set for October

Excels Council of Representatives' Hayride plans have been set for October. Plans for a hayride, prepared by a pep rally and a full evening of fun, will take place on Monday, October 21. The main event will be the hayride, which will start at dusk. The hayride will include music, dances, and a bonfire. Throughout the evening, there will be food and drinks available. All students are welcome to attend.

Hanawalt first vice president; Bonnie Winger secretary

Campus life continues to be exciting as the semester progresses. Hanawalt, first vice president, and Bonnie Winger, secretary, are keeping the organization running smoothly. They work hard to ensure that all students have a fun and exciting experience.

AWS plans kid party

"Don't a little kids have fun?" asked Jill Iveson. "Sure!"

"Why not invite the kids to the school?" asked Jill.

"Yes, but we can't afford it," said Jill.

"Why don't we have a kid party?" asked Jill.

"That's a great idea!" said Jill.

"Let's invite the kids to the school," agreed Jill.

"But we don't have a place to hold the party," said Jill.

"Why don't we have a backyard party?" asked Jill.

"That's a great idea!" said Jill.

"Let's invite the kids to the school," agreed Jill.

"But we don't have a place to hold the party," said Jill.

"Why don't we have a backyard party?" asked Jill.

"That's a great idea!" said Jill.

"Let's invite the kids to the school," agreed Jill.

"But we don't have a place to hold the party," said Jill.

"Why don't we have a backyard party?" asked Jill.

"That's a great idea!" said Jill.

"Let's invite the kids to the school," agreed Jill.

"But we don't have a place to hold the party," said Jill.

"Why don't we have a backyard party?" asked Jill.

"That's a great idea!" said Jill.

"Let's invite the kids to the school," agreed Jill.

"But we don't have a place to hold the party," said Jill.

"Why don't we have a backyard party?" asked Jill.

"That's a great idea!" said Jill.

"Let's invite the kids to the school," agreed Jill.

"But we don't have a place to hold the party," said Jill.

"Why don't we have a backyard party?" asked Jill.

"That's a great idea!" said Jill.

"Let's invite the kids to the school," agreed Jill.

"But we don't have a place to hold the party," said Jill.

"Why don't we have a backyard party?" asked Jill.

"That's a great idea!" said Jill.

"Let's invite the kids to the school," agreed Jill.

"But we don't have a place to hold the party," said Jill.

"Why don't we have a backyard party?" asked Jill.

"That's a great idea!" said Jill.

"Let's invite the kids to the school," agreed Jill.

"But we don't have a place to hold the party," said Jill.

"Why don't we have a backyard party?" asked Jill.

"That's a great idea!" said Jill.

"Let's invite the kids to the school," agreed Jill.

"But we don't have a place to hold the party," said Jill.

"Why don't we have a backyard party?" asked Jill.

"That's a great idea!" said Jill.

"Let's invite the kids to the school," agreed Jill.

"But we don't have a place to hold the party," said Jill.

"Why don't we have a backyard party?" asked Jill.

"That's a great idea!" said Jill.

"Let's invite the kids to the school," agreed Jill.

"But we don't have a place to hold the party," said Jill.

"Why don't we have a backyard party?" asked Jill.

"That's a great idea!" said Jill.

"Let's invite the kids to the school," agreed Jill.

"But we don't have a place to hold the party," said Jill.

"Why don't we have a backyard party?" asked Jill.

"That's a great idea!" said Jill.

"Let's invite the kids to the school," agreed Jill.

"But we don't have a place to hold the party," said Jill.

"Why don't we have a backyard party?" asked Jill.

"That's a great idea!" said Jill.

"Let's invite the kids to the school," agreed Jill.

"But we don't have a place to hold the party," said Jill.

"Why don't we have a backyard party?" asked Jill.

"That's a great idea!" said Jill.

"Let's invite the kids to the school," agreed Jill.

"But we don't have a place to hold the party," said Jill.

"Why don't we have a backyard party?" asked Jill.

"That's a great idea!" said Jill.

"Let's invite the kids to the school," agreed Jill.

"But we don't have a place to hold the party," said Jill.

"Why don't we have a backyard party?" asked Jill.

"That's a great idea!" said Jill.

"Let's invite the kids to the school," agreed Jill.

"But we don't have a place to hold the party," said Jill.

"Why don't we have a backyard party?" asked Jill.

"That's a great idea!" said Jill.

"Let's invite the kids to the school," agreed Jill.

"But we don't have a place to hold the party," said Jill.

"Why don't we have a backyard party?" asked Jill.

"That's a great idea!" said Jill.

"Let's invite the kids to the school," agreed Jill.

"But we don't have a place to hold the party," said Jill.

"Why don't we have a backyard party?" asked Jill.

"That's a great idea!" said Jill.

"Let's invite the kids to the school," agreed Jill.

"But we don't have a place to hold the party," said Jill.

"Why don't we have a backyard party?" asked Jill.

"That's a great idea!" said Jill.

"Let's invite the kids to the school," agreed Jill.

"But we don't have a place to hold the party," said Jill.

"Why don't we have a backyard party?" asked Jill.

"That's a great idea!" said Jill.

"Let's invite the kids to the school," agreed Jill.

"But we don't have a place to hold the party," said Jill.

"Why don't we have a backyard party?" asked Jill.

"That's a great idea!" said Jill.

"Let's invite the kids to the school," agreed Jill.

"But we don't have a place to hold the party," said Jill.

"Why don't we have a backyard party?" asked Jill.

"That's a great idea!" said Jill.

"Let's invite the kids to the school," agreed Jill.

"But we don't have a place to hold the party," said Jill.

"Why don't we have a backyard party?" asked Jill.

"That's a great idea!" said Jill.

"Let's invite the kids to the school," agreed Jill.

"But we don't have a place to hold the party," said Jill.
Students!

If you are interested in a club that has not yet been organized, don’t wait. Join someone to get the idea going. Be one of the founders, or organize the student group yourself. Let’s have every student interested in a club become head of one club.

If you can’t find a club to join, why not start one of your own and pick out a faculty sponsor as your advisor.

Announcements

This is for the benefit of those who wish to be notified of any of our activities during the year. A complete new supply of paints and letters has been placed in the office.

Anyone wishing to use this material will have to get a letter from the faculty advisor, Director of Public Relations.

Next week we shall have all in attendance at the RCP office for the beginning of the fall semester. We shall then be able to start.

Mailing Office

The mailing office is in the best located part of the Student Union.

Harry Tabor is a pretty good one.

Dorothy Dean

Fine Women’s Ready-to-Wear

Sportswear... ---_Dresses

1510 Nineteenth Street

Bakersfield, Calif.

B. J. C. Boasts Six Veterans Enrolled For First Term

Glad has been heavy and welcome for the six veterans who have enrolled for this fall’s class.

These were due to the fact that the veterans saved their education when they left for several years ago. From Santa Maria, one of the men, now a student, was in the service.

HARRY COFFEE'S

Campus Clothes From

COFFEE'S

100% Correct 100% Functional

1450 Nineteenth Street

Bakersfield, Calif.

FASHIONS

WEIL'S

MAIN FLOOR

SCHOOL AGAIN!

A Time for a “Fresh Up” in New Clothes at

HARRY COFFEE'S

Campus Clothes From

COFFEE'S

100% Correct 100% Functional

1450 Nineteenth Street

Bakersfield, Calif.

FASHIONS

WEIL'S

MAIN FLOOR
Select Your Clubs; Join Now!

Do you feel that you are not in enough activities? Are you left out of things? Do you long to be a part of the campus life? The club rush tomorrow is being held specially to help those students who want to be in clubs, but have not known how to go about entering them.

There are around 30 clubs which are open to nearly every student, and there are a few clubs whose membership is only by invitation. The former need more participants and will gladly accept any applications.

The various organizations have been working hard on sketches to make Friday's rally a success and to help swell their memberships.

If you have any free time and feel that you would like to join in some club fun sign up at the club tables tomorrow. Help increase school spirit!

Registration Romeo

"Where do I start?" "My gosh, do I feel all of these?" "Now, where would that locker be? These are only a few of the remarks made by student who student makes his first entrance to B-A

After braving a length of tables where different papers are thrust at him, the new enrollee seeks himself. Frequently, there are the most girls (big problem). Then he proceeds to spread his many documents out in front of him and given a bewildered expression on his face. He then glances sightly at one of the hopefully waiting board members, and says, "If you like, you can fill these out for me." The girl thankfully fills up the offending papers and does her best in her best hand writing.

The great moment has arrived; she now has a chance to talk to one of the men. The conversation eventually gets "downright chummy." They discuss his old alma mater and, how he was the star of the football team, or was he the water-boy.

As a parting favor, she gives him first-hand information on his classes and tells him how to pronounce Latin and such. This time she's calling him by nickname, and as he leaves her, he tells her he'll never forget the great favor she's done him and that she can even be his personal secretary while he's here. She inwardly prays for herself having met the handsomest enrollee so far, and he walks out with a smile. But what every girl looking his way—which takes in quite a lot of territory.

At the door he stops to chat with other interested females, and routine starts again. Um, m, he likes this school even better than Washington, Hi, or was Shafter, Tall. (Who says this isn't a true story?)

RADOMUS WRITES OF ARMY "LIFE"

Dear Miss Bird:

After a year of Army life—if you can tell it—I have seen just about 100 miles from home, and I am due to again learn the law of change pronounced originally by Heraclitus, the famous Greek philosopher and so consistently exemplified by our Army. I am scheduled to leave Freiburg November 1, 1944, the middle of September, for a B-29 base somewhere in the Midwest; this is preparatory to a G-Ferry ride I am bound to get around Christmas-time to that part of the globe where this thing is going to last the longest.

... Needless to say, I have been assigned to a new interesting job in this B-29 service group, that of classification specialist for the Headquarters Squadron. It's a fancy title, I know, but it's an interesting assignment keeping tab on soldiers' qualifications, etc. Of course, as I always tell everyone who asks, it means being a Coronado, Remington Ranger, and what-have-you, I'll never win any medals for the type of work I am doing, but this I can do, with the job and since that is the case I am going to do my best. I always say that perhaps someday I'll receive the Distinguished Flying Cross, or something, for my efforts—I haven't yet given up hope. . .

... This just about leaves off my literary efforts for the time being. In the meantime, I will tell you about the night-time future that will face us typing clerks even when the war is over. They have already threatened me, for instance, with the terrible task of typing out discharge papers for other soldiers, and they say it will take more than a year before our Army is demobilized. You can see how far down the list places me—me—there are all those tough-luck tales in the Army—it's, "The Chaplain," only I'm afraid that by that time all the chaplains will have been discharged, too.

Sincerely,

Jimmy Radomus.