As a member and representative of your Executive Council, it is my honor and privilege to heartily welcome the new students. You, the new students, are encouraged to participate and enjoy the many events and activities on campus and enjoy our bright prospects for another successful year.

I appreciate the opportunity you have given me to serve you again as President of your student body. Let us all work together this next semester in an enthusiastic drive to maintain our high educational standards and to increase our educational values as much as possible. With your cooperation, we will be able to inaugurate many new ideas into our campus life.

Ours is a government of the students, by the students, and for the students. And by working together we can and will make this next semester one upon which we can look back with pride and many fond memories.

BARBARA WALLACE.

Election Places Paul Mason.
Lois Hanawalt On Council

Wallace Re-elected; Carol
Cunnigham Second Vice

Barbara Wallace, president of the Associated students of Bakersfield Junior College for the past semester, was re-elected to her office by the Jaycee student body in an election held Tuesday, January 31. Miss Lois Hanawalt, incumbent first vice-president, was also re-elected to her office at the same time.

Carol Cunningham was voted in as student body secretary succeeding Mary Lou Gonzales, who has been in charge of Jaycee activities during the past term. Renee Kecht was elected to the office of treasurer and will take over the duties formerly fulfilled by Bonnie Winger, who will succeed Mildred Biales as director of public relations.

Paul Seaver, director of student business manager, will succeed Ruth Danum, and James Adams and Richard Test attend as financial representatives.

Barbara Baldwin, incumbent director of student activities, will continue her duties during the spring semester.

The remaining officers of the Jaycees executive council are not re-elected at midterm. June Hunter, editor of the Bakersfield Bug, Fay McCannyn, editor of the Roar, and Betty Jean Frank, assistant editor, are not up for re-election, and will therefore continue to serve in these capacities until the end of this school year.

Ping-Pong Tournament Sponsored By Engineers

Now in progress is the ping-pong tournament sponsored by the Engineer's Club. Free periods are being used to advantage by these students, predominantly male, who have signed up for the contest to determine BCJ's ping-pong champions. Participants are required to pay a ten cent fee in order to play.

First game in the doubles group is between Rod Veale and Floyd Pfe, and Mr. K. Hendrickson, who owns the winner of this game will play the team of Ben Davis and Othy Grage. The victorious contestant in this match will play the winner of a game between Roy Keath and the team of Harold Trimble and Otis Grage.

The couple winning this game will be the doubles champion.

The singles contest includes four contestants, Sally Freewitt, Bob Kennedy, Bob Veale, Bob Davis, and Roy Keath. The winner of this contest will play the winner of the doubles game.

Phyllis White Chosen President Public Relations Council

Phyllis White, who is an active sorority woman in BJC affairs, was elected president of the Public Relations Council, and will hold this position in her junior year. Barbara Bakken, who was appointed chairman of a committee which made the student government elections, will head the Public Relations Council.

Other members present at the meeting were Mildred Bailey, Barbara Bakken, Paul Pfe, Mildred Bakken, Norma, Betty Jean Frank, Paul Moore, Joyce Howell, Kathryn Taylor, and Phyllis White.

AWS Loses To Leaders

In its opening game of the season, the AWS basketball team went down by a 24-14 score to CUDDS leaders on Thursday morning. The game was played at 5 p.m. in the Coliseum.

The AWS team, coached by Mrs. H. W. Bostwick, Mrs. P. E. T. Morgan, and Misses E. M. and Mary M. Denman, fought hard but failed to come out on top. Sally Freewitt, Evelyn Johnson, Lois Hanawalt, Mary Lou Gonzales, and Jackie Young, however, Railroad, Dorset, and Dorothy, Christina, June Pfe, Elaine Cottontail, Marjorie Howard and Vicka McIntyre, played to the leaders.

"Playing for the Leaders was the following: Parsons, Virginia Follin, Ethel Freeman, Connie Bannister, Marion Hall, and Yvonne Montgomery; guards; Mabel Hall, Roberta Huggins, Gladys Hooper, Agnes McGinty, Gladys Chappell, and Beverly Schwaiger. AWS: Dorothy, Betty, and Barbara." Howard, Mrs. Bostwick, and Reeves, the leaders.

Despite the large score, the Jaycees could not win the oppositions super playing.

High point for the AWS team was Sally Freewitt, who piled up 10 out of the total number of points by blocking seven long shots in the last quarter.

RAC Assembly Planned?

Vague whispers on the BCJ breeze have it that the RAC staff is planning a "surprise" assembly for February 4. All RAC leaders, please be prepared.

BARBARA WALLACE EXTENDS GREETINGS TO ALL STUDENTS.

PRESIDENT BARBARA WALLACE EXTENDS GREETINGS TO ALL STUDENTS.

"Welcome to the new semester! We hope you are all well prepared for the challenges that lie ahead. May this semester be one of growth and discovery."

AMS "Final Fling" Will Be Tonight in Girls' Gymnasium

STATE COLLEGIANS HOLD NOVEL PARTY

Relaxation and fun goals will characterize the Jaycee party to be held by the State ColleGIANS Club on January 24. Members of the public, including non-BCJ students, will be able to join the fun.

Schafer Returns; W ASPS Disband

Former Woman's Air Force Service Forces First Miss Adeline Schafer, who was re-elected last semester, has returned to the campus. Miss Schafer, who left her post as BJC Graphic teacher to return to her duties, is one of the many women who have been released from their flying jobs because of the disbanding of the Women's Air Force Service Forces Pilot Organization.

Newly appointed to her position is Mary Lou Gonzales, who is also a member of the Jaycee Student Council.

Sadie Hawkins Week!

Dance and Assembly Planned For Climax

RBC's annual "Sadie Hawkins Week," in just a month away, draws to a close. From February 18 to February 25, Jaycees are said to sport either pig tails or beards—the choice will be left to your discretion. Violation of this custom will result in your exclusion from the Sadie Hawkins Week activities, and will be a matter of interest to the Sadie Hawkins Week Committee, which will be in session at 3:30 on February 4.

Invitations to the Sadie Hawkins dance will be mailed during the week to all Jaycees. The dance will be held on February 23.

With your co-operation, we will look forward to seeing you at the Sadie Hawkins dance, where we can dance and enjoy our bright prospects for a much as possible.

Lance and Shield Planning "Winchester Movie Party"

With the support of the Pi Beta Phi, Phi Mu, and Alpha Phi, and the cooperation of each sorority member, we are planning a winchester movie party to be held in the Union on February 22. Tickets will be sold at the door and will be free for those who help out.

The proceeds from this event will be used to support the Lance and Shield organization. We ask your cooperation in making this party a success.
