Annual Picnic Tomorrow

Bakersfield, May 10, 1945

BY BETTY JENKINS

Annual Picnic Tomorrow

Neale Park will be the scene of the annual Bakersfield Picnic, Friday, May 11, when all students gather immediately following the 4th period to bid farewell to graduating sophomores.

Swimming Featured

According to Loes Hanawalt, who is in charge of the affair, entertainment and a good time for everyone is the order of the day, with the use of the pool having been made possible by Coach Jack Front of the physical education department.

Beauty Contest

Each student is to bring his own lunch, but cakes and ice cream will be furnished by the student body. Eating will occupy the first portion of the day, followed by a program. A beauty contest will be the main attraction.

exec banquet to present musical speech program

Junior College executive officers will host at a buffet supper to be held Thursday, May 17, at the Bakersfield Hotel. Each officer now in office will tell of his work with speaking, singing, and folders. A summary written in poetry will be read by Carol Cunningham and Irene Chenoweth.

Attending the supper will be council members of last semester, three now in office, the officers for next term, and the group advisor, Mr. McKeen. All will meet at 6:30 p.m., and the program will begin at 6:45. A question and answer period will follow on April 15. An installation of the new office at which Miss Bird will present the gavel to the president will be held next fall after election of freshers.

exec buffet supper planned at mcKeag farm in casa loma

Diane McKeag, advisor for James' executive council, will host at an executive council buffet supper, on Tuesday, May 17, at 7:30. The program will begin at 8 a.m. The program will be held in the Bakersfield Park Inn.

The committee in charge of entertainment is Pat Miller, chairman; Julia Anderson, Paul Baldwin, and Keith Steddy. Betsy Ann Young will serve as hostess.

Banquet will run on regular schedule, but the students may stay as late as they wish.

Honor A Man

Unfortunately there are many students here at Bakersfield Junior College who do not know the name of any former Bakerspie student now serving in the armed forces. In order to remedy this situation the Service Page is printing this following list of names, chosen at random from the roster of service star members.

A few of these names were not represented by gold stars, who might like to be remembered in this issue are: Robert Austin, John W. Bremming, Thomas E. Cline, Earl Edwards, Lenore Estes, William Godin, Donald Harper, Leo Karpke, Joe Lindsey, Virgil R. Smith, John Simon, and George W. Sutherland.

Some of these missing in action are Greg Roberson, Frank Tomlinson, Bob Doby, Dan Nyhus, Herb Bagley, Glenn Doremus, Clinton Thomas, and Harold Cox.

More recent additions to the service group has been Alfred Anderson.

student body is divided into committees for bond drive

"At least one bond for each BJC man in service" is the goal that Paul Maxon, Ruth Duncan and Ray Kauffman, chairman of the Seventh War Loan Drive at Bakersfield Junior College, has set for the student body.

To accomplish this, the student body has been divided into 26 committees of seven or eight students, each in charge of a group chairman. Every student is on a committee, and is asked to sell as many percent as possible and sell as many bonds as he can in the name of some serviceman.

When the bond is sold, the purchaser signs the bond in the name of the serviceman to whom it is sent.

If the bond is not sold, the purchaser may purchase a bond in the name of any serviceman.

The committee chairman then takes the blank and the name of the serviceman to whom the bond is sent.

A copy of the bond, the name of the serviceman, and the amount of the bond will be recorded by the student body secretary.

OFFICIAL NOTICE

This issue of the RIF was originally designed to be a Freshman issue, with all freshmen staff members doing the work. However, there are only two or three returning members. Jean Hayes, yr. editor-to-be for next semester (and a mighty good one she'll be, too), worked as news editor with Lois Hanawalt advising, and also as an assistant editor. Gwen Stott worked as feature page editor, assisted by Barbara Baldwin. Other work was done by regular staff members.

THEY'RE TOPS

I think the staff this year has really been swell; everyone has worked almost, and nearly, just about always, stories came in on time. I'd like to thank my staff for their unfailing cooperation. Lois Hanawalt (the of Gettysburg) has really been a one-man army marshalling her reporter troops to bigger and better results. Barbara Baldwin (Herstoin No. 2) has tracked down every possible bit of information (in varying degrees of muddiness) and presented these "jewels" to your appetite. She has done a good job of arranging an attractive feature page with lots of interesting articles, too. Pat Blackard, our hard-working service page editor, has gone all-out in uncovering every possible phase of service news, from weddings of former students to cute (half-blue) jokes—GL variety, of course.

This reporter simply just mustn't be forgotten—have faithfully reported, written and made the news. Here's to you, too.

MRS. LEFFERWINS

CONTEST ABOUT

THE GERMAN SURRENDER

Winner of the "Yanks Reach Berlin" contest with Mrs. Eva Lefferton, who chose May 10 as the date of Germany's defeat. Said Mrs. Lefferton to Gill: "I used my secret formula of crossing Hitler's waving power, added my personal experience, multiplied by the Yanks' courage and ingenuity, then divided by the blush and swoon of a European winter. This gave me May 10. Easy, isn't it? Besides, May 10 is my birthday—" east of the push that shook the foundations of our world, changing the course of so many millions of lives.

OTHER genres which came close to May 10, V-E day, were May 9, submitted by Mrs. West, May 10, submitted by Betty Kratter; and April 23, ventured by Mary Combs.

in a number of Alpha Gamma Sigma and State Colleges. Anna Orr was "swearing off the year and in College.

BARBARA WALLACE

Barbara Wallace, who has been a student there for the past two semesters, was named winner of the annual Patrons' award for outstanding leadership. Miss Wallace will be engraved on the trophy along with her name and year. Barbara has been treasurer of the WAES, a member of License, Alpha Gamma Sigma, State College, and is the SGC's majorette. She is planning to enter the College of "The P supplier in July to take the criminology degree. After that the winning reporting and progress hopes to teach in Bakersfield City Schools in the fall.

Evaluate As Semester Closes

As the semester comes to a close, it is a good time to take stock and make plans for next year. At a time when everyone's supply of energy is pretty well depleted by the weight of finals, this opportunity may not be too welcome. To many, they are fatigued to the point of feeling that this will be their last year.

After the war, competition will be exceedingly keen and the man or woman with advanced education will have the best chance of recognition. In addition to this, an educational woman may remain useful for a longer time and consequently can look forward to a happier later life as he or she knows that there is nothing new or startling in the foregoing statement. These are all important enough for us to be reminded of their truth, particularly in the decisions regarding future educational plans is in the balance.

EXEC BANQUET INSTALLS

Fall Semester Leaders

Installation of the new student body officers was held last Thursday evening in the arcade room of the Bakerfield Club at 7:00 o'clock. Attendance were the exec council of last fall, the present semester, and the coming year.

The decorations were carried out in maroon and white flowers gracing the table. They were placed in bubble bowls filled with maroon water and the whole display was reflected in mirrors. In front of each place, as favors, were small executive style cards with the name cards attached to them with red ribbon. A large picture of the exec box, painted by Jamie Gordiner, was placed behind the head table.

The present council turned over its offices and explanatory folders to the accompanying of original verse and song.

Invited guests were Dr. and Mrs. Truett, Nelson, Miss Railey, and Mr. McFarland.
