The marriage of Miss Brenda Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Allen, 27 Flower Street, Bakersfield, California, to Mr. Allen's cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Allen, was performed in the Old Town Chapel on March 28th with Reverend Gaynor Snow officiating. The bride is the daughter of the of her father's widow, Mrs. Allen, and her only attendant was Mr. George Simpson, brother-in-law of the bride.

The ceremony was brief in a beautiful blue suit with purple accessories and carried the bride's bouquet.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Downey (former Miss Brenda Coates) and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Borger (formally known by their maiden name). Mr. and Mrs. Peter Stoddard, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Borger (former Peggy Pettee) and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hill (formally Margaret Rose) from Bakersfield, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Palmer (former Florence Easton), Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Steele (former Joyce Eastland), and Mr. and Mrs. David Van Sant (former Victoria McLean) from Naples, Tenn., and Mr. and Mrs. Willis Reiner (former Kenneth Puthy).

The couple plan to make their home in Pumpkin Center where Mr. Roberts will be the head of the county hospital, which is to be moved to that city in the very near future.

TRUE THINGS

A nation's months are like its teeth. The worse they are decayed, the more it hurts to touch them.
—George Bernard Shaw in "Liberty" around her shoulders and the front is the so-called "black hunter" hair-coif—it comes out with a long. Her dress is royal blue with a tone-tone MARY NUGENT'S gray plaid dress buttons down the front. It has a wide belt, three quarter-length sleeves and two large pockets. JOAN SOPELFIELD has made the majority of her clothes including her watermelon colored dress with the capped sleeves. The one-piece coat of black and red plaid, which IAN JAMES wore so attractively, has a big bow-tie at the neck.

RAIN WEAR

The weather of the "in-between" season is also very changeable. One day the sun is brightly shining, and the next day the rain comes down in torrents. Last week we had one of those rainy days, but the girls (those 81 heartbeats) made the best of it. JOYCE WELLS ignored the glooming weather by donning a gray ensemble of black and gold styled after the fashionable battle-jacket and plain skirt. The black jacket is the latest word in fashion—it is the wrap-around skirt. The gold blouse has two small pockets on it, and the sleeves are tight to the wrists. JOAN PEACOCK faced this disagreeable weather in a black raincoat. When weather announces spring, I'll be back with more news about fashions of the upcoming "smart set."

Contributions and Quotes From Far (Contributed)

The latest Gallup poll — "only 30 million American housewives complain that dressing is the chief fault of their husbands."

One wonders how closely these women were questioned. It's a safe bet that most of the 30 million would sing a song something like this:

"Come tramp up my kitchen and meddle with my rags."

 Forget to hang clothes on the nail, and every so often, but don't stop it at the tavern for all.

Leave rings on the bathtub, the toothpaste knocked, and when I speak, make a raucous report, I'll love you forever, but promised you wouldn't.

Scratch off the box for a quarter. Our tenth anniversary, darling, forget.

"My birthday, skip over as well. I'll give you my kisses as long as you live."

Every club and group seems to be having a convention. It may be that they just haven't had the time or the opportunity to get together and talk over "continents of problems." But, again, they may be short of emotions—like the huge hats in liberated female sentiments of sphinges.

GREETINGS

If each and every student could have a message in the Rip, I'm sure a majority would send their very best wishes to Mr. Learche, Esther Smith, and Mr./Sir. We hope you'll all be luck soon.

RAJ PIES

"Now you've seen those three pictures drawn in the main hall. I'm sorry that they affairs were so much something to remember. The combination of friendliness, food and just plain fun really got the attention of the outstanding events of the spring season."

HELP WANTED

A student body election is in the offing, and the field seems pretty well crowded in at one race. That, it is naturally, the post of Rip Editor. Any freshman—male or female—who leaves to the post—"It reminded that the post has certain requirements and is urged to get in contact with the editor to find out whether or not he is eligible.

CHAIN OF EVENTS

This age may go down in history under one of many different names, but I would like to wish you your Convention Year."
