State Collegians Hold Basketball Send-off Dinner

One of the outstanding functions of the State Collegians this semester was the send-off dinner held in the faculty lounge on Tuesday, January 28, at 5:30. The food, served by the players in the club, was of course, and excellent. Each of the members of the club brought a salad and a dish of his own making, and the meal was well considered and appreciated.

NEW MOVIES

Spain's "The Spanish Bride" starring Paul Muni is now in the theatre. The movie is directed by Frank Capra and is a romantic comedy. The film features a love story between two young people.

Beatlemania has come to Bakersfield! The Beatles are set to perform at the new venue, The Forum. The concert is sold out, and fans are excited to see the famous band live on stage.

Welcome home

Bakingsfield Coca-Cola Bottling Company, of Bakersfield.
The inn looked cold and mysterious, and the traveler was not too anxious to spend the night there. A sinister-looking fellow showed him his room, and that looked haunted. The traveler turned to the man and said: "By the way, nothing strange has ever happened here has it?"

"Not in fifty years," was the reply.

"That's good. What happened then?"

"A gentleman who spent the night here appeared for breakfast the next morning."

Welcome

It was nice to see Mr. Jorgensen back on the campus after his illness. It did, however, give us the chance to meet Mrs. Jorgensen, who took over our department.

Best Wishes

Seem to be the order of the day. Next week Emma Gibson and Marcella Mac Reid have made known their engagements. Emma is to become the bride of Louis Bayes in August. Lois is now resident to North Carolina, where she will await further orders from the Marines.

—Marcella Mac and Lyle G. Holmes have announced a definite date for their wedding. Lyle is in Phoenix, establishing a district branch of the Bank of Arizona.
