Renegade Net Stars Defeat Porterville

Net stars of Bakersfield Junior College blanked the Porterville Junior College team at the freshmen court on Saturday, winning in five straight games, according to Miss Joe Hays, who was in charge of the match. The last game was played on the singles position for the Renegades and defeated the ranking Porterville player without the loss of a game. Davina McKay and Miss Sticker played aggressive tennis against the women's doubles, showed too much strength for the opponents and won handsomely.

The following players competed for the Renegades: between lithium Wallace of the Renegades, and Phyllis, Hansen, lasted two hours and thirty minutes for the number 1 doubles, and Wallace combined considerable reserves and strategy to win four games straight in the 1st set and the match.

In a singles match, Kleiner Bloomer, top high school star, overwhelmed Porterville's second ranking player, John Carlson, 4-6, 6-2.

ISA Gather For Potluck and Meet

Junior college chapter of Junior Statement of America met Saturday for a potluck meeting in the Associated Oil Company building, Diablo Valley, was in charge of the refreshments. Lorena Jenks directed members to bring snacks and chicken pies. Apple pies and ice cream were purchased by the group.

Don Cook, president, was in charge of the meeting, held following the dinner. The organization was invited by Mr. and Mrs. McKee to meet at their house on May 14, the regular scheduled meeting of the club.

Clean-up and the constitution of the local chapter was introduced and adopted that "Membership of any member of this chapter should be automatically terminated for failure to meet the terms of office, and shall have accumulated at least 20 units of work." The amendment, said the word "immediately" from the paragraph giving the qualifications for the office of student body president, pronounced that the amended paragraph, if passed, would read as follows: "The president shall have accumulated in two semesters preceding his term of office, and shall have accumulated at least 20 units of work."

In order to present the arguments for and against this amendment, the members have been asked two students, representatives of the junior body, to submit articles stating their views.

OPPOSED

Did Van Win Vanek ask to become a member if his twenty-year-old daughter, after she was asked for marriage, had become accustomed to the ways of the day?

"Yes", she said on the proposed amendment to the constitution changing the qualifications of president to any student who has attended BJC for two semesters at any time. Experience gained in a period of time for the office of the office may become obsolete and be of little value to the immediate problem. Returning to school after any length of time requires reacquainting the office to give the office in these circumstances, so that a candidate who is opposing this feel that this young woman immediately preceding the office of president should give the office to the office. The square deal the students are asking for was considered as such in the years before the war and if carried on, will be considered a square deal in the future. In all fairness to the students, the students continue their studies at BJC for two consecutive years, the duty of president after the completion of their studies, so that they may be considered for the office of president of the junior body.

In Favor

There has been an amendment to the constitution to increase the student body, by your student body council. This proposed amendment will make the position of Student Body President.

As one student so aptly put, "We aren't as naïve as the Plata Square Deal." And with this thought in mind, go to the polls and vote "yes" on this amendment.

Election Issue Argued

At the regular meeting of the Executive Council held last Monday, an amendment to the student body constitution was introduced and read and amended by the council for subjection to the students at a special session to be held on Tuesday, May 7. The constitution as it now stands says that "The President shall be in attendance for two semesters IMMEDIATELY preceding the term of office." As you can all readily see this one word, insignificant as it seems, definitely and unjustly limits the field of candidates for the office of president in the forthcoming election.

Clearly there is no distinction made between veterans and non-veterans. The war is over and we are again students and as such should be entitled to the privilege of seeking and holding student body offices if duly nominated and elected. Circumstances definitely beyond our control eliminated the possibility of our having been in attendance the last two semesters. Are we to be disqualified for having served in the armed forces?

Students of Bakersfield Junior College that is not true and which your constitution was enacted. It was enacted to give you protection and in order to make possible to assure you a field of candidates who could best serve your interests. As the constitution now stands it prevents you from making them available in the future to the students of campus.

It has been suggested that "The president's past record should be an insurmountable obstacle that would bar of an objection to a candidate, and who can deny that they proved themselves capable of meeting that problem in a definite and business like manner?"

It has been suggested that the veteran has not had time to read, "just himself to the routines of everyday, school life and to the participation in social activities. For an answer here, you can study his scholarship record, his participation in athletics, and his definite interest in social activities."

It has been said that this issue affects a minority and constitutes a majority change in the constitution. This issue affects the entire student body, and if the student body is a minority, then it is a majority. I agree that the amendment will constitute a major change in the constitution. But who, unless he be a die-hard, is unwilling to accept a change if it represents improvement? With the coming of our first full peacetime schedule, scholar, social and athletic, the time is ripe to make any feeling that the veteran is not a student of BJC in the full sense of the word is not true. We are interested in student body activities and the betterment of our school and do desire equal opportunities to participate in the holding of all student body offices.

As one veteran so aptly put, "We aren't as naïve as the Plata Square Deal." And with this thought in mind, go to the polls and vote "yes" on this amendment.

Kay Associates Announce Camp

A recruiting campaign has just been launched for 100 young men and women of varying ages and social and economic backgrounds, who are outstanding in their community's civic and social affairs, to participate in the "Encampment for Citizenship," a five-week workshop on citizenship sponsored by the American Ethical Union as part of its 50th Anniversary program.

Opening on July 1 at the 14-acre Fieldston School in Riverdale, New York, for a six week period, the "Encampment for Citizenship" is a five week program in which each year will bring together two hundred youths from 13 to 22 years of age in a program of self-government and cooperative living. "Encampment for Citizenship" headquarters are located at 2 West 64th Street, New York City.

Youths, recommended to the "Encampment for Citizenship" by churches, schools, farm groups, clubs and unions throughout the United States as having shown interest and leadership ability, will together study such problems as will affect their communities in the years ahead. They will work in planning educational, cultural, social, and political programs and perform necessary "squad duties"—life-saving and other responsibilities.

Studies of natural resources and how increased knowledge can promote a higher, standard of living; international affairs, labor and minority problems, and economics, will be part of the curriculum. These studies will be supplemented by seminars and lectures given by leading experts. Guest speakers from State and Federal agencies, professional enthusiasts and civic leaders will appear periodically to discuss with the student audience today's domestic and international events.

Also scheduled are tours through New York's leading: newspaper plants, government offices, museums, concert halls, theaters and excursions along the city's harbors. Recreation and athletics will be held at Fieldston School's sports fields, tennis courts, swimming pool and recreation halls.

Rip Staff Is In Dilemma

Office of the Renegade Rip has at its location a converted bedroom on the main corridor of the JC building. This former junior's closet has served as headquarters for this sheet for several years. In the southern wall of the room is an absolutely useless and non-functioning window. It cannot even be closed. Ours, it is not even broken. It was once suggested that we wash the window, but at that point it was discovered that, on the other side of the window is a blank and quite immovable wall right against the wall containing our window. This condition allows the window only a few inches in which to open.

The present staff decided that this apparently useless space would be as well closed and so, with the help of a six inch wide window was pulled and pushed until it could be fitted.

Here comes the cross of the problem, the hoists of this dilemma. When one tries to open the door into the office, one must, through, with all his might for, of one's Sagan's physical students explained, there is no place for the air inside the office to go to permit the door to open. Similarly, when one wishes to close the door, such a vacuum is created inside the room that force must be used in order to close the recreation hall.

The room is 10 by 20 by 10 feet. The office is 6 by 10 feet, the windows are 2 by 2 feet. When the wind is not blowing, the windows are almost useless. One has a better chance of hearing the outside than the inside. This condition is not healthy.

How are we going to measure our air?

From east to west the Rip office measures 11 feet, and from north to south it is 7 1/2 feet with a maximum of 56 square feet of floor space. This means that there is no place for us to store our books, maps, and more than on our shelf. This space is used for storing all our books, maps, and also for a desk. The desk is 4 by 4 feet, and we also have a filing cabinet that is 4 by 6 feet. This space is used for storing all our books, maps, and also for a desk. The desk is 4 by 4 feet, and we also have a filing cabinet that is 4 by 6 feet.
Jensen Awarded Patrons' Trophy

At the assembly held in J.C. 111 on Friday, April 28, Alene Jensen received the Junior College Patrons' Trophy which is awarded each year to the most outstanding student by the P.T.A. The names of the three highest of these are submitted to the final ballot and the one receiving the highest vote is the one who is awarded the trophy.

She has proved herself very capable of her job and when she is given something to do you can make sure that it will be done and done well.

Alene has a 250 point average of 'A's and has been a member of Alpha Gamma Sigma for the past two semesters. She plans to transfer to Mills College next year to finish her training to be a kindergarten teacher. Her single life is fulfilled by her school and her social activities. In the conference tournament for Central California, the J.C.C. tennis team won with Vitallia for top honors. The men's singles event was won by Donnie McKeen and the men's doubles by Melanie Davis and Dick Smith. The conference commissioner will decide whether duplicate trophies will be awarded to the winning schools or whether a playoff between the schools will be held.

In winning the singles McKeen proved to be the "first man" by playing 3 matches and a total of 72 games. His toughest opponent was put in the line up against the veteran Vitallia in a match which went 7-6, 6-2, 6-2. Not yet up to the usual form, the Bob Lass Delta Omega in the next round lost to Donnie McKeen in the finals against Bob Black 6, 6-0.

Melanie Davis and Dick Smith showed excellent teamwork to win the women's doubles title. Vitallia in the first round, 6-4, 6-1, Black 5-7, 6-4, in the second round, 6-1, 6-1, and Porterville in the final, 6-1, 6-1.

China Piggie Bank Found In Lounge

The question of what it is and what is it for has come from the lounge. Nowhere was it more evident than on the floor under the lounge on May 2. The thing in question was a white china piggy bank. Now, Frank Munro, the person most involved, insists that this will bring back many memories of his own bank when he was a child (not that many of us are older today).

Frank Taylor has 2 playfully picked up the pig and turned it upside down—and received one copper coin for his effort. After all, he did shop pennies into it. Jimmy Wehren, who is now in Texas, would probably have appropriated the bank by now. Frank Munro playfully and skillfully turned mum's nose to his campaign fund—and Mr. McKay has the "shark fund".

Perhaps, if the little guy could speak for himself, he would likely tell us that he is lost or something different. However, Betty Kecker took the bank and explained why the last was there. So everything is fine and the pupilled piggies are no longer goggled about the now addition to the lounge's white china "piggie back."

Council Holds Annual Banquet

Executive council of BJC held its annual banquet on Thursday, May 16, at 6:30 p.m. All newly elected officers and those who held student body offices this past year, not for their traditional social gathering.

Paul Maxwell, outgoing president, was in charge of the program. He introduced each member of the previous council with an original, if badly phrased, verse. As he was introduced, each officer sang a song or read a poem preceding his officer to his table, wherein student body officers received the following honors:

"Fashions of the Ball"
That's the thing you have to do,
Give them something new, but make them
Think, it's something new Again, rejoice, again, again.
And don't forget to bring up the date.

Reynolds Stadium was in charge of decorations and those who helped them were Pat Wills, Jan Hayes, and Don Cuss. The theme around which the annual banquet was centered was "A night on Broadway" in N.Y. and L.A.

Eleanor Hall, president of the student body, sent a cordial invitation to all the guests, more than 25 of whom were elected to the council. Miss Patricia Wells.

MARGARET MORRIS
Receiving the Zonta scholarship was Margaret Morris, who will attend University of California. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris.

The presentation of the two P.T.A. awards was made to Mrs. Anne Johnson and Miss Eleanor Hall.

Honored by the American Association of University Women was Miss Patricia Wells.
