New Developments
'Collos, Terriff'

It's unusual to find a student group that has been involved in a controversy for several months and then suddenly begins to announce, almost simultaneously, plans for the future. This is true of the California University Federation (CUF), which has been the subject of much discussion and speculation in recent weeks. While the federation has not made any official announcements, it is known that several members are preparing to start a new organization, which they hope will be able to continue some of the activities of the federation

New Improvements? "Fooya!"

It seems only fitting that the Rip should make a statement on policy toward the new "improvements" advocated by the School Board and the faculty. We do not wish to be "hosty" about the whole affair, but feel it our absolute duty to express our attitude on the matter.

In the first place, who wants a bar or grill in the JC? In the second place, we feel that the food quality and the atmosphere of the place will remain unchanged, and this is by far the most important factor.

The new student lounge area that has been announced for $5000 will not be of much use to most students. The price of a drink in the bar, even if it is of good quality, will be prohibitive for most students. The student lounge is supposed to be a place of relaxation, but it is doubtful whether this will be possible.

Students Profess Disbelief of Crime

Officer W.S. Smith, a member of the Berkeley Police Department, was interviewed by the Rip staff last week about the recent crime wave. He stated that the majority of the crimes are not serious and that the police are not able to prevent them. He also mentioned that the police are not able to catch the criminals.

BJC Instructors Riot at Institute;
City Jail Receives New Inmates

Bakersfield City Jail is crowded today due to "interference" of BJC instructors at teachers' institute last Friday.

The various groups of teachers have been meeting at the institute for the last couple of days. The instructors were upset by the decision of the administration to have the students involved in the riot. Some instructors have been suspended or placed on restrictions.

The riot was caused by a demonstration by the students over the suspension of several instructors. The riot lasted for several hours, and the police had to be called in to restore order.

A plane tragedy occurred last night on the campus of the institute. Two instructors were killed, and several others were injured.

"New Orleans Women" Is Fiery Saga of Racy, Violent New Orleans

There is no way to escape the story of New Orleans women in the history of American culture, the late biographical novel, "New Orleans Women," by Muriel Constant, is a telling tale of the city. The novel, written by New Orleans to paint the city and the lives of some of the women who have been described.

Some have called the story of Muriel Constant the most romantic and realistic in the nation's history. It begins in the early 19th century with the birth of Muriel Constant. Her parents, John and Sarah Constant, were both well-to-do families from the French Quarter.

The story then moves to New Orleans in the 1830s, a period of great social and economic change. Muriel Constant, now a young woman, is forced to make a difficult decision: to marry a man she loves or to pursue her own desires.

Muriel Constant's life is filled with passion, adventure, and danger. She is forced to choose between her love for her husband and her own happiness. In the end, she chooses to follow her heart and live her own life.

"New Orleans Women" is a powerful novel that captures the spirit of the city and the women who made it great.

"New Orleans Women" is published by Ballantine Books and is available wherever books are sold. It is a must-read for anyone interested in the history of the South and the women who shaped it.

Council Passes Resolutions Against Tenney Bills

Bills Say No Sex, Politically, Religious Subjects Be Taught

Education, as envisaged by the men who drafted the Constitution and as practiced with ever increasing speed by later generations, not only allows but makes obligatory for both the teaching and the student support and removal of all tables of forbidden intellectual issues. Such is one portion of the resolutions drawn upon and passed by Radcliffe faculty professors board last Wednesday afternoon.

These resolutions passed in opposition to the so-called Tenney Bills, No. 1029, sec. 1029, 1030, and 1031, and section 8273 now pending in the California legislature.

The first bill is one which advocates that three men from the Senate appointed by the State Senate, shall, with the approval of the Senate, prepare a list of all educational problems never to be discussed.

Plan "Merger" With BHS, EB

Scheduled to be one of the most outstanding events of the spring semester, the AWS Box Social held in the PG G-8 last room last Thursday evening, hit on all time low for social events on our college campus.

Since the AHS is the largest campus social organization comprised of all men students, a large turnout was expected.
But when the tea couple had arrived for the event, there were 80 present.

The bathroom was exquisitely decorated in the school colors of red and white.

Food on Students; Food Out!

Surely there are more than 19 women enrolled at BJC who weren't busy on Tuesday afternoon, as only 19 showed up for the AWS spring picnic at Zephyr park last Tuesday afternoon.

The girls and gals are always complaining about no activties for all of the students and yet, when a picnic is scheduled, posts are made, the event announced, and finally the time comes,
only a few loyal supporters turn out for the event.

Now, we ask you, what do you want?
