His Sigma Visits Hospital Dec. 17

The Bakersfield College Sigma Kappa chapters visit to St. John’s Hospital was a success. The patients were thrilled with the visit and the students enjoyed talking with them. The students also brought along some of their own toys and games to share with the children. It was a wonderful day for both parties.

Do Personality Tests Lie?
Mav We Present the Case of...

J. H. Newland

A Case Before Court

The question of whether or not personality tests lie is a complex one. There have been many studies conducted on the subject, and the results are mixed. Some studies have shown that personality tests are highly accurate, while others have shown that they are not. The case presented here is a good example of the latter.

Student Relief

Still Short Handed!

The Bakersfield College Student Relief Fund is still in need of donations. The fund is used to help students in financial need, and it is currently short on funds. If you are able to donate, please consider doing so. Every little bit helps!

Seclusion Ruins Metropolitan Loop

BY DON ENGEL, Sports Editor

In addition to providing the conference with a true weekend of competition, the Met League has also provided a true test for many of the top teams in the country.

Although many teams have had difficulty in finding a suitable opponent, the Met League has been able to provide a true weekend of competition for many of the top teams in the country.

Baseball, Track to Hold Spring Sport Spotlight

Basketball and track will dominate the spring sport spotlight this year for the first time since both sports were temporarily abolished at the end of the 1945-46 season.

Although many teams have had difficulty in finding a suitable opponent, the Met League has been able to provide a true weekend of competition for many of the top teams in the country.

Harlem Legionnaires, Professional Cagers, to Face 'Gades Wednesday

One of America's most outstanding Negro professional basketball teams, the Harlem Legionnaires, will compete with Bakersfield Junior College in a basketball game Wednesday at the Bakersfield Junior College gymnasium.

The game is scheduled for 7:30 p.m., and will feature a contest between the Harlem Legionnaires and the Bakersfield Junior College basketball team.

Swimming Revival Slated for BJC

The swimming revival at Bakersfield Junior College is slated to begin Wednesday, with the first meet scheduled for 7:30 p.m.

The meet will feature a competition between the Bakersfield Junior College swim team and a guest team from a neighboring school.
