Reorganization

Effective next issue, the Renegade Rip is to be entirely reorganized. Further outward appearances will not have changed in the reader, but the paper itself will be a different institution for the students who produce it. A complete revamping of the entire publication has been accomplished in an effort to produce a better newspaper, one which will be more fully in accord with the ideals of college journalism.

The life of the Rip is and always has been service to the school, the student body, and the community. The newspaper is operated by the students and for the students; any attempt to create a greater journalistic efficiency, then, will always be more fully in accord with the desired goal of service.

Semester Swing to follow game

To give an added spark to the beginning of the new semester, the executive council has planned a student body dance ("Semester Swing"), to be held after the Spring game, Friday, February 6, in the Gerald Adams orphanage.

Four drummers, four fiddles, and four harmonicas will make up the band. The majorettes and drill team will also be featured.

Mary Harrington, Alvina Payn, and Lois Hendricks were selected as the student's trio for the "Swing." There will be a dance contest for the popularest swing and for the popularest dance.

RENEGADES WALLOW TARTARS 62-56

Locals to play Taft Saturday
BC squad rated over Cougars

The Bakersfield College basketball team will make its final home appearance Saturday night at 8 when the Caucasian team tangles with its traditional west side rivals from Taft JC.

In an earlier game this season the Renegades trounced the Old City squad by a wide margin, and all the dope points toward a replay performance, although the Cougars have proven themselves to be a dangerous foe and capable of upsetting the favored local team.

Played by a sharpshooting forward, Al Aaron, Taft has a well-balanced squad which makes up in fighting spirit what it lacks in tangible.

The reason and white hearts, after settling a year comes over last week end, with probably stick to the same start¬ ing lineup used since most of the key players from the earlier contest have been retained.

At the center post high center Earl Gifford gets the ball, followed down the grand stands by "bull dog" Paul Goodrich and Bill Shellen, while "Fred" Larry Schroeder and Jack Brosio operate from the forward positions.

Most next week will mark the close of the regular BC basket¬
ing season with the Cougars, having played away from home. The final contest is expected to be played against San Fernando, a victory for the local squad would send the Renegades to the playoffs in high style.

"Fred" Larry Schroeder passed on and claimed to his former teammates that Ted Gifford, who is a member of the varsity team, will score a high total.

In an interview with his former teammates, the postman claimed that Tel's team was good, and indicated that his team will throw down a level for the Taft contest. Patrons of Our Advertisers

Deal-Visa last loss in 28 starts
BY ELMER PRATT

Coach Victor "Bert" Epkonig's Renegade quintet really did a good job of scoring an upset when they walloped a Gades, 8-2, on the road last Wednesday evening.
The loss dealt to the Tafties by the Gades was only their d second in 28 contests, this season.
The only two teams other than the HS squad that have been beaten by the Gades this season are point happy cagers are San Miguel and Long Beach BC.

Getting back to the contest itself, the Tafties found the range impenetrable and built up an 8-2 advantage before three thirty of the final inning when the Renegades began to click and managed to knot the count at 8-8. A few minutes later however, they forged ahead momentarily to 8-9, but only to have Visalia 72, 13 and all gone and then also lead the Gades at batliness to 18.

Following the interruption noted the Tafties took hold, tie up their lead until they led 10-9 at the end of the third inning.

A deal-Visa in all, however, the Renegades outlaw golden inches to the series and will attempt to beat the Gades in theirs next contest at home this next week.

Leading the Renegades among Visalia\'s leading scorers was the HANKEN, (189-2-190)

Coach Epkonig said, "We certainly are pleased with our perfor¬ mance against the Tafties, and we are looking forward to the next game since we are in a position to win three veter¬ ateur games in a row."

Baldwin lost to Coalinga

Coast Coaches Union daily today that the issue of Paul Baldwin's suspension from the local league, which is considered by the Renegades to be unfair and unjust, should be reopened.

Tom Baldwin, an assistant coach of the Coast League team in Coalinga, has been accused by the Renegades of using illegal personal tactics against them in the local league.

Last year Baldwin tussled with Ray Archer to get the Visalia Union in the game and on one occasion was seen to cause some confusion on the field, which resulted in a foul ball.

Baldwin denied this charge and stated that he would rather face a fine than play against the Gades.

Last year Baldwin took the field against the Gades and won the game.

The main difficulty between the two teams is the personal tactics used by Baldwin.

In a comment to his local press\'s question as to whether the incident would be repeated, Baldwin stated that he would rather face a fine than play against the Gades.

The incident was reported to the Visalia Police Department, who are investigating the matter.

The final decision on baldon's suspension is expected from the Visalia Police Department in the near future.
