New students enrolling today must 'follow all directions'

For thetos of the semester, freshmen have the hardest time of all getting acquainted with the new surroundings. First they have the registration routine, then the classes, and finally they have to find their way around.

To help the freshmen, the college has decided to start a new feature in the student newspaper: 'Pick-ups.' The pick-ups will be written by students who have been here for a while and will be distributed to the new students.
