Noted documents on display here

As a result of a drawing held last month among Fresno State College students, along with two instructors, will be added to the list of Freedom Train students when it visits this area. Two of these students will score the train at 9 a.m. tomorrow. Every college student who is interested in attending the Freedom Train will be seated on the basis of average academic record and test scores of the students who will visit the train. The early prep aid will be flown from some 80 cities who signed the college office. Students whose names were drawn are Daisy Brown, Bob Nolan, Muriel Bourg, Warren Minter, Mae Greene, Virginia Cook, John Green, and Margaret Sugih. Instructors who will accompany the students are Wilbur Grant, Bob Nolan, and Mrs. Thompson. Instructors who will accompany the students are Wilbur Grant, Bob Nolan, and Mrs. Thompson. Gades play Santa Monica; tie for second place looms

SPORTS

Locals rated even with Corsair five

After having three successful tours each during which they tied and beat Santa Monica teams, locals from the 1933-34 team began their tour of Santa Monica clubs tonight when the Gades arrived at Santa Monica. The Corsair five, which also tied and beat the Gades in their own competition, is rated highly by the locals who have been watching closely for the contest between the two teams.

BC debaters take second place in Phi Rho Pi meet

With over 10,000 board members and thousands of documents, the BC debate team is preparing for the upcoming Phi Rho Pi meet. The team is expected to do well in the competition, which is held every year to promote international friendship and understanding.

Seven BC students have been selected to attend the southland conclave, an annual event that brings together students from southern California colleges. The conclave is expected to be a great opportunity for the students to network and learn from other students in the region.

Dorothy Ellis, a prominent figure in the community, has announced that a juke box jive will be held at the Reding hall on Saturday night to raise funds for the BC lounge. The dance, which will feature live entertainment, is expected to attract a large crowd.

Executive council has refused to grant a charter to the BSU group, which has been active in promoting diversity and inclusion on campus. The council's decision has sparked protests from the group's members and supporters.

Wheeler, a popular speaker, is scheduled to speak to the students today. His talk is expected to be well-received and is likely to be followed by a lively discussion.
