Compton, Salinas on '48 grid-card

Football players of Bakersfield College will begin their ten-week tour of the schedules that have been shaping up for the past 48 months this fall with a game with the Compton High School gridmen.

Playing under the direction of Coach Dick Turner, the Bakersfield College team will begin its tour of the schedules that have been shaping up for the past 48 months this fall with a game with the Compton High School gridmen.

The schedule facing the Gridmen this year may prove a test of their ability to meet the challenge of the best teams in the state. The tour will be in three-week stages, with the second and third stages starting late this month and in early October, respectively.
Rip policy for 1948

By Raymond Frank, Rip staff writer

It has been an active year on the campus, so far as the activities of the Rip are concerned, with many interesting events and developments taking place. The organization of the student body has been strengthened with a special group of editors and writers.

Santa Barbara Adobes' ready

The Santa Barbara Adobes are one of the many student groups that have been active on the campus this year. They have been preparing for their annual dance, which is scheduled for next month. The Adobes are a group of students who are interested in Hispanic culture and traditions.

A cappella choir to be featured

A cappella choir is another group that has been active on the campus. They have been rehearsing for their upcoming performance, which is scheduled for next week. The choir is composed of students who are interested in music and singing.

College women make Fourth of July special

College women have been active in organizing activities for the Fourth of July. They have planned a picnic and a parade, which will be held on campus. These events are always popular with the students and are eagerly anticipated.

Winter is coming

The weather is starting to turn colder, and the students are preparing for the coming winter months. They are busy shopping for winter clothes and other necessities.

Rittenhouse sings "Songs for Your Soul"

Rittenhouse is a popular singer on campus, and he has been singing "Songs for Your Soul," a collection of songs that are meant to inspire and uplift the students.

Harrison's

Harrison's is a popular store on campus, and it has been carrying a wide variety of clothing and accessories. They have been offering special deals and discounts to students, which has made them a popular destination.

Stanley's

Stanley's is another popular store on campus, and it has been carrying a wide variety of clothing and accessories. They have been offering special deals and discounts to students, which has made them a popular destination.

A note from the director

The director has been sending out notes to the students, reminding them of important events and deadlines. These notes are sent out via email and are always timely and relevant.

Rip staff works

The Rip staff has been working hard to ensure that the newspaper is published on time. They have been working on stories and articles, and they are always available to answer questions and provide assistance.

A New Englander

A New Englander is a popular store on campus, and it has been carrying a wide variety of clothing and accessories. They have been offering special deals and discounts to students, which has made them a popular destination.

Knights to hold dance October 1

The Knights are scheduled to hold a dance on October 1. This is an annual event, and it is always popular with the students.

A portrait of Jeanne

Jeanne is a popular student on campus, and she has been featured in a portrait. This portrait is on display in the student center, and it is a popular attraction.

The Renegades in Their First Game of the Season at Salinas

The Renegades have been preparing for their first game of the season, which is scheduled for next week. They are looking forward to the game and are hoping to start the season off on a high note.

The New Westinghouse Portable Radio

The New Westinghouse Portable Radio is available at Weill's. It is a popular choice among students, and it is designed for easy portability.

Helen Harper

Helen Harper is a popular student on campus, and she has been involved in a number of activities. She is always busy and can be seen in many different places around campus.
Grid season opens tonight against Salinas

Renebales drilling for Santa Maria

With the final contest only three weeks distant, Coach Bert Robinson has had the Renegade offense working hard all week on preparing for Friday's contest. The first game October 1 is a preliminary of this year's Renegade offense.

Bert Robinson has stated that he was well pleased with the squad. Some of the most outstanding features of the practice were the running game and the passing game. The defense, he said, showed some very good play by several candidates for the starting eleven. In the practice, five running backs and three wide receivers were used, indicating the importance the coaches are placing on this phase of the game.

To date there are four games planned for the Renegades with their home games scheduled in the following manner: October 1—Santa Maria at Bakersfield; October 16—Paso Robles at Bakersfield; November 12—Bakersfield Valley at Bakersfield; preliminary to Bakersfield-Fresno State game; November 3—San Luis Obispo away.

The other two teams that may play against the Renegades are those from Chaffey and East Los Angeles.

Charley Sarver shines in Santa Clara game

Charley Sarver, former quarterback of the Los Angeles University five, scored his first major contribution to the Pacific naval training material this week when he scored a field goal and two touchdowns to lead the Pacific naval football team to a 14-0 victory over Santa Clara University in a prep game.

Bert Robinson impressed by the field boy. Sarver, the ex-Frisco back, was given a starting position by the Bear squad in the Pacific naval game in the White House today. Tomorrow the Cal opener with play their third prep game, this time against the Navy at Baltimore, Maryland.

East LA upsets Glendale squad

A surprising East Los Angeles C.C. eleven scored an 18-14 upset victory over Glendale college in a football game held Saturday at Glendale stadium.

The East LA Raiders will play Metropolitan Conference Saturday at the Metropolitan conference.

The winning score came on the opening pass through the pass that vaulted into the hands of Joe Garcia, the reserve quarterback.

Although the neighborhood was safe by local hooligans in the second quarter, a 15-yard touchdown.

This was the first Glendale season when the team scored on a pass play.

Out of the ten games, four, four tied, and four dropped.

Despite all reports, the team that came in to Leadership in the southern city, the most strength of the new season, the Raiders proved to be a rugged test with Garcia, when he meets the Eagles on Saturday, October 15.

The following Friday, the locals went East Los Angeles on Griffith Field in their second league battle. The hounds of East LA snipped the Griffith back with every chance they had to win a game. The second quarter was their point off in winning form.

The best part of the game was the second half, when the Raiders began to show their speed and skill. East LA scored its second touchdown on a pass from Garcia, who was touched up by a defender.

The Raiders showed their skill in the second half, when they scored a second touchdown on a run by Garcia. The Raiders made a touchdown on a pass from Garcia, who was touched up by a defender.

The best part of the game was the second half, when the Raiders began to show their speed and skill. East LA scored its second touchdown on a pass from Garcia, who was touched up by a defender.

The Raiders showed their skill in the second half, when they scored a second touchdown on a run by Garcia. The Raiders made a touchdown on a pass from Garcia, who was touched up by a defender.

The best part of the game was the second half, when the Raiders began to show their speed and skill. East LA scored its second touchdown on a pass from Garcia, who was touched up by a defender.

The best part of the game was the second half, when the Raiders began to show their speed and skill. East LA scored its second touchdown on a pass from Garcia, who was touched up by a defender.

The best part of the game was the second half, when the Raiders began to show their speed and skill. East LA scored its second touchdown on a pass from Garcia, who was touched up by a defender.

The best part of the game was the second half, when the Raiders began to show their speed and skill. East LA scored its second touchdown on a pass from Garcia, who was touched up by a defender.

The best part of the game was the second half, when the Raiders began to show their speed and skill. East LA scored its second touchdown on a pass from Garcia, who was touched up by a defender.

The best part of the game was the second half, when the Raiders began to show their speed and skill. East LA scored its second touchdown on a pass from Garcia, who was touched up by a defender.

The best part of the game was the second half, when the Raiders began to show their speed and skill. East LA scored its second touchdown on a pass from Garcia, who was touched up by a defender.

The best part of the game was the second half, when the Raiders began to show their speed and skill. East LA scored its second touchdown on a pass from Garcia, who was touched up by a defender.

The best part of the game was the second half, when the Raiders began to show their speed and skill. East LA scored its second touchdown on a pass from Garcia, who was touched up by a defender.

The best part of the game was the second half, when the Raiders began to show their speed and skill. East LA scored its second touchdown on a pass from Garcia, who was touched up by a defender.

The best part of the game was the second half, when the Raiders began to show their speed and skill. East LA scored its second touchdown on a pass from Garcia, who was touched up by a defender.