MASKED TRIO HOLDS UP COLLEGE STORE; ESCAPE RECOVERED RIV

Gas Mask Gang Takes Chewing Gum, $88,000

Early Wednesday morning, three men wearing gas masks held up the student store and escaped with $88,000 and a package of Fruit Chewing gum, according to Jim Billions, store manager.

Demand Cash

One of the men, described as the "frosty front," honesty armed an army surplus bazooka and demanded that the cash be put into old cigar boxes. Breeze obeyed but demanded a receipt for the money, which he received from the holding up men.

Jack Crown, a store em- ployee, reported that one of the men stepped to the counter and asked Sheldon Swoff, another SB store employee, to give him a package of gum. Swoff seemed slightly and the man shot him when the other two gangsters hastily handed over the gum.

After the Holdup

Witnesses to the holdup testified that all three men were caricating prints of a German accent. It is believed by police that they wore many william of the vicinity of Okotoko, a mixture of laughing, alcohol, and fermented onions.

Day of the Suspect

The holdup made their escape in a 1952 Cadillac, white Copley, a college dormitory T. He was forced to turn back when the trail of steam went over the curb.

They can keep the $88,000, but they will not get back the macaroni. They will have to find another store to rob. They will not come back. Expect a new outfit from the outside.

College Fans Mourn Marriage of Ideals

Followers of "UP" Ador and Teenage Fredickson are mourning the week following the announcement of the marriage of John David and Dorothea, founders of bachelorhood.

Conrad Burgermeister, presi- dent of the college barber chair, says the marriage is a conditional message to the popular characters. Alas, six Fiddick brothers, who received their training from the hairners at the barber shop.

"Cutting will become a lost art"

Proxy Has Plan to Popularize College

Swimming "squawking" which completely exterminated tradition were announced by student body presi- dent Bob Howeler in a bulletin to the student body, today.

Ten Paint Plan

All very long-posed people will be put into action, observers will be cut off, said Howeler. "Com- plement to college will be so popular that cutting will become a lost art."

He added that his plans had not been put into effect as yet, he was confi- dent that cutting would be taken soon.

Results listed

The resolutions were listed as follows: (1) A day to replace old fashion five-day beard, (2) one day to be an end for extra-curricular activities, (3) no books to buy or carry, (4) television in every classroom, and (5) the first day the mercury reaches 90 degrees.

"Scientists" Construct Super Nitrogen Bomb

On April 29, the Atomic Energy commission announced the unveiling of the secret project "Doomed." It is the nitrogen bomb, which, according to Dr. Glen Mau- cloughlin, its creator, is the newest deadliest weapon ever conceived by man. It is 112 2/9 times more powerful than the old fashioned hydrogen bomb.

The project has been under construction for months, and has gone on for the past two weeks. Re- sults are guaranteeing, according to Bakersfield, completion of the project.

Top Secret

For security reasons, the proj- ect is being developed in the laboratory. "Because we are working near food, we are being very careful about the whole matter." says Bob Anick, mathematician. The nitrogen bomb will be made in the laboratory, and all chemicals... before we put chemicals in the laboratory.

Other physics, working on molecular bonding, is being done by Tom Cart, M.S.M.T. and Ken Zimmer, Z.E.S.Y. Speed Johnson, P.P.C.

Demonstrator Explained

Michael Underhill, photo-a- lcol, cell technologist, explains in simple terms that the demonstrator will be caused by a specific frequency generator excited by an equalized direct current accumu- lator.

Jim Spirit and Don Shallow- water are of great value, accord- ing to Underhill, in the demonstration of an intercontinental media- vator, a device for the transfer of delivery, and for the demonstration of a possible source.

Friends We Need

It is also a story of courage to stay on top when all the chips are down. Jane Freeman (Mary Hay-ward)" was at the peak of her career when she signed up for a LD tour in Europe. She only made it as far as the Tegel airport when the plane crashed, killing half of its occupants.

Jane was one of the lucky ones along with John Dunn (Eugen Colom), her future husband. In the hospital, Jane finds another friend, Shirley (Erika Emani) astubborn nurse who has enough faith to the patient to give her the push.

On the run to Sweden.

On the run to Sweden, her operation across Europe (25 altogether), to save her life in Sweden. Jane says goodbye to Sweden to keep the doctors bills paid up. On her second day she makes it to Sweden where she is visited by her family.

In all, it's a wonderful picture of a young actress on her way to the medical schools. The main committees of mood and spiritual values are sponsoring the whole thing, which will include group discussions, workshops and exhibitions.
