The F.P.W.C.I. has helped 70,000 children over a period of fifteen years. Our pamphlet came this quotation:

"Emile was a bewildered, rebellious youth..."...In line with Plan's West Health Colony for children, her mother abandoned him during the war and after liberation Mrs. Council, her foster mother, who had no father, had little interest in his son's welfare. Emile fell in rejection and alone. Affection, understanding, and security have transformed him into a normal child.

Liberace, First-Nameless Gourmet, Is Clown, T-Viewer

Gave a man a musical background, and he made a great concert pianist; Liberace, who has charmed over 100 million people with his interpretations of great music, grew up on a farm, and his parents had a flower garden, which he was told was the only one in the area. His mother was a homemaker, and his father was a farmer. When Liberace was 10, his mother decided to make the family move to Milwaukee, Wisconsin, so that he could have a better education. His parents were both teacher's aides, and they supported their son through school by working at various jobs.

The young Liberace was a prodigy, and he began playing the piano at an early age. He was so talented that he was able to earn money by playing for the local radio station when he was just 7 years old. He later attended the University of Wisconsin and studied with several renowned concert pianists, including Artur Rubinstein and Vladimir Horowitz. He quickly gained a reputation as one of the most impressive pianists of his generation.

Renegades Play Host to Valley Saturday Night

With probably the biggest crowd to date on the 1952 BC football schedule, the Renegades were ready to take on the Valley Tigers in the last championship game at the last Renegades home game. The crowd was estimated at 35,000 and the fans were ready to cheer the boys on to their seventh straight victory. The Renegades showed promise of cutting the Tigers down and sending it back to the Valley. If they were to do this, it would be all the Renegades could have wished for.

Regrettably, the game was not as smooth as it was expected to be. The Renegades were unable to take control of the field, and the Tigers were able to score three touchdowns in the first half. The Renegades were able to score one touchdown in the first half, but were unable to score in the second half. The final score was 21-7 in favor of the Valley Tigers.

Another reason is in store for the Renegades. The game was not as expected, and the Tigers were able to score three touchdowns in the first half. The Renegades were able to score one touchdown in the first half, but were unable to score in the second half. The final score was 21-7 in favor of the Valley Tigers.

Alumni Hoopmen
Tangle Saturday
With Renegades

Saturday night will mark the opening of the local basketball season, this being the first annual alumni game featuring some Bakersfield college athletes from a few years back. The 1952-53 edition of the Bongrade basketballers will go against this alumni squad at the Laskowski school gym, starting at eight.

Coach Waldo Plester is trying to get his charges ready for this encounter. The forwards will be John Ogden and Don Holliday, both returning from last year’s squad. John Stas and Howard Goss are figuring it out for a starting assignment at center position. T. H. Lockett has sewn up one of the guard positions while James Thompson will be looking for a starting guard up from the Sundale, at Bakersfield high, and Lockett was a first stringer for the Driller fast last year.

Charley Sawyer Here

Charley Sawyer, football great from the University of California, will be just one player for the Alumni team. Earl Gehlen was a fastainter for us back 10 years ago; Hollis Shannon and Lowell Roper are on the Alumni team. From Fresno State, Don Claude and Ron Kuzek played for the City College this year; Bob Borg, first team at Bakersfield; George Wismann, a fame for Cal Poly at L-A; others on the team are Earl Etzkard, Lewes, and Bob Mansfield. Now “in service,” they try to make it for the game.

It is hoped that players having Bakersfield college will come back and play the fast game every year.

Renegade Sprinklings

By Wayne Smith

Something new has been added! an Alumni basketball game is to be played before basketball season opens next January. Saturday night marks the first of such games when some of Bakersfield college’s aluni’s stars of yesterday play against this year’s Renegade varsity.

This game will be at the Lakeside gymnasium where the Grids will play all their home games.

After the alumni game, the Bakersfield college alumni association will put on some sort of a “skin dig.” It’s all a big secret, and all students are invited.

Basketball’s Origin

Basketball is the only major sport of purely American origin. It was invented by Dr. James Naismith, then physical director of the YMCA in Springfield, Mass., in 1891. The first game was played January 20, 1892.

While president of physical education at the University of Kansas in 1897, the late Dr. Nasmith told of basketball’s origin. A game was sought for indoor play in the cold winter nights, but Naismith found that some of the existing games couldn’t be modeled for a game such as that.

Then he came up with the fundamental principle of the game. The net ring was first played with on the men’s side, then nine, then eight, and finally five. The net was cut off because of the YMCA’s, high schools, colleges, and A.A.U. and independents, standardizing the game’s rules a number of years ago. Every club might have changed too much.
