Fitzgerald, James Okay!!!

BIG RED FAILS TO WEAKEN

Gades Clip Long Beach In Stiff Metro Tilt 27-13
To Remain Undefeated

By Leon Harris

With the return of Gene Fitzgerald and Bob James would be able to play against Long Beach. After the game had ended, Fitzgerald said, "We've got to work hard and we'll win tomorrow night." The game was played in front of a capacity crowd of 4,000 fans.

Knights Plan Fling For 'Lucky' Friday

The Bakersfield College Renegade Knights will sponsor an all-day dance Friday, November 14, following the Renegade - Santa Monica City College game, according to Paul Mitchell, Knight president. The dance is slated to be held in the gymnasium.

The theme of the event will be the one-day event in Renegade history. The dance will be sponsored by the dance committee, and the proceeds will be used to support the other activities of the Renegade Knights.

Enrollment Begins

Students planning to enroll in the new series of first-aid classes which start Monday, November 17, should register in the Records Office, according to Charles M. Burress, Bakersfield College Dean of Records.

The nine-week course will meet Tuesday and Thursday during first, third, sixth and seventh periods, also Monday and Wednesday, sixth period.

NOTED LEADERS SPEAK

Two BC Wheels Attend World Affairs Contab

Two Bakersfield College students attended the Seventh Annual World Affairs Conference Friday, November 14, Saturday, and Sunday, October 30, through November 1, at the Ambassador Conference Grounds, Monterey Peninsula.

The BC students included Jim Whetten, student body president, and Bill Burt, president of the International Relations Club. Jim Whetten, advisor to the club, who also attended the three-day meeting.

Dissent Colonialism

The theme of the conference, "Twentieth Century Colonialism," was concerned with the study of the Student's Colonialism, of the Student's Colonialism, of the Student's Colonialism, of the Student's Colonialism.

Jim Whetten, a student at the conference, said, "We're concerned with the study of the Student's Colonialism, of the Student's Colonialism, of the Student's Colonialism, of the Student's Colonialism.

Comin' Up

Teacher's Institute - Friday, November 6

Football - San Diego (away) - Saturday, November 7

Armistice Day - Sunday, November 8

Renegade Night - November 10

Student Government Conference - Thursday, Friday, November 17 thru 20

Convocation - Friday, November 20

Reserve Officers' - Monday, November 23

Thanksgiving - Wednesday, November 25

Hot Dog!!

Tomorrow, Nov. 6. Bakersfield College students can skip school legally for the first time this year. The county schools institute takes over Bakersfield College. There will be a school - holiday Sunday, November 6.

The county, institute is planned by the County Supervisor's Office for Kern County Teachers. The program includes schools, towns, discussions, demonstrations and more. It is a professionally upgrading school personnel.
Fall Rags Emerge

By Oscar Weel

The latest fashion to emerge is the "fall rag," also known as the "fall dress," which is currently in vogue. This trend is similar to the "fall coat," which was popular several years ago. The "fall rag" is characterized by a wide variety of colors, patterns, and styles, and is worn with a variety of accessories, such as scarves, hats, and gloves. Girls are also encouraged to wear "fall hats," which are typically made of straw or felt and decorated with flowers or ribbons. Boys are encouraged to wear "fall suits," which are typically made of wool and include a jacket, pants, and tie.

Scoop Revealed on Drama

By Geneviève Rive

What happens when "Tread, Pinn, and Tackle" actually happens is revealed by Fred Wilson, who played the role of "Tread, Pinn, and Tackle" in the 1952 production. Fred Wilson claims that he was prepared to play the role, but he was unable to do so due to an injury. Instead, he performed the role of "Tread, Pinn, and Tackle" in a different production, which was a huge success. Wilson goes on to say that he is still able to perform the role if he needs to, but he is grateful for the support of his family and friends.

Order Your Christmas Cards at WINGATES Office Supply 1424 98th St. Phone 2-F-9984

Brooks Pays Visit

By Donald Cooper

Brooks, the head of the school, pays a visit to the "Brooks Public School" to discuss the importance of education in the community. He stresses the importance of providing a quality education to all students, regardless of their background or financial situation. He also encourages the community to support the school in any way they can, whether by donating money, volunteering their time, or simply spreading the word about the school's mission. The school is currently facing financial difficulties, and Brooks is hoping to attract more students and funding to help the school overcome these challenges.

You're Doing Too Much

By Donald Cooper

A teacher, who is currently working more than usual due to the school's financial difficulties, is advised by the school principal to "take it easy." The principal stresses the importance of maintaining a work-life balance, and encourages the teacher to take time for themselves and their families. The teacher acknowledges the advice and承诺 to take a break and focus on their personal life.

Free Tests - Scoring Aid for Students with Future Plans

The school offers free testing services to students who are planning to attend college or pursue a career. These tests include standardized tests such as the SAT and ACT, as well as practice tests to help students prepare for these exams. The school also provides guidance and support to help students choose the right path for their future, whether it be college, vocational training, or entering the workforce.

Local News

- Fall Rags Emerge
- Scoop Revealed on Drama
- Order Your Christmas Cards at WINGATES Office Supply 1424 98th St. Phone 2-F-9984
- Brooks Pays Visit
- You're Doing Too Much
- Free Tests - Scoring Aid for Students with Future Plans
Chinook Scoop

Going wild over the music, the cheer, the color, the excitement, the fun. The whole world will be different from 100 years from now than it is right now. The picture of the future is hard to foresee, even if you are in the age of our times. Everyone will have their own vision of the future, but in the end, it will be as wild and as fun as this year. Happy Birthday, Chinook.

Editor, by Hilli

Lowdown On Pigskin Glory
Told by Football Player

An extra touch of local flavor was added by Miss Ethel Farnsworth, who was engaged in an assignment to sing English folk songs.

By Hilli

Have you noticed how the football team gets louder with every game? The most dramatic moment in the game is when the team's color guard is in the center of the field. They are dressed in vibrant uniforms and hold colorful banners, setting the tone for the energetic play that follows.

Living Large

I am a fan of football, and it's not just because of the excitement on the field. I love the atmosphere, the traditions, and the spirit of the team. It's a way to bring people together and create memories that last a lifetime.

Renegade Rip

Editor-in-Chief: Mary Brown

Pamela, a football player, was interviewed by the Renegade Rip. She shared her thoughts on the game and her experiences playing for the team.

Tom Meets Match

By Jim Quin

In the hopes of breaking the silence, I went to meet the players and speak with them. This is not an easy task, but it is a necessary one. We need to hear their voices, their stories, and their perspectives.

SWEATERS! SWEATERS! SWEATERS!

It seems like there are always a number of girls who are interested in the sport of football. However, not all of them are interested in playing the game. What are your thoughts on this?

Nutrition Lectures

Free To Public

Pamela, a football player, was interviewed by the Renegade Rip. She shared her thoughts on the game and her experiences playing for the team.

Edison College

Business Manager: Jack Brown

The Edmund College football team has been practicing hard for their upcoming games. The team has been working on their techniques and strategies to improve their performance. They are looking forward to the season and hope to have a successful year.
Unbeaten Gades Host Powerful Monarchs

_by Dan Morgan_

The championship game of the Metro Conference will be played either at Shameen Stadium in Bakersfield or the Jackman Stadium in Long Beach this Saturday, and the Gades will meet the powerful Monarchs of Long Beach State College in the first game of the conference.

The Monarchs will take a 10-game winning streak into the game here, including last week's 13-9 come-from-behind victory over the Pepperdines. Bakersfield will have to be at its best to stand a chance against the Monarchs, who are expected to win by a wide margin.

Metro Roundup

League Race Jumbled Up

A two-game winning streak by Long Beach State University and a one-game winning streak by the Gades have jumbled up the Metro Conference league race. Long Beach State is now at the top of the standings, followed by the Gades, while Bakersfield College is in third place.

Corsairs Fall Before Near Record Scorning Out

_by Jim McLlellan_

If it takes touchdowns to win, the Corsairs scored 21, but it wasn't enough. After three quarters, the Corsairs were winning 21-7, but a forth quarter wave of touchdowns by the Monarchs saw them score 16 points in the final period, and the Monarchs emerged with a 28-21 victory.

Bakersfield College Book Store

At the Renegade Helm

Rose Classic Beckons Mighty Gade Gridders

Gade Band Takes Field at Half

The Bakersfield College Gade Band will travel to Jackman Stadium at Long Beach on Saturday, December 13, with the hope of entertaining the crowd. The Gade Band's powerful sound will contribute to the festive atmosphere of the game.

BAKERSFIELD COLLEGE BOOK STORE

Let's Go Gades

Extra

Let's Go Renegade

NEXT STOP PASADENA

Renegade Rip Master Consensus

SIDELINE SLANTS

By Louise Halstead

As the winds started to howl, the scoreboard turned to red, and the crowd started to get restless, Louise Halstead saw a chance to outsmart the Gades and the Monarchs.

Are you ready to face the competition?