Five Amendments On Ballot For Final Decision By BC Students

Whether several changes will be made to the ASCB constitution will be decided today in elections to be held from 8 to 5 in the BC basement.

Controversial No. 5

The most controversial amendment is Proposition 5 which grants the voting privilege to anyone carrying 12 units or more at BC, regardless of whether he has bought a student body card. Opponents to this measure say that Associated Students is a business and that people who do not pay dues should not be represented. Members of the Associated Students' Union have also expressed their concern over the proposition.

Rosh To Sponsor Tater. Trot After

Local Bowl Game

Monotonic potato figures will be the great decorative colors in Tater Trot which will be held in the BC gym tonight. Band will start at 8 p.m., Dec. 4, immediately following the football game between Compton and Bakersfield.

The dance will be sponsored by the Student Recreation Commission. The faculty will be in charge of the refreshments and the entertainment.

An admission charge will be imposed on students and faculty for the event. Members of the Associated Students' Union will pay 25 cents and students will pay 50 cents. No guests are allowed.

Yuletide Sounds To Resound In

Harvey Halls

A "Family Christmas as Song" will be presented tomorrow night from 8 to 9 in Harvey Auditorium. The program will consist of songs of the season. All family groups in the BC band will participate.

Members of the Associated Students' Union will present "Harvey's Mother." In addition, there will be a variety of other activities.

Effective Next Semester

If passed, the amendments will go into effect next semester. Elections are under the supervision of the Student Court composed of Terri Yaros, vice-president, and Bob Holley and Bill Maxwell, associate justices.

Johnson, McCall and Neuf Head College Dramatic Organization

Noble Johnson was elected president of the Delta Psi Omega, dramatic organization, in a recent meeting of the group. Chosen to aid in conducting the affairs of the group were Louis McCall, vice-president, and James Neuf, secretary-treasurer.

No group that has been under the leadership of the Associated Students' Union has been as active in college productions as this year's Delta Psi. The group has been directed by Noble Johnson, who said that any interested in any phase of dramatics should have their interest known to Miss Phyllis Juster, advisor of the group, or to himself.

No advisers for the two plays and roles in these productions will be assigned for membership.

New members who are interested in joining the club for a future initiation must show evidence of seriousness and interest. Miss McCall, Miss Freedman and Miss Jester have decided to have the club meet at 11 a.m. each week.

The club is a new and unchartered one, and it is interesting to note that the group already has a membership of 12.

Socio-Logos Featured At Philharmonic Concert

The community band, Philharmonic Orchestra's second concert of the season will feature "S-tar Gazing." The program will include "S-tar Gazing," with Drennen on Page 2.

Race to the Polls

Guide hapless voter in a whirl of the season's take a hurried breeze from practice to the polls and vote on the constitutional amendments. A good example for all BCites today!

All of us

As if some had been shown through time immemorial, many things run in cycles, with each new generation having the opportunity to learn from the mistakes of the past.

It is easy to forget the lessons of the past, but it is important to remember them.

At the end of the day, it is the people who have lived through the cycles who have the most to teach us.

Hillbilly Yuletide Time

For Eating and Relaxing

By Ernest McMillen

Christmas is 15 years ago in the United States, started at 4:00 a.m. The Christmas season is steeped with the expensive, elaborate activities of present-day. The religious observances of the Christmas season is steeped with the busy, hard, and often tedious daily offices. This season is marked by a great difference in many other countries. In the United States, however, Christmas is a time of joy and happiness. In the United States, however, Christmas is a time of joy and happiness. In the United States, however, Christmas is a time of joy and happiness.

The enemies of the United States are now making a great effort to spread the word of Christmas. They are doing this by creating a sense of fear and gloom among the people. The press is full of stories about the dangers of Christmas. The newspapers are full of stories about the dangers of Christmas. The newspapers are full of stories about the dangers of Christmas. The newspapers are full of stories about the dangers of Christmas.

What's For Christmas?

The feeling of giving has been very strong during the holiday season. In many cases, people have given gifts of money to others. However, the giving of money has been restricted by the law. The law states that no one can give more than $200 to another person. This has caused many people to be restricted in their giving.

The Night Before

By Terry and Sonya

The night before Christmas the entire family was gathered around the tree, singing carols and trimming the tree. The children were very excited about the presents that were under the tree.

The next morning, they woke up early and ran to the tree to see what Santa had brought them. They were very surprised to find that Santa had brought them all the presents they had wished for.

The day was filled with fun and games, and the family enjoyed each other's company. They spent the day together, decorating the tree and sharing presents. It was a wonderful holiday for all and a time to remember.

Once Again

Well here we go again. Practice basketball is under way and so are the cross-courses games.

The Renegades had two games last week against the Sunset Café and Santa Ana. Bakersfield won both games by scores of 85-76, and 86-66. The game was won 85-76, a remarkable recovery from their first warm-up loss.

Santa Monica had a close game with the UCFA Youth but lost the contest by the score of 51-48. East Angeles, known as the Huskies, and almost enough incentive to take East Angeles City College (not in the Metro conference) but dropped the game by the narrow margin of 74-70.

When the regular season starts, the games should prove to be worthwhile to grade with.

Renegades on Win Streak Again;
Cagers Make It Four Consecutive

By Jerry Gill

Longstanding record second to fourth straight win after defeating Santa Ana 58-64 and Mantleau 89-52, the BC Renegades basketball team is now in the midst of a barren tour. Last night they played Central College, tonight they face West Seattle, and tomorrow will face Los Angeles City College.

The Renegades completely dominated Mantleau last Saturday all game to get the victory. The score by quarters was 18-12, 34-22, 62-35 and 89-52. Mantleau was again high point man with 19 while Holaday retired to pick up 10 points. Leonard Brown and Eddie Holaday tied for high honors with 15 points each.

In the first period Ralph Baxley and Holaday led the home team into an early 28-15 lead with 6 point each. The second quarter was almost scoreless with Santa Ana shooting for 5 while Bakersfield added 4 to the board.

The game was dominated by Holaday last Saturday as everyone got to play. The score by quarters was 52-43, 34-25, 62-35 and 89-52. Mantleau was again high point man with 19 while Holaday retired to pick up 10 points. Leonard Brown and Eddie Holaday tied for high honors with 15 points each.
