Day to Enter

George Day, from radio station KERO, will handle the platfure for dancing and will encharge the rewarding of door prizes. Taylor is chairman of the dance.

Louis Hall, head of the decoration committee, assisted by Don Taylor, Kent Edwin and Fred Behrens, Ernest J travelers and Paul Luter, assistant chairman, are in charge of the publicity committee. Dana Robertson and Jim Justice are in charge of refreshments.

Council Office Removed
As Work Progresses

By Bill Barnes

Because the student lounge was closed for remodeling last Monday, student body president Jerry Stuart reports that many students who found time on their hands have been forced to find another location in which to sit down and socialize.

A committee headed by Mary Jo Dowd has been appointed to supervise and carry out the re-decorating program. One major change will be the removal of the Fauze control office, which is no longer used, thus providing some additional seating space.

Your student, like those in "Journey to Tin City," was fascinated. It's a fact. This year's students are definitely more interested in the history and culture of this area than their predecessors. The same can be said for the history of pedagogy and education.

But this isn't to say that the history of education and pedagogy is necessarily more interesting to the students than the history of education and pedagogy. The history of education and pedagogy is still very much with us, and it is in the classroom. The students are still interested in the history of education and pedagogy, and they are still interested in the history of education and pedagogy.  Editorial... Get Off the Dime

Bakerfield College is virtually existing on the proverbial dime. It's time to get off. The activities of this student body are slipping gradually into a state of disarray in which school spirit is becoming a thing of the past.

Expectant! This situation can be witnessed in the diminishing number of clubs during the present school year. Many active organizations of the past are no longer extant. The Science Club, Debaters, Inter-scholastic Club, Piano Club and other clubs, which only recently were thriving organizations with active memberships, have now been disbanded.

True, there are organizations this year which have functioned in a commendable manner, but the number is too small. There are less than twenty clubs in existence now and the vast majority of those are just lounging, with little activity other than periodic meetings.

There exists a general spirit of apathy in the student body, which has itself exhibited in the activities planned—and the word is used with reluctance—volunteers for this year. The price of overextension from the scholastic exertions too much to pay? Probably nobody is interested enough in a project to plan its successful execution; it's improbable that the project will amount to much. This has been the case too often this year.

It is time that something be done about this situation. There is a remedy in the form of the newly organized activity board. Here plans are being formulated for the organization of a club housing league. There is also now on the horizon the inter-collegiate basketball league which is achieving deferred competition among the clubs. There are steps toward what is being sought, and that is the ultimate goal of school spirit.

For more important than these material remedies is the psychological attitude of you the student. You are only hurting yourself by assuming an attitude that says, "Let the other guy do it." Get up and participate yourself. Have a good time, do a little effort and you will be rewarded.

Through your clubs you can raise the spirit of this school. Get together and plan projects. Keep the membership active and interested in your activities with action-producing enthusiasm. Let's get off the dime.

McCutcheon Proxy Bill McCutcheon, B.A. sophomore, was recently elected senior semester president of the Bakerfield High School and College union. Other spring officers were also elected.

Club League Tied

Currently atop the Inter-League basketball league standings are the Renegade-Rip, AMS, and the Nansen Clubs with 1-0 records. The Nansen Club is next in the standings with a 1-0-1 record. Fallling in last place are the Engineers with a 0-2 record and the JC blonds with a 0-0-6 record. On Tuesday night the Rip played the AMS and will be favored to annex their second victory.

Gades Roar to Deadlock With 'Slipping' Warriors

Hopeful of gaining closer position in second place in the Metropolitan standings, Coach Gil Bishop's Renegade cagers gun for victory over Harbor and Valley, Friday and Saturday, after decisively whitewashing El Camino and San Diego last week.

The Harbor game will be played at Ninth-Ninth Friday night with a preliminary game at 6:30 p.m. The El Camino defeat elevated Long Beach to first place in the league and when the Warriors beat the Vikings, the El Cash slipped into a second place tie with the Gades.

Bishop will start Blair Russell and Ralph Bailey at forwards, Ed Holliday at center, and Jack Quinton and Leonard Burton at guards in an effort to maintain the second place tie.

New Talent Needed

Sweating, tennis, and golf are still lacking for additional talent upon which to build a strong program.

Among the prospective players, Dick Lemke is showing up nicely as practice at odd hours with Jim Averett and Tom Tucker.

Careless play with the ball has been noticed. A player whose four attempts are going to be Ben Gundy, Walt Napper, Don Roberts, and Jack Frost.

Returning to last week's action, the Gades put the skids to the previously high-flying El Camino as they rallied to a 78-60 victory. The El Camino held the lead throughout these quarters, but were unable to cope with the Hayes closing spurt. Bailey Bailey, the Springfield set shot—outwitted the Warriors, headed pair of Art Herring and Bill Brown with 27 points. Herring backed 23 before fouling out and Brown finished with 10. It was Bailey's marksmanship which kept the Gades in the game in the last half as the cold shooting Bobuphren were held pressed to keep within striking distance.

When Leonard Brown found himself in the second half, there was no stopping the Gades, as they opened up a 10-point against the Warriors in the first half of the cold shooting Bobuphren were held pressed to keep within striking distance.

The Gade rebounding was outstanding as they cleared the boards some 16 times more than the visitors.

The men's basketball teams, although fourth and fifth respectively in the league, however, 43 to 57 per cent.

Last week, Day found the Gades scoring in the spring as they scored against the Gades, 73-66. The Knights were not equal to occasion as the well-balanced Gades proved too much for them.

The Gades' winning streak is expected to continue.

Jumping Jack

Leonard Brown has been highly instrumental in the success enjoyed by the Renegade basketball team which is now tied with El Camino for second place in the Conference standings. Brown's rebounding sparked the cagers to last week's victory over the Warriors.

Just a matter of time... Apathy's Latest Victim;

College Debate Team!!

Twelve Bakersfield College clubs have ceased to exist as functioning organizations of the school, according to Kent Kilburn, director of student activities.

Seventeen organizations still remain on the active list, but of this number only one is on the board of students.

Kilburn said the fall into disfavor was the debate program. "Lack of interest and student participation brought about its virtual collapse," declared Leonard McKain, college debate coach.

The reason for the decline in activities followed when it became apparent that not enough students were enrolled in debating to make the program worthwhile continuing.

Kilburn listed the seventeen active clubs: A.W.S, A.M.S., Engineers, Alpha Gamma Sigma, Beta Gamma Beta, Delta Phi Omega, International Relations, Interfaith Council, Kraushorn, Fitch, Lancer and Shield, Modern Dance, Newman, Renegade Knights, Roger Williams, Sigma Delta Society, and the German-American Society.

A.V.S. He emphasized the fact that more than half the clubs have had a difficult time organizing and creating interest among the members.

The groups which were bonded, he further explained, are Rally Club, Phi Beta Pi, Phi Lambda Chi, and Phi Delta, A.S.C. Debate Champions.

Dorothy Berry, a foreign student attending Pasadena College, tells stories from Blackfoot Indian villages in England. She visited Blackfoot College recently while on a tour of the United States.

Dorothy came to the United States six years ago when she was 12 years old. She is now living with her family in Pantone, At Pasadena City College she is a pupil major and is studying to become a high school teacher.

Schools-Different

Here native England is very much like the United States except in their school system, because of both areas attending the same grade schools and high schools the boys go to prom and the girls to prom.

When a child arrives the age of eleven he takes an exam and if he passes he is enrolled in high school.

And those who don't pass the exam continue their studies in grammar school. The chance to pass the exam is given to the students at the ages of thirteen and fourteen. After a full term the school never returns.

No Makeup

Dorothy went to College High School. The girls in high school are not allowed to wear makeup of any kind. All the girls dress on the same order. A navy or a white dress and a blue or a green coat. (our jacket men) with a white tie. No girls are allowed there with bobbed hair and siren "tic tac toe" hat and the good coat.

Religion is taught in the school. The school day begins with the Lord's prayer and the school year begins with the Lord's prayer.

So if you are a Baptist in England and everyone attends a service before school.

All Students

A graduation is an unusual event in England. The students are required to attend an evening service at the American church. The service is conducted in the English language.

No Graduations

The students of the school in England do not participate in the graduation ceremony.

Gade Cagers Wind Up ’54 Metropolitan Race

Heading into the final week of play, the Renegade basketballers must come off with a pair of victories over East Los Angeles and Santa Monica if they are to hold forth in the second position in the Metropolitan standings.

Both tilts are home games at North High with the East LA tussle slated for Friday evening at 8 and the Santa Monica duel Saturday evening at the same time.

Last week's action found the Gades fanning a golden opportunity to lengthen their second place lead over El Camino's when they split with Harbor and Valley, the loop's doormats.

Long Beach has virtually clinched the top spot, but the coveted second place position is still up in the air and will be until late Saturday night when the final tabulations are in.

The East LA Huskies have been troublesome throughout the year and are aching to reverse an early season loss to the Tocals bucketmen. In Neno Felix and Jim Gamble, the Huskies possess as fine a two punch as can be found in junior college play. Certainly the southerners will be primed for a top effort when challenging Bakerfield.

Saturday night, Santa Monica's rallying Corsairs move into town and could be as poisonous to the Gades as they have to recent foes. The Corsairs recently smacked down El Camino, 76-70, thereby derailing the Renegade quintet to its present second ranking.

Nothing would be more delectable to Santa Monica followers than for the Corsairs to upseat the Gades in similar fashion. Denny Nelson and Dan Bora, two veteran hardmorphers, lead the Corsair attack.

Returning to last week's play, the Gades found Harbor to be easy pickings as they rolled to an 88-70 victory. Fast breaking to perfection, Coach Gil Bishop's gang continually outmaneuvered the pesky Harbormen as the entire squad saw action.

Well Balanced Gade Netters Debut

The Renegade net team makes its debut this season against C.O.S. of Vista. Game time is 2:30, and the match will be held at Jastro tennis courts. After four non-league matches here against C.O.S. and Ventura, the Metropolitan loop season begins in the third week of March.

This year's team is green, with no returning men, Fred Bien, Robert Davidson, Paul Rexroth, Paul Swafford, Louis Sorens and Joe Zaragoza are carrying the load until basketball season is over and Ralph Barkey can report.

Coach Don Robards will take a well balanced squad into the league action, and the success of the team will depend on how stiff the competition is in the Southland this year. Robards expects to face some tough teams, and needs the abilities of our best tennis talent at his disposal. Each club in the loop will be met four times, and a busy schedule is promised. If you need exercise, and can wield a racket, practice is daily from 3:30 to 5:00 at Jastro Park.

Intra-Mural Action

Dominance of the intra-mural basketball league was narrowed down-to-the Renegade Rip and the Newman Club as the result of last week's competition. Both clubs have garnered two wins while suffering no defeats.

This Saturday will find the Rip matching shots with the Engineers' Club at the North High gym, in a preliminary game to the Renegade-Santa Monica contest.

The Newman Club will meet the Kraftmen's Club this Friday as a preliminary to the Gade-East LA game.
