Ambitious Politicians Set Sights on Posts As Ballot Time Nears

Student body and class elections for the coming semester will be held all day tomorrow in the Junior College Building basement between the Student and the Library, according to Bruce Vogel, chief justicer of the Renegade body. Student body cards must be present at all polling places and be shown to and punched by the election committee before anyone is eligible to vote in the election, emphasized Vogel. "These will be

500 Guests Expected Football Banquet Planned to Honor Gade Gridders
A football banquet in honor of the 1953 Renegade football team will be held Wednesday, January 27, starting at 7 p.m. in the Veterans Act Hall, according to Dr. Robert Simonsen, Bakersfield College Dean of Men.

All men students of the college will be invited to attend the affair. Simonsen disclosed, and some 500 guests are expected to attend.

Tickets to the event are $3.50 and may be obtained in the college office.

Awards will be presented to the outstanding and best lines of the Jr. tape teams, by the Bakersfield Junior Chamber of Commerce, and the Bakersfield College Alumni Association, it was learned.

A speaker has not yet been obtained, but plans are underway to ask a prominent sports figure to talk at the affair.

The banquet will be sponsored by the Bakersfield Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Bakersfield College Alumni Association in cooperation with Bakersfield College.

The Leader's Rut

A problem which many store owners face is the tendency to provide adequate stock of items, yet fail to maintain a steady flow of customers. This is often due to lack of adequate advertising, which fails to reach the target market. A store owner should advertise his store not only through local media, but also through national outlets. By doing so, he can attract more customers and increase his sales.

Bookstore Gets Face Lifted

There has been some confusion about the recent renovations at the bookstore. The store has undergone a face-lift, which includes new decorations and improved lighting. However, some customers have been disappointed with the changes, saying that the store has lost its character. Nevertheless, the store has improved its appearance and is now more inviting to customers.

Finals Loom; Frenzy Climbs To High Pitch

粗粗的头发

"The time for finals is near!" John Smith, in his typical exuberant manner, declared to the gathering of students who had gathered to hear his lecture on the impending examination season. "It's time to gear up and get ready!"

The students, however, were not as enthusiastic. They groaned and muttered among themselves, expressing their dread of the upcoming exams.

"I'm so stressed out," one student complained. "I don't know how I'm going to study for all these exams."

"I'm just scared," another student added. "I don't want to fail."

Smith, however, remained optimistic. "Don't worry," he said. "With a little bit of hard work and dedication, you can get through this."

Gamers Hop to Improve on Metro Record Against Stiff Opposition

Basketballers Complete Holiday Victory Crusade Successfully

The holiday schedule called for the Cagers to play three major opponents in less than two weeks before their conference play begins. The team arrived last night and will begin practice today, according to Coach Ray Rice, who said that the team is ready to go from the start.

Big Red Plays Tough Knight, Warrior Fives

With the biggest games of the season set for Monday, the Cagers play the University of Cincinnati, 7-3, today and Saturday, last week. The team has had a tough season thus far, but they are ready to prove their worth.

In the first game, the Cagers played St. John’s University, 6-0, and lost 77-64. In the second game, they played the University of Notre Dame, 3-3, and won 70-65.

J.R.B. Films Featured at the Garek Auditorium, according to Charles Olszewski, director of admissions.

The films, sponsored by the Lakeview Alumni Association, will be shown twice, one on Friday, February 12, and the other on Saturday, February 13. The films will be shown in the Garek Auditorium, located on the lakeside.

A tent will be set up for the event, which will include a food area, a dance floor, and a cash bar. The event is open to all students and their guests.

Renee and Russell, the Gade Quartermen's unofficial mascots, will be present at the event, along with other members of the Gade Quartermen. The event is expected to be a fun and lively celebration of Lakeview Alumni Association.
Bakersfield to Host Foreign Student Visit

Thirty-nine foreign students from various Southern California colleges will be the guests of the Bakersfield College International Relations Club Sunday, March 25 and Monday, March 26. The 39 visitors will arrive Monday night and will immediately attend a luncheon. Following the luncheon the group will begin a tour of Bakersfield which will include a look at the college grounds and the city's civic buildings.

The Bakersfield Chamber of Commerce has invited the students to the Bakersfield Inn following their tour of the city. The individuals in the group will then visit various citizens' homes where they will eat dinner and spend the evening. A buffet party for the entire group is also planned Sunday night at the home of Sheriff Hooper.

The purpose of the visit is to exchange ideas and foster international relations. According to Miss Averett, president of the BC International Relations Club, ten countries are represented in the group.

Police Step in To Halt Violators in Parking Lot

Positive action has been taken to eliminate further illegal parking in the student parking lot adjacent to Harvey Auditorium, according to Dr. Edward Simmons, director of men students.

Section 603 of the parking code provides that a citizen may be levied to the operator of a vehicle parked in any driveway or approach to a driveway where people are on or near the parking lot.

Snowy Hills Beckon BC

By JANET TURNSEED

The weatherman has finally woke up to the gloominess of "Old Man Winter," who's been feebly trying to push in his two cents worth all this season. After a late and mild start the weatherman broke loose with something that looked like horses-to-goodness hair in the valley.

Up in yonder hills the moisture fell in the form of snow. Snow, snow, snow. As we write, the cowherd and the cowherdess who ventured up there with ski, toboggans and the likes, are in a state of bliss.

Organizations taking to the frozen hills included the Bakersfield High School and College Orchestra and the Bakersfield Ski Club. Unofficially the Bakersfield College Ski Club also donned their ski boots and took off with it.

Various individuals also answered nature's siren hoots to the hills.

Once turned loose, "Old Man Winter," lost his head and gave out with rain on the hillside. No umbrellas either. Then he really got worked up and dashed out snow.

Back in the valley the rains washed down on and on. With the exception of the nature-lovers, students returned to the domain of their homes for a much needed rest before plunging into a new semester.

And think there are those who never learn and are planning future show trips. Among these jokers are the members of the Renegade Rio and Rip staffs. Oh, my poor, feeble little fee.

Writing-History Trailer to Be Exhibited Friday Noon

The Magic Carpet on Wheels, which will carry the students of BC and those interested in history, will be on exhibit from 4 to 6 p.m., Tuesday and Friday, in the Library. The trailer, one of two which have been traveling throughout the country, is sponsored by the BC Library.

The exhibits are made up of a book and manuscript materials assembled for the Federal Society, publishers of the book, of knowledge, by Frank Glotz, Kansas City bookbinder, who obtained them from sources in Europe, India, and the United States.

Basketballers Reach Midway in Loop Play

Renegades in Third Spot, Meet Corsairs and Huskies

Riding on the crest of three consecutive Metropolitan Conference victories, the Renegade cagers match shots with East Los Angeles and Santa Monica this weekend in the southland.

Resting in third place in the conference standings behind Eti Camino and Long Beach, Coach Gil Bishops rapidly improving quintet could raise its stature considerably by sweeping the two game test.

Slight Advantage

This weekends game will mark the end of the first round of play and if the Gades succeed in holding their contention position, they could prove to be a title threat. For five of the final seven buses will be played on Bakersfield's home courts—quite advantageous, say the least.

After two successive setbacks in the initial conference outings, the Gades have bounced back to decision San Diego, Harbor and Valley.

The 78-61 victory over Valley termed by Bishop as the Gades best showing to date, was the only one of the four to be played on their home North High hardwood. But it definitely proved that the double post offense, centered around Eddie Holiday and Leonard Brown, is quite effective.

Holiday High

Holiday is currently the fifth highest scorer in Metro competition with a 17.8 point average while Ralph Barkley, Brown and Jack Qulman have consistently hit for double figures.

Blair-Russell—the other-starter, is best known for his ball hawking.

T. H. Lockett and Pat Mills have proven to be capable reserves.

It is interesting to note that the Gades have averaged 37 to 38 percent of their field goal attempts in the last two weeks which is slightly above the regarded 35 percent par.

In both conference losses the Bishopmen were confronted with extremely hot hot foes as both Eti Camino and Long Beach averaged well over 40 percent of their shots.

Club Cage Play Opens Competition

The intramural basketball league, composed of six Bakersfield College organizations, will open play, Wednesday, February 3.

The Renegade Rip will oppose the Kraftsmen Klub in the league inaugural, as a preliminary to the game between the Olson Redheads and Gary Gore and his Slaughter House Seven Plus Three.

The Rip team will be the underdog, but they hope to pull off an upset.

Other teams entered in the league are the Engineers, the Newman Club, the Torch and Saber and AMS.

The schedule was drawn up by Fred Doehrm and will be posted on the bulletin board so the clubs that have entered teams can refer to.
