AWS Sea Nymphs to Hold Ocean Kapers After Game

Ocean Kapers will wash into the Bus barn after the Friday night Long Beach game, according to Mainie Whitley, chairman of the AWS-sponsored dance.

Usher Club Serves At Kern Musical

"May I show you in your seat?" These will be the hushed greetings of '55 BCers on Wednesday when they serve in the BC Ushers Club for the opening event of the Kern County Musical Association's 10th performance year.

The famed Roger Wagner Chorale will appear in Harvey Auditorium to begin Kern Musical's season. This group has appeared in many countries, and was given a special invitation to sing in London during the coronation festivities for Queen Elizabeth II.

Student tickets, either individual concert or season, are available at Tracy's Music Store, 1000 Chester, the Ushers Club and obtain free of charge Schaefer, German instructor, who is club advisor.

This ticket will be priced at 60 cents a couple, 50 cent single. Students of green and gold will adorn the building. A huge sea

Gades to Face Potent Long Beach; San Diego Aiming for Big Upset

By Dave Allat, Sports Editor

With second-week action along with several BC basemen who suffered heart attacks, both the Gades and the Padres will go after their respective number 22 and 25 signatures.

BC's 40-21 record was only a constant game with the Padres. A trip with the Padres resultant in the Padres second place, was the only loss the Padres made of the year.

The Padres have the chance to win the Division at home with a win in the opening game.

Top Teams Provide Thrills in Metro Loop

The majority of games played in the Metropolitan Conference this weekend were decided by small margins. Although Metro's sharpshooting performance was in the final game, the conference was still decided by a narrow margin. The conference has been a virtual hotbed for high school football in the area, with many of the games decided by just a few points. The conference is known for its competitive spirit and the games are always highly anticipated by players and spectators alike.

Wiggins Creates New Look in Gade Band for '55

BC Band Maneuvers Display Hours of Grueling Drill

By Duane Spilsbury

The prize-winning Renegade Band is scheduled to perform pre-game activities at the El Camino-Bakersfield game for Thanksgiving Day. Under the direction of Clarence Wiggins, the BC Band has grown in size and stature until it is rated as one of the top junior college bands in California. Competing against such large school bands as Pasadena and Long Beach, both of whom have enrollments exceeding 10,000, "Buckeye" the Renegade Band last year won top marching and performing honors at the Junior Rose Bowl parade. This was the first year Wiggins had conducted the band. This year they are better prepared.

Wiggins, who came to Bakersfield from the job as assistant band director at the University of Washington, has given a free college band to the Renegade Band. Besides increasing the size of the band, Wiggins was instrumental in selecting the distinctive "Buckeye"-style uniforms adopted last fall by the organization.

Today's Bakersfield Band has 54 members and works in close marching operation with the newly-created Guardsmen, girls' drill team supervised by Miss Diane Martin. The result is a smooth functioning organization which will be visible to next year's veterans.

Among other things, Wiggins introduced the explosive type of field marching style system on the football field. Once a stunt formation is initiated, instead of wandering in disorderly lines into the next formation, the

Musicians to Appear In Pre-Game Only

The Renegade Band will lead in the direction of El Camino early tomorrow to appear in pre-game ceremonies when upon the middle of the band between the southern JC and Bakersfield College.

Instead of their usual marching activities, the Gade Band will enter the action before game only, and will reenact the "hydeout" of the homecoming "festivities" featuring the "Buckeye" band marching in numerical floats.

Introduction of the homecoming float is also included in the evening's entertainment. The Gade Band in their pre-game parade will march down the field and form for the greeting "Hi" to the El Camino stands, "Hi Neighbor," then return into the big "Hi" on the home side, and play the fight song. After which they will march to the end of the field to join with the El Camino Band paying tribute to our country with the National Anthem.

The band's next half time performance is determined by tomorrow's gridiron contest. Their next appearance will be in the Junior Rose Bowl parade and game.

BC Batters Buccs 47-0 Everyone Gets Into Act

Controlling the game from the initial kickoff, the undefeated Bakersfield College Renegades stomped Santa Monica City College to submission last Friday on the loser's field, 47-0.

For the Gades, who outgained the Corsairs 472 yards to 155, it was number 24 of a long victory string. It also cleared the next to the last obstacle in the way of an almost sure Junior Rose Bowl bid.

Gordon Rolls

On the opening kickoff, Carl Gordon picked up the ball, started up the middle and broke into the clear for 87 yards and a TD.

Midway through the first period quarterback Gordon scored again. After Bob Warkentin recovered a fumble on the BC 43 and three plays netted 7 yards, Gordon broke away for the remaining 50 yards and the end zone.

Shumpert Shines

Henry Shumpert who totaled 103 yards in 6 carries supplied the third touchdown of the quarter. The powerfully built, reserve fullback galloped around left end for 67 yards and 6 points.

After a scoreless second quarter, the Gades began to roll in the third. They moved 85 yards in 7 plays with a seven-yard Gordon to Walt Watty pass ending in the drive in success.

Gordon Again

Gordon was again the deciding factor in the next score. He picked up a slow bounding punt, and outmaneuvered the defenders as he raced 74 yards to pay dirt with the aid of some good blocking.

"Crazy Legs" Farley

The final period saw two reserve Gades enter the scoring column. Bill Menagh guiding the team from quarterback topped off a sustained drive of 72 yards by going over from the 13. Regis Farley, playing tackle, picked up the moniker of 'Crazy Legs' as he went 50 yards to score on an interception.
