Bakersfield Instructors
Preside at State Meet

Bakersfield will host the general education convention of the California Junior College Association when it holds its annual convention Oct. 9 at the Bakersfield Inn, an-ounced Dr. Ralph Tzan, president of Bakersfield College. Dr. Tzan will deliver the weling address tomorrow at 2:15 p.m. when the session opens. This is the first time a session meeting of the association has taken place in Bakersfield, added Dr. Tzan.

Clubs Coordinated
By Activity Board

The Activity Board was held in its last meeting of the present year during its fourth period in JC 141, according to the Business Secretary, Miss Joyce Waters.

Purpose of the board is to better coordinate all BC activities and to proto better coordinate all BC activities and to promote school spirit.

A good program of activities will be planned for the coming weekend. As the preliminary program, the following activities will be planned:

1. Spokeshow—A presentation on student clubs and organizations will take place on Thursday at 7 p.m. in the gym.
2. Lipreading Club—A presentation on the use of lipreading will take place on Friday at 7 p.m. in the gym.
3. Poetry Reading—A reading of poetry from the United States and from other countries will take place on Saturday at 7 p.m. in the auditorium.
4. Musician Night—A concert of music will take place on Sunday at 7 p.m. in the auditorium.

Student Court Has
Open Sessions Over
BC Constitution

The Student Court held its second open session today to hear the first case under the new constitution. The case involved a violation of the constitution by a student who failed to pay his fees.

The court sentenced the student to pay his fees or be suspended for three weeks. The student was given the choice of paying his fees or attending classes for three weeks without pay.

The court also discussed the possibility of setting up a new student organization to replace the Student Court.

Gales Race
'Whip Valley'

'Typically,' 'hills' have been used for a rally to be held from 3 to 5 p.m. tomorrow at Beale Park. It was suggested by Kent Kilburn, sophomore president. The rally will be under the sponsorship of the high-school class of 1970.

'Project to help split the college spat is the Renegade Band, with a sample of their usual pep tune, Nebraska song and yell leaders will also be those to demonstrate their skills. Adding to the mix will be the college quartet, the Minutemen.

'Editor's Note: The rally schedule for tomorrow at Beale Park has switched location to Harvey Auditorium. Time will be third period.'

High School Invited

Kent Kilburn, who is in charge of arrangements, announced that student body cards of both colleges will be honored. Stake rates, will be 60 cents with prices for couples set at $1.

High school students are invited to attend, Kilburn added.

Card Honored

Kilburn stated; "We feel that by letting BC student cardholders at the party, we will realize the right atmosphere, and we are prepared for a good student body card activities are concerned.

Delegates to Attend
JC Fall Conference

Plans are now underway to send representatives to the JC Fall Conferec held in Los Angeles. John Ghilaiducci, the chairman; Pat Lewis, the chairman; and John Bowers, the chairman; are to be the delegates.

Yeah, Team!!!

The executive council decided to divide the college's student organizations into three parts

Baseball Conflict

A conflict arises over the BC-Peautes City College game to be played on Oct. 15. Since many projects, a football game is still points in the contest, the BC baseball team will be in the game and the BC baseball team will be in the contest.

Baseball Team

A trip to the Sierra Nevada mountains is planned for the baseball team. The team will leave on a Tuesday afternoon and return on a Thursday evening.

At Bakersfield College

The meeting will take place in the Highway Nutrition faculty in Santa Maria Junior College.
The all-California convention of the national Phi Delta Kappa organization will take place at Auditorium Nov. 31.

NOW OR NEVER!!!

Judgments Day for all BCs this year is Oct. 15. That's the day a student may without course of action may be graded and his academic standing affected.

If the student is enrolled after a week from Friday, the course will be put on his per-mortem record, and to the grade he earns. If he drops dead by a week and withdraws before the 15th, his failure won't be recorded.

More details on this may be found in the College Catalogue, pp. 20.1.

AWS Candidates

Successful candidates in the AWS
elections were Jerry Wettke, East Bakersfield; Diana Gately, West
Bakersfield; Joyce Hamiter, Wasco; and Mc-Pinto and Monty.

Coming events for AWS include a dance and a fashion show.

Renegades 'Ramble'
After Valley Game

A football team will be followed in the decorations. Bob Everett's orchestra has been engaged for the affair.

Dominating the decorations will be huge football players surrounded by numerous wigwag horns and the names and positions of Renegade leaders, announces Audrey Waters.

For sale and low cost after we plan to have streamers of red and white paper interspersed LA Valley's college colors. Also the Renegade team will use places figures resembling coaches, who will sport traditional rain coat, the style.

RENEGADES CLASH WITH LA VALLEY IN METRO OPENER

LA Valley JC Monarchs To Be Gades’ Opponents

By Don Morgan
For Sports Editor

If comparative scores are any indication of competitive strength, the Renegades will more than likely be victorious against the LA Valley Monarchs.

The Renegades opened the regular season last Saturday against the Valley College Monarchs and won, 13-7. This game will provide some sort of preview for their match this Saturday against LA Valley.

Last Saturday, the Renegades took to the field against Valley. The Gades scored touchdowns on three consecutive drives. On the second drive, LA Valley was penalized, giving the Gades the ball at the Valley 48. After gaining a yard, Frank J. scored a second touchdown.

On the third drive, the Gades gained a field goal and fell behind 7-10. On the next drive, LA Valley was penalized, again giving the Gades the ball near Valley’s goal line. The Gades scored again, and the game ended 13-7.

The Monarchs scored the only points of the game on a touchdown that was made possible by a long punt return.

Gades Edge Rams 14-13: Prep to Face LA Valley

by Gary Gill

Winning their eighteenth straight game by a very close margin of 14-13, the Renegades football team has been dominating the Los Angeles Valley College Rams for the past several years. The Rams have dropped Module through the Metro conference and will be facing the Renegades this Saturday.

The Gades, paced by Greig Field, were victorious by a close margin.

One Mist, Phut

The Renegades had a difficult time in their match against the Rams last Friday. The Gades lost 14-13, which is quite similar to last week’s game against LA Valley.

The Gades were able to come back from a 13-10 deficit by scoring a touchdown on a 15-yard run by Greig Field. Greig Field’s two-point conversion attempt failed, however, and the Gades were unable to tie the score.

The Rams scored touchdowns on two plays by Herb Foster and by Billy Logan. The Rams were unable to score any points on their other possessions.

Gades VS. Rams

The Gades played well against the Rams, but were unable to hold onto a 10-7 lead. The Rams scored on a touchdown pass by Herb Foster, which was followed by a two-point conversion.

The Gades scored on a touchdown pass by Herb Foster, which was followed by a two-point conversion.

The Gades did not have the same success in their second game against the Rams. They were unable to score any points on their other possessions.

Poster Destroying Backfires

We're convinced that if the administration destroys their half-arsed poster, it'll be a win-win situation for everyone. This poster is the joy of having visual aids without the distraction of actual content. We applaud the administration's way of doing things, and we're looking forward to seeing the results of their effort.

Beautify Philosophy Bears Out
Coach Owen Beauty impressed on his first outing last Saturday and opened up his new team with a victory rather than spoil too much of the first test at the start.

The philosophy is bearing fruit. The idea of making small is getting around the ticket window.

It is gratifying to know that we have accomplished in eight games something that we have been longing for a few weeks.

The team has been working under the new system in practice and the only thing is to try and make it count.

Now's the Time, Frosh
The Frosh Baseball Club would be the better representatives. Being the only one in a grouping of four new groups and a future with more than a few chances how the team has been working.

The Frosh will have a chance to show their stuff in the coming weeks in the-city.

Air Force Vocalists
The Air Force Vocalists will be the feature of the University of the Air Force Band in the coming weeks. This will be the first time the Vocalists have performed in the city.

Big Red Heads South; Faces Top-Dog Huskies

By DAN MORGAN

Seeking to widen their number one national rating against the Maroons of Pennsylvania State University, the Huskies plan to make the trip to the West Coast for the first time in their history.

Two teams will meet at the Los Angeles Coliseum on Friday night, November 2, for a 48-hour football game. The Huskies face the challenge of playing in a city that has never before seen a college football game.

The game will be held under the lights of the Angels Flight Coliseum in Los Angeles, a city that has long been known for its love of football.

The Huskies will be led by their captain, John Brown, who has been a star player for the team since his freshman year. He is expected to lead the team to victory in this exciting match.

New Loop Leader Possible As Two Top Teams Battle

The Metropolitans, leaders in the standings, are expected to face tough competition from the New York Giants, who have been on the rise in recent weeks.

The game will be held at the Polo Grounds in New York, with both teams vying for the title of the world's best. The game is expected to be a high-scoring affair, with the Metropolitans aiming to stay in front of their rivals.

Delicacies Suggested For Weekend Dinner

The following recipes for a delicious Halloween dinner were submitted by the Cafeteria. Last year these recipes were tested by various college students and it was reported that the guests slurped at these menu tidbits with utmost delight.

MAIN DISH
Stagnated Octopus With Teeth Tarter
To make: This is a real delicacy. The first problem is getting the octopus. This is difficult because there is always some eager beaver who can’t let an octopus float on the ocean for the full six months. If you’re lucky and get one the rest is simple. All you need is the tarter from the teeth of 10 freshmen. No cooking is necessary. Just pour the tarter over the octopus, slice and serve. Don’t feel bad if some teeth and gums remain in the tarter, they will have no effect on the taste whatever.

DESSERT
Perpiration Pudding
To make: This can be prepared after the guests arrive. Turn the living room heater up as far as it will go; then consult the cafeteria for the rest of the recipe.

LIQUID REFRESHMENT
Witch’s Brew
To make: Combine the following ingredients:
- 10 frog tails
- 10 scorpion eyes
- 5 coyote tongues
- 1 gallon dishwater

It is recommended that you have a stomach pump handy in case something fails to go down. Of course it usually comes back up.

Cats Unhook Props

A rip-roaring week ended planned by the following BCites with extreme anticipation.

Trudy Kelly—I’m going to tend bar so I can continue to work my way through college.

Placido Cadina—Go to a party.

Kengo Kawano—Stay home.

Betty Bailey—I’m going trick or treating.

Paul Lutter—Go find out who’s buried in Grant’s tomb—then go tell Groucho.

Richard Ritter—Go to a dance.

Ron Headlee—I’m going to a cave and catch bats with my trusty little butterfly net.

Dickie White—I’m going to try to lose my initial accent.

Gal Hanzon—I’ll never tell.

Hughie Mouser—There’s no telling.

Heidi, Gentlebremen—Can’t you guess?

Laney Stramler—I’m going to soap up windows.

Dick Burright—Going to visit the Sigma Nu house at Berkeley.

Eric Holland—I’m going to trick the trick or treaters.

Past Ghosts

they held a fall festival, a sort of Pagan Thanksgiving. During these festivals, the Sun God was thanked for providing a good harvest.

In keeping with the harvest theme, nuts were roasted, later on, the young people bobbed for apples, signifying thanks for the harvest. This custom, of course, continues today.

Although there was light and mercy made in the Druid Hallo-weens, the orgies had a more sinister side, too. Ghosts, witches and assorted spirits were said to wander around, and the Lord of Death was supposed to call together all the wicked souls who had died in the last twelve months — souls who had been condemned to inhabit animal bodies. This merry-mannered cortege—the “countryside,” making life exciting but hazardous. After the night had been spent around the blazing bonfire, a stone-count was made. That is, each person had placed a stone in the fire the night before, and all the stones were counted in the morning. If some stones were missing, the number of people would meet their end before another year passed.

and is expected to be released from his straitjacket any day now. Meanwhile, investigation is under way to determine if these witnesses are primarily no-doze addicts, or are simply under mental strain from the frenzy of college life.

“Who’s knockin’? . . . Come on in! . . . C-C-Casper!”
