Get Your Tickets

Students are reminded to pick up their student tickets for the San Diego Renegade game by tomorrow noon at the student business office next to the college bookstore.

Persons who have purchased an activities card are admitted to the game free, but they must present their card to receive a ticket. Miss Edna Taber, student body business manager, said.

The veterans' club will usher at the game and will check tickets of those sitting in the rooting section.

Frosh Council Plans Activities

The first meeting of the executive board of the frosh class council will be held Monday in conference room in the campus. The fresher council has only recently been set up, with the following officers elected: Tony Kintz, president; Grace Rogers, vice president; Joan Lack, secretary; Ronnie Leonards and Bob Hackney, representatives. These people will represent the frosh class on the executive council.

FROSH REPRESENTATIVES

Representatives to the frosh council will include two persons chosen from each orientation class. The full council will meet on the first and third Thursdays of each month with executive board meetings on the Mondays preceding each council meeting.

The first project for the council will be plans for the "Potato Bowl Dance" which is to be sponsored by the frosh class.

Three other important activities of the council are to collect and disseminate information of interest to the frosh class, to represent the frosh class at all executive meetings, and to raise money for class expenses.

YEAR'S PROGRAM

Tony Kintz, speaking for the frosh class officers, says, "We are going to attempt to utilize all of our ability to provide complete coverage of school activities, to provide information, and to further the interest of the frosh class.

ATTEND BIG DANCE

What are your plans for the hours after the game? Plan on including two hours at the campus center patio where the college choir is presenting the "Music Mixer." Between the hours of 10 and 12, the nobles will set the mood for meeting new faces and furthering old acquaintances. There will be fun and food, drink and dancing, friends and music. It's just the place for discussing our victory over San Diego.

Card Section To Spark Game

A gleaming, colorful replica of the American flag will highlight the half-time activity of the 660-student card stunt section at the Bakersfield College-San Diego game Saturday night, Marilyn Valentine, chairman of the rally committee, announced today.

The 66-piece Renegade Band, under the direction of Clarence Wiggins, will present a series of band formations introducing various musical instruments, Miss Valentine said. Musical arrangements built around the marching formations will salute the particular instruments which will include the trombone, the piano, and the violin, and a trumpet, S. D. SALUTE.

Other card designations scheduled for the Saturday night show include a salute to San Diego Junior College and the reproduction of a sailor's hat, a life preserver, a mansion, a boat, and an anchor.

The card stunters will conclude with the flash on of a Renegade knight and the traditional signoff spelling of B.C. with the letters flipping from red to white.

Students who desire to sit in the card section and take part in the card program will be required to wear either a white shirt or a white sweater. Miss Valentine said. For those who have neither, a white sheet or towel to drape over their clothing during the EFFECTIVE STUNT.

Miss Valentine pointed out that the effectiveness of the stunt depends, in part, upon a careful, unbroken line that will be a permanent part of the card stunt.

Rally Today

The Rally Club announced that a rally will be held Friday, fourth period, in the gym, according to Marilyn Valentine director of rallies. Students are to enter by the main entrance, Miss Valentine said.

The rally will feature the Renegade Pep Band, under the direction of Clarence Wiggins, the men's chorus, under the direction of Warren Wheatland, Herbert Boken, director of the college and rally advisor, the college Sextet, directed by Bill Kelllher, and the song and yell leaders.
How's Your School Spirit?

Two weeks ago the college ranking section was filled with "The Fall" to see the newly formed "Republic of the Philippines". Students have been decided that they will not go to any more frat parties if we go to the Junior Rose Bowl games. The only way to satisfy the need is, and it is better be good luckers than to be poor winners, whether on the field or in spiritus conductum. This is how we have learned to be proud of our school spirit.

Need Your Support

Like the football team, the song, yell, and student leaders are all getting up to the fight. We elected them to represent us and we should follow their ideas as true followers. With the first game so close to the start of the season, we need to introduce the players to the stands and it was a success. There was no rivalry among either the leaders or the team. In the yells and the fight songs, we have been ready for the first game and given little time to prepare for a first public performance.

When Saturday evening, the 22nd of September came, many of us forgot that we had just elected these officers only days before and that they were together as a group for the first time with very little practice.

Represent Us

We also forgot that we had voted them into these offices to represent us. Some of us complained. We probably complained more to us since we have been living with them. We haven't learned that we can't have our cake and eat it too.

This week we have our second home game with San Francisco. We have a great responsibility to represent us and make sure that all is not lost in football. We still have a chance. Maybe we should turn in full force for our last game to show that we are appointed to turn them all on in whatever they do to show the team that we are ready. Have we got the same spirit that we did last year?

Renegades Push Over Panthers With Strong Ground Attack

Bakersfield’s potential offensive attack clicked early in the first half as the Renegades ran wild on the Santa Monica field in the opening game of the season. The Renegades, who have been practicing in their own stadium, were able to score twice in the first half and hold off a late threat from Santa Monica to win 2-0.

Gade HARRIERS HOST VALLEY

Water Polo Compares To Team Drowning

Water polo, a crowd between valley ball and swimming without a lung, has been introduced to Valley Beach since the fall season of 1956. The first nine matches have been played on Monday and Friday nights.

Five-Bakersfield-sea fans are familiar with the regime of water polo which will be in the Valley Beach on October 12 at 11 a.m. The entire pool is available for viewing the game.

Briefly, a water polo match consists of two teams of seven men each, without getting caught during their opponents' game. The game is played in a swimming pool.

More specifically, each team has two forwards who are the chief attackers of the game. The two forwards are headed by the goal, aiming to score goals by playing at the center of the pool.

According to Dick Hartley, coach of the B.C. water polo team, the team has been working hard and is in good shape.

The team has been working hard throughout the summer, and is ready to tackle Santa Monica's Customs.

Situated themselves along the wall, the players are ready to score goals and take advantage of any opportunities to score more.

Franz Ford

Seems as though the most amazing thing about the new Ford is the pushbutton windows. When you finally figure out how to get them up, the main problem is to see if you can get them down without smashing some outdoor’s hand or arm.

The editor in this case was an innocent looking student admiring the new Ford. He was knocking against the car, with his arm in the window. When his arm started to rise, he thought he was going to be the first man to fly into Heaven without any wings or support. When his flight was broken a punching agency, he realized that it was just a girl (naturally) on the other side of the car trying to lower the window and who had accidentally pushed the wrong button that sent him creeping into the air. Anyone for a Ford that has a hand on it?

Some Quirks

A student managed to walk out in class last week and he immediately noticed the vice. "No, I forget to dry after showering."

"Rain is no reason to stop work," he remarked. "I can fix this anywhere."

The new Bakersfield College campus, as everyone is well aware, is the first in the area. The only reason of distinction among the innumerable culture vultures from the main campus that find that home was never like this. They are expected to keep the dorms shining clean. One student was quoted as saying, "It’s all smiles." Oh, the rigors of college life!

Little Man on Campus

One For the Men

Construction workers. It seems he was ordered to continue washing the grounds.

Noble Stockton, BC English instructor, was in the mood for a spelling session when he asked a student what about continuing the study quietly explained.

"You love it as it is," he remarked. "Why is it that the student answered, "Yes."

Last Saturday evening saw low college students waving their little flags for help at their cars. Parked underground, Sherrill Freeze and Alvin Carter members of the dance orchestra, the Noodles, were on the way to the Campus Center with their instruments in their cars to protect them from the rain. The parking spot behind the building was given way to underneath and the two automobiles have not left for the night.

Veterans Usher

Student Delegates at Football Games Attend E.C. Meet

The Veterans Club, one of the most active clubs on the campus, composed of honorable discharged veterans, follows their service to their country by now serving their college.

The Veterans Club has offered its services to the student body, other than just in the football games. This eliminates the necessity of hiring staffs and also makes sure that the BC Bakersfield College teams are cheered in the student body. The flag, which is used in the student body, now houses a white shirt or sweater is teddy in the contest.

The Vet Club is active in sponsoring a clean-up in the student center. They have signed up at hand-pointers interested in the cooperation of the students in keeping the campus clean.

On October 16, College Dedication Day, the Vet Club will continue to serve the college by having open house for the guests and open house to the visitors who are interested in the college.

Gen Kaulback, freshman, known for her bubbly personality, is the Vet’s Club girl of the month.

There seems to be a rumor going around that Bakersfield College is making a serious threat to the Metro College Football Conference. If this is true, it could be a strong indication towards the emergence of Bakersfield as a serious power in the state of California.

The team has been unbeaten by San Mateo College, the San Mateo College Raiders, and the San Mateo College Bears. This is quite a feat since San Mateo College has been dominant in recent years.

The Bakersfield team has scored 6 touchdowns and 9 field goals in their last 3 games. They have only allowed 13 points in those games, making them a force to be reckoned with.

The team's defense has been exceptional, allowing only 17 points per game. They have also forced 8 turnovers in their last 3 games, which is a testament to their defensive prowess.

Overall, it seems that Bakersfield College is on the verge of a league championship. Let's see how they fare in the upcoming games.
A COMFORTABLE HOME PLUS
MADE TO ORDER SOCIAL LIFE

All the comforts of home, with added ambiance and social lifeality, is the idea that has been put into practice at the new Bakertield College Women's Residence Hall.

The hall is designed to be a home away from home for students who want to continue their studies while also enjoying the social life of college life.

The hall is equipped with all the necessary amenities, such as a kitchen, laundry facilities, and a living room.

The goal is to create a welcoming and comfortable environment for students to live and learn in.

Letter to the Editor

A college can only be rated by the actions of the students who attend it. If the students at our school are not pleased with a new campus, it is obvious that they will feel the same way about the old one.

Students need to be involved in the decision-making process for their campus, not just left out as observers.

Gage Quarterback Jim Napier gets set to fire as Valley Red Dogs move in. L.A. finally eked out a 13-7 victory.

El Caminoans Host Renegades Tomorrow

Down goes the attendance again. This statement will probably hold true a week from now providing BC doesn't host El Camino tomorrow afternoon. The Stadium held a large crowd last week when 11,500 fans attended.

Just as the Gades began to rout the line-up, a well-known and rugged footballer from Los Angeles Valley and beat them out of form again.

Last Saturday at Memorial Stadium the Monarchs, with excellent passing on the part of Bill Severn and bone-crushing thrusts through off-tackle by Tom Uyeda and company, marched to a 13-7 win over the Renegades.

The first TD was set up with a striking 70-yard pass and run play from Severn to Wilder. Taking the loss on his own 45, Valley's Wilder flashed to the Bakersfield 12 where, on continuous line bucks, they went over for 6 points. Roger Nezelt added an extra point; and with 11 minutes still left in the half, the Monarchs were ahead, 6-0. With 4:05 down and goal line at 12, Uyeda sneaked over for Valley's second touchdown.

The Renegades saw the return of quarterback T. H. Lockard for approximately 4 plays. He was helped off the field shortly after coming into the game. He suffered a leg injury; Mike Butcher, guard, was taken out of the game in the second half with a shoulder injury.

Bakersfield finally broke into the scoring path with about 9 minutes left in the game, Napier, on 4th down and 10 yards to pay dirt, passed to Fitzgerald in the end zone. Willis Hill converted and the score stood at 13-7.

Harriers Run 2nd in Big SAC Meet

BC's vaunted Harriers lived up to their expectations yesterday, pleasing second in the big Mt. San Antonio College invitational meet, being edged by the host team, 67 for SAC, 74 for the Gades.

Long Beach placed third with 37, Modesto fourth with 100, and Santa Monica fifth with 164. Behind the leaders were 14 other schools.

Larry Ward led the defending champions to the crown, covering the 12.7-mile course in a record-breaking 33:33.5, shattering his standard of 33:47 set earlier this season.

Bakersfield's Miles Eisenman led the Gade runners, placing seventh in 14:08. He was followed by Jim Wren, eighth in 14:13, and Jerry Strong, ninth in 14:22. This vital bunching in head positions was the margin of Red and White success.

Kenny Napier followed in 19th position in 14:39, and Vernon Crawford was the last Gade runner to score, nabbing 31st in the time of 14:53.

Homer Beatty's squadron is concentrating all of its thoughts on El Camino, whom it meet tomorrow night away from home.

After last week's loss to Valley, the Gades now hold on to a 2-1 conference mark.

All Metro Conference teams will be kept in suspense until the final second of their respective tilts, since four of the eight teams are tied for the top spot. Those include Bakersfield, East Los Angeles, El Camino, and Los Angeles Harbor.

Both the Gades and the El Camino rivals, will be trying to make the margin win as high as possible, since last year the tilt wound up in a 6-0 tie.

The El Caminoans offer power in that 10 of the 11 first string positions are occupied by returning lettermen, Gary Malloy, who placed tackle in the 1954 edition of the Little Rose Bowl, is among them.

On the other tackle is Dale Hill, one of the best tackles in the conference, according to a recent press release.

Fullbacking the rival offensive attack is Dick "DDT" Trouble Dangelo, an explosive runner at 220. At quarterback will be Larry Manly, who last year was seen occupying the end spot.

The team's average weights are as follows:

| Line    | 220        |
| Team    | 194.9      |
| Tackle-to-tackle | 204.6     |

Speaking of something closer to home, let's see one of our Intramural facilities go to waste but instead use them to full advantage. Bakersfield College has one of the best recreational setups in the state or for that matter, in the nation.

Jack Frost, Intramural advisor, remarks, "We're now featuring basketball, handball, and ping-pong. Why not follow in the steps of the Veterans and Craftsmen who have already registered teams for basketball?"

Coach Frost reminds all participants to keep an eye on the PC bulletin board for the respective scheduled events.

Freshman Plays Class "B" Ball

Dale Scates, freshman at Bakersfield College, has hopes of playing triple "A" baseball for the Sacramento Solons of the Coast League this summer.

Scates, a first baseman, graduated from Shafter High in 1953 and started playing class "A" ball with the Visalia Cubs of the California League.

His second year he transferred to Odessa, Tex., also class "A," where he batted .281 in his third season as a pro.

In his third season as a pro, Scates moved up the ladder to Class "B" playing first base for Ballinger, Tex., of the Southwestern League, with Ballinger, he batted .280, drove in 102 runs, and blasted 21 home runs.
