AWS Fashions Feature "Shipboard Romance"

AWS will hold a fashion show during eighth and ninth periods today, according to Marlon Wright, ASR president. The show will be held in the campus center patio, with refreshments being served midway through the program.

Theme of the show will be centered around a "Shipboard Romance" on board the S.S. Collegiennne. Script was written by Marie Alyward and Leslie Fowler. Miss Fowler will also narrate the show. Sue Sheffer has acted as coordinator of the fete, while Sheryl Goodhue has been in charge of models.

Miss Shirley Myers and Mary Carmen Strelic have acted as advisors, and some 16 BC coeds have been selected to model the sport and formal apparel.

Clothing for the affair was furnished by Brock's, Vogue, Joanne's, Tibble's, Christians', Hazel Molberg's, The Frock Shop, Cinderella, and Silva's.

Vets Dance Uses New "Cool" Pool

Notice anything different about the campus center lately? The "cool" pool at the rear of fitness area is not a fragment of your imagination, but is a substitute for the Olympic-sized pool in the gymnasium.

This 15,000-gallon plastic pool from Burke's Variety Store, has been set up under the direction of Bakersfield sophomore Dick Burke to publicize the forthcoming Associated Veterans' Beachcomber's dance.

The dance will be held Saturday in the Campus Center. Vets officers are trying to hire a band from Fresno which features a group of Polynesian singers.

During the dance the pool will be covered with floating flowers and a couple of dozen exhibitionist gold fish.

News Flashes

A contest is being sponsored by the Associated Students of Bakersfield College in search of an official college seal and crest. This seal is to be placed on the palms and is to bear the official seal of Bakersfield College. The contest is open to any day or evening student at Bakersfield College.

The second section of day classes in standard first aid began Tuesday, April 9. This class, which yields one unit, will meet two days a week until the close of the semester during the following periods: Second period, TTH; third period, TTH; fourth period, TTH. This course is a graduation requirement. Registration may be accomplished in the records office this week.

Editorial:

Ed. note:

This is part of a letter written by Bill Lowe, Bakersfield College student, to instructor Fred Gibbs of the math department. It was written while Bill was in the Veterans Administration Hospital in Fresno, recovering from an automobile accident. It is a simple letter. So are accidents. Let's watch it over the holidays.

Dear Professor:

This is a day for fools and one fool who got in a hurry. I'll see you back in class when I get there.

Tell Moares I'm up on my feet today but I'm seeing four images where two should be. Boy, you should be up here: these nurses are real-ly something! What's wrong with Bill? Now here's a list: Nothing wrong with eyes (I can see out of them—just need glasses, but I needed them before), nothing with ears or nose—Face just broken on left side and on right above eye tooth. Roof of mouth is broken—upper jaw is broken from hinge to hinge (16-18 stitches in my mouth and three still inside). All stitches now taken out of my eyes and a broken shoulder, not serious though. Bill says, "I was ugly before but you just should see me now."
EASTER BONNETS SCINTILLATE AS

Swim Suits to Feature Pleats;
Man to Have Trim Styles

BY CHERRY NINTMANN

Shearing, pleats and front and back combinations are, according to Mrs. Cassimati, sportswear co-ordinator of Riggs, hot developments this season.

All Decked Out

Dressed in the latest, Easter styles are Leslie Feuster and Del Gilliam as they prepare themselves to join in the "Easter parade," from Coffee

SOUND OFF

Dear Editor:

Your feature, "Disguised," that I am diagnosed as havinger, and all other members of the fashion fraternity, a huge student who is able to criticize fashion, appeal, but who seems to be ashamed to sign his name. I refer to a letter to the editor in the Renegade Rip on March 29, 1967.

In my opinion, as it is, a student attending college is old enough to know what is appropriate dress. I think the unwritten standards for good dress are followed very well on our campus.

To reply to Dispatches's remark on Levitch, I have yet to see a pair of "flirty, grimy Levi's" on campus. As far as Levitch in general, what's wrong with the way she looks?

I'd rather see a boy in Levi pants falling down, and I have been under the impression that the main purpose of a bell was to hold up said pants.

I do not wish to cast any doubts as to the places that disguised most frequent, but "over-the-counter"-dress wear-out of style several years ago. It is a known fact that most able-bodied would rather be dead than wear this style. Disguised, if the shoe flies, wear it.

To turn now to the "wearing coat," I refer once again to the pieces on campus where Distressed, pants fallen down. There are, I grant, some girls who do appear in dirty, white bucks and petal-pants, but the majority of my campus dressers are in good taste. Regarding the "general slovenly appearance," I find that Mr. Wil-

Dear Editor:

Your feature, "Disguised," that I am diagnosed as havinger, and all other members of the fashion fraternity, a huge student who is able to criticize fashion, appeal, but who seems to be ashamed to sign his name. I refer to a letter to the editor in the Renegade Rip on March 29, 1967.

In my opinion, as it is, a student attending college is old enough to know what is appropriate dress. I think the unwritten standards for good dress are followed very well on our campus.

To reply to Dispatches's remark on Levitch, I have yet to see a pair of "flirty, grimy Levi's" on campus. As far as Levitch in general, what's wrong with the way she looks?

I'd rather see a boy in Levi pants falling down, and I have been under the impression that the main purpose of a bell was to hold up said pants.

I do not wish to cast any doubts as to the places that disguised most frequent, but "over-the-counter"-dress wear-out of style several years ago. It is a known fact that most able-bodied would rather be dead than wear this style. Disguised, if the shoe flies, wear it.

To turn now to the "wearing coat," I refer once again to the pieces on campus where Distressed, pants fallen down. There are, I grant, some girls who do appear in dirty, white bucks and petal-pants, but the majority of my campus dressers are in good taste. Regarding the "general slovenly appearance," I find that Mr. Wil-

Dear Editor:

Your feature, "Disguised," that I am diagnosed as havinger, and all other members of the fashion fraternity, a huge student who is able to criticize fashion, appeal, but who seems to be ashamed to sign his name. I refer to a letter to the editor in the Renegade Rip on March 29, 1967.

In my opinion, as it is, a student attending college is old enough to know what is appropriate dress. I think the unwritten standards for good dress are followed very well on our campus.

To reply to Dispatches's remark on Levitch, I have yet to see a pair of "flirty, grimy Levi's" on campus. As far as Levitch in general, what's wrong with the way she looks?

I'd rather see a boy in Levi pants falling down, and I have been under the impression that the main purpose of a bell was to hold up said pants.

I do not wish to cast any doubts as to the places that disguised most frequent, but "over-the-counter"-dress wear-out of style several years ago. It is a known fact that most able-bodied would rather be dead than wear this style. Disguised, if the shoe flies, wear it.

To turn now to the "wearing coat," I refer once again to the pieces on campus where Distressed, pants fallen down. There are, I grant, some girls who do appear in dirty, white bucks and petal-pants, but the majority of my campus dressers are in good taste. Regarding the "general slovenly appearance," I find that Mr. Wil-
TRACKSTERS EDGE HUSKIES; KEEP SECOND SPOT IN LEAGUE BATTLE

Putting the skids under both E.L.A. and Santa Monica college Friday, coach John Collins and Dick Harkins leave tomorrow for a two-day visit in the southland where they meet San Diego College in the last dual meet of the metro-schedule.

Led by J. C. Phillips who came through in the sprints to make a gamble by coach John Collins pay off, and Harvey Warren who annexed the quarter mile in the other crucial event of the day. The Gades survived a disqualification in the relay to beat the Huskies 65-60, and the Corsairs, 80-42.

Miles Eisenman won the mile in 4:31 and nipped teammate Vern Crawford in the two mile to win in 9:57.8. Crawford ran 9:58.

Ronnie Provost suffered his first defeat in the shot and discus, and Norm Violin winning the events. Ed Osteen annexed the high sticks for another Gade first.

NETTERS FALL TWICE AT L.A.

The Bakersfield College tennis squad had it pretty rough over the weekend as they were trounced soundly by El Camino, 7-3 Friday and then beaten again this time by Long Beach City College, 7-2, Saturday at Lakewood.

The afternoon the Renegades meet Santa Monica on the home-town courts.

Golfers Rally to Beat Monarchs

Bakersfield College golfers managed to retain second place in the league standings last Monday by barely edging Los Angeles Valley, 19-17 here at the Country Club course.

The match started out with the Gade's number one, two, and three men, Don Wise, Dick Ferris, and Jack Goehl, losing to the end. Henriksen and Rennell, 6-0, 6-0, and 4-2. The Renegades really had to pick their shots to pull it out of the fire and that's just what happened as Renegade Jack Santos triumphed over Jackson, 6-0. Jay Verhaag beat Miller, 6-0, and Jerry Urry outdistanced Barest, 6-1.

With the score over Valley, coach Jack Frost's boys now hold a three won and four lost record in league play. The Monarchs are currently occupying second place in the BC meet. Long Beach next Monday in Los Angeles.

Week's Coming Events

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>BASEBALL</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>April 13—Salem, Ore. at Wasco.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>15—Lewiston, Idaho, here.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>17-19—Bakersfield College Invitational.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>TRACK</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>April 13—San Diego at San Diego.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>16—Bakersfield Invitational (Colinda, COS, Fresno).</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Reeder and Santa Barbara.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>GOLF</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>April 12—Long Beach, here.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>April 13—Santa Monica, here.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>April 22—Long Beach at Longwood CC.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Gades Win 6-5 in 12th

The Renegade diamond crew brought their league record back up to the .500 mark by nosing out the El Camino Warriors over the weekend by a 6-5 count in 12 innings.

The game takes a rest from league play for two weeks, but will tangle with a couple of pro clubs this weekend and then host seven other clubs next week in the annual BC Invitational Tournament.

The Gades will meet the Salem, class B team of the Northwest League at the Wasco hall park at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon and then venture to Sam Lynn for an 8 p.m. game with the Lewiston, Idaho—Browns of the same league.

The game should be a good crowd if the weather stays warm.

The Renegades first opponent in the BCIT tournament is Santa Barbara and then the Gades automatically wins the consolation trophy of last years tournament.

The final game last year was rained out and this is the first opportunity the two finalists have had to play it off. It is scheduled for 10 o'clock Wednesday morning.

Wren, Porras, to Head Lettermen

The Letterman's Club of Bakersfield College has been recently reactivated and is in the process of organizing at the moment.

At their last meeting, Jim Wren, a very capable distance runner on the track team, was elected president, and Ray Porras, a member of the 1934 champion football team, was installed as the vice president.

Other offices were filled by Lee Goode as secretary, Jack Brown as acting treasurer, and Chris Carr was installed as the sergeant at arms.