College Hosts Ballet Group in November Performance

The Bakersfield College Office of Conferences and Lectures will present its second event of the year, the Southern California Ballet, under direction of Joseph J. Richard, the evening of November 22 in the College Theatre.

The youthful company, which gave its premiere performance last month at the Whitley Field Theatre in Los Angeles, will do four ballets: "Beauty and the Beast," "Ballet Russe," by Shostakovich, "The Sea," and "Brahms Magnificat No. 1."

Top Dancers

Some of the outstanding dancers in the troup are Helena Bennett, whose accomplishments have covered everything from the Mickey Mouse Club to the New York City Ballet Company; Joan Alldred, who has danced with the San Francisco Opera Ballet and has been seen in many movies; Margaret Borkowski, who has appeared with the San Diego Civic Light Opera; and Bernadette Clark, who has danced on TV shows and been seen in many movies with top Hollywood stars.

First Rate

The Office of Conferences and Lectures is especially pleased to bring the dance group because it is the beginning of the establishment of a first rank dance organization on the West Coast similar to such companies as the New York City Ballet and Ballet Theatre.

General admission for the concert is $2.25, but student body card holders will be able to purchase tickets at a $1 discount.

CHESTER AT 19TH.
American Version

Origin of Football

By Mike McKeans

Football made its appearance here in America as English colonists inhabited the country and made themselves a nest. The game evolved from an English sport called "mobbing," which was played outdoors and encompassed a variety of rules and scoring methods.

The first recorded game of football in America was played in 1823 in New York.

In 1846 the American football Association was formed, which established rules and standardized the game. This Association played its first high school football game at Massachusetts Academy in Worcester, Massachusetts.

In the early years of American football, there were many variations of the game, with rules changing frequently. The game evolved into a more controlled and structured sport as it gained popularity.

The game of football continued to evolve, and today it is played by millions of people around the world.

Renegades vs. Huskies
For Metro Second Spot

By Phil Novak

The opening night in American football featured the rejuvenated Renegades against the Huskies in a match that had many looking at the Metro area for the second spot in the Metro Conference.

The Renegades, who had recently defeated the Huskies 9-7 in a thrilling game last week, were expected to take the Metro second spot. The Huskies, however, were in a must-win situation to keep their hopes alive.

The game was a hard-fought battle, with the Huskies scoring the first points of the game on a 1-yard touchdown run by quarterback Skeeter Bush. The Renegades responded with a 2-yard touchdown run by running back Dave Stahl.

The game ended in a 14-14 draw, leaving both teams in a tie for the Metro second spot.

Harriers Take Third;
Ready for Next Meet

Last week's meet against Blissfield introduced the Harriers to the hard-hit district meet. The meet was held at Blissfield and was the third in a series of six meets.

The Harriers finished third, behind Blissfield and Monroe.

The meet was a challenging one, with many of the Harriers competing for the first time at the district level.

The Harriers will be competing again this week, with a meet designated for the regional level.
