28 Student Body, Class Officers To Be Chosen in Election

We need officers! These words of student body secretary Joan Rauser well explain the situation for the upcoming student body and class elections. A full slate of freshmen, veterans, as well as song and yell leaders and nine student body officers are needed.

This fall's election will be held next Wednesday, September 18, and sign-up begins in the office of Mr. Heffernan, in Administration B. Deadline for signing up is Wednesday, September 11.

Heading the vacancies in the student body list are the Directors of publicity, rallies, assemblies, athletics, and student activities. The chief justice and two associate justices of the student court are needed, as are the AMS officers.

The Sophomore class will have to elect a vice president and two representatives. Freshman class officers include a vice president, president, secretary and two representatives. Students will also elect five song leaders and, under last year's Constitutional amendment, three male yell leaders.

Requisite for running is a "C" average in last year's grades. Freshmen may run for any of the above offices except chief justice of the student court, and Sophomore class offices. Candidates must be student body card holders.

Dr. Simonsen Is New Veep for BC

EDITORIAL

Campus Comes to Life

With the arrival of the fall semester, the campus center again becomes a sphere of campus energy. The many opening activities of the school year will be highlighted tomorrow night at the "Renegade Ball" held in the center.

To help freshmen get better acclimated with students and life at B.C., other functions have been planned for the next few weeks. Upcoming events will be presented by an assembly next Friday. The following Friday will see the first football rally of the season, prior to the Gaels' meeting with the Eulerays from Grey's Harbor, Washington.

These begin an eventful year at B.C.

Prator Welcomes Students to B.C.

To the Student Body:

Education today has a new dimension—public relations. Newspapers, periodicals, radio and television programs are used to bring the viewpoints of campus leaders—students, faculty and administrators—to the attention of the nation. In this new climate, the students of B.C. have a responsibility to become better informed and to keep abreast of educational developments.

We are all students, and as such we are responsible for our own education. The goal of education is to prepare us for the future, and the future is changing. We must be prepared to meet these changes and to take advantage of the opportunities that will be available to us.

I am pleased to assume that you will be associated with a high-quality college faculty, and I believe that you have been selected with great care and attention to the qualities and interests that make up our student body.

As the new academic year begins, I hope that you will take advantage of the opportunities that are available to you. I encourage you to participate in extracurricular activities, to explore new ideas and to develop your own interests.

I hope that you will become a part of the B.C. community and that you will help to extend yourself in every way. This is the first step in becoming an integral part of our college.

Knowing that this is a challenging time for you, I wish you the best of luck. As you begin your college career, I hope that you will find the knowledge and guidance that will help you in your endeavors.

I am pleased to welcome you to this twenty-second year and I hope that you will enjoy the experience of college life.

BC Meets Hartnell

The BC men made their mark against the Salinas Hartnell Panthers as the Memorial Stadium turf this Saturday before embarking on the 57 Metro Conference schedule. The reinvigorating Panthers will be the last of revenge for bowing to the Gades 26-13 last year.

Quarterback Jim Napier made the initial Gade score in the first quarter, followed by a short run around right end. Another TD by fullback Willie Brown ended the first quarter.

Gades Go On Spree

The third and fourth quarters were played at the same high-tempo level as the Gades added 22 points more. The scores were effected on a three-yard stuff by halfback Carl Bowser, a three-yard scamper by fullback John Campbell, a two-yard pass on a 25-yard drive over tackle by speedy halfback Nolan Campbell. This was followed by another Gade score in its solo form in the first few minutes of the last quarter.

Bakersfield's TD's

BC had two TD's, including a 10-9 for the course. This was very good, but not quite as impressive as the 22 he six in last year's state meet.

KPMC Reports Games Through 'Californiaan'

"If you are unable to attend any of the Bakerfield College football games, you can hear all the action from radio. station. KPAC. Bob Elia will be announcing the Renegade games for his sixth year, this season sponsored by the Bakerfield Californian newspaper.

Elia Has Background

Elia has a very broad background, both actively and on the radio waves. While attending Columbia University in his home-town of New York City, he played football, basketball, and starred in baseball as well as excelling in hockey.

Graduation with a B.A. in English in 1939 was followed by service in the armed forces during World War II. It was during his stint in the service that Bob decided to 'plug into the sports announcing field.'

Sportscaster's Fluff

And then he was back in his place, back to the league's end. It was then that the Renegade gained on KPAC for 1630 NILES STREET.
