Ibsen’s ‘Enemy’ Readied
By College Stage Group

by Robert Griffith

Ibsen’s ‘Enemy of the People,’ a standing valid commentary on today’s Americas society, although it was written by Henrik Ibsen in 1882, will be staged by the Bakensfield College Players next Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, at 8 O’clock in the Ladentheater.

The local group will use the conventional setting, adopted by Arthur Miller. Director Frank Waw-son said the adaptation, Ver-zeny, will be brought up to date in language and locale, as not precisely close to Ibsen’s original scene.

Ibsen’s ‘Enemy of the People,’ a play of the truth better standing along against the truth, is even more meaningful today than when it was first performed.

Don Gregory, star in the role of Thomas Stockman, the idealistic doctor, will bring a fresh new realism to the controversy against him. Stockman makes a discovery that could spell financial ruin to his whole community, but in violation of the consequences, plans to publish the story in the People’s Messenger, run by three liberal newspapers. Aschalo, the publisher (Dick Credent), is helpful, an editor (Warren Low) and Billings, another editor (Harvey Marley).

Political situations presents this, and the whole town turns against Stockman and his wife, Catherine (Gordy Chumley), his daughter, Nora (Roberta Ragain), and her husband, Mortimer and Fritz (Tonyman and Elder Joly).

Bowman's Spring Banquet

Franking Privilege

by Jess Chambers

News Editor

Joe Bowman selected student president, resigned last Tuesday, and the resignation was read by Tom Bennett, ASB president, and accepted.

Bowman's conscience resulted in his resignation. He desired to return to his football team. The resignation was accepted before the Associated Student Council meeting on Tuesday, that in effect stated that all student body officers would be transferred from all student body but not to the social activities sponsored by individuals, but to the social activities sponsored by individuals. The money, however, was divided as to what was in the association, resulting in the resignation.

Chaplin Featured

in Silent Film

A silent film, ‘Chaplin’s Parade,’ will be shown in the Indoor Theater today, Thursday, Thanksgiving Day. This film, in a feat act directed by Mervyn LeRoy, stars Charlie Chaplin and Will Durante.

The old film has been shown on many college campuses and enjoyed by many students. Students are urged to attend and enjoy a few laughs.

Tests Required

New students entering Bakensfield College are required to take the entrance tests given by the Guidance and Testing Department before they are scheduled for counseling, according to Dr. Oreal Lunsford, director of guidance and testing.

The Associated Men and Women students, being the best students, are often involved in activities.

Here's What Candidates Are Promising, Saying

Student Body President

In his campaign comments, Ronde Nociole said that "I want to start a new era of leadership by having a student body that is not only involved in school affairs but also in the community."

There's a certain feeling among some students that the Board of Directors has become detached from the student body. Ronde believes that he can help to foster the connection by becoming more involved with the student body and offering them a voice in decision-making processes.

As student body president, Ronde plans to work on improving the relationships between the student body and the administration. He wants to ensure that students have a say in what happens at the school.

Ronde is currently a Senior in Business Administration and is an active member of the student body. He has been involved in various community service activities and plans to continue this involvement as student body president.

Ronde promised to make the following promises:

- Improving Student-Administration Relations: He plans to work closely with the administration to ensure that students have a say in decision-making processes.
- Community Service: He is committed to promoting community service activities and encouraging students to get involved in community service.
- Athletic Programs: He plans to work with the athletic department to improve the quality of athletic programs.
- Student Discounts: He promises to negotiate discounts for students on various products and services.

Basketballer Promotes BC Student Athletes

In his role as a basketballer, Bill Redfield is promoting the importance of BC student athletes. He believes that these athletes should be recognized for their hard work and dedication.

Bill encourages his fellow students to support the basketball team and other BC student athletes. He believes that their hard work and dedication deserve recognition.

Bill promises to make the following promises:

- Supporting Student Athletes: He plans to work with the athletic department to ensure that student athletes receive the support they need.
- Improving Facilities: He promises to work with the administration to improve the facilities for student athletes.
- Awareness Campaign: He plans to run an awareness campaign to promote the importance of student athletes.
- Recognition: He promises to work with the administration to ensure that student athletes receive the recognition they deserve.

Candidate Promises Flourishing

The candidates for Student Body President, Student Body Vice-President, and Student Body President-elect are currently conducting campaign meetings. They are also visiting local businesses and community organizations to discuss their campaign promises and goals.

The candidates are currently working on their campaigns and have not yet released any promises or goals. However, they are preparing for their campaign meetings and are excited to discuss their plans with the students.

Our old saying, 'Take it easy on the Boilermakers, they're just people,' doesn't seem to hold these days. The players are as tough as they come. In fact, they're tougher than any team we've ever faced. I don't know how we'll be able to beat them. But I do know that we're going to try. We've got a lot of heart, and we're going to put it all out there. It's going to be a tough game, but we're up for the challenge. We're going to give it our best shot. We're going to fight to the end. We're going to give it our all. We're going to show that we're not just a team, we're a family. We're going to prove that we're the best. We're going to win. We're going to beat the Boilermakers. We're going to smile. We're going to...
