THE RENEGADE STORY IN PICTURES — DETERMINATION,

TERROR OF THE METROPOLITAN CONFERENCE—Shown above is the starting defensive lineup which will probably be thrown at Cameron in the Junior Rose Bowl. Described by one pro football scout as "the most vicious JC defense I've ever seen," the 12-rock-ribbed Gades (Jerry Dow and Marvin Grim are alternate starters) have been the bane of Metropolitan Conference teams all year, allowing only two teams to score on them. They are Tom Nery (84), Ricky Swan (15), Grim (20), John Sellers (78), Dow (62), Earl Corley (68), Kenny Lott (12), Jerry Young (55), Leon Standridge (85), Bruce MacDonald (65), Ed Wiezke (81), and Clifford Chilton (126).

Hoopen Eye Revenge from Fresno After Winning Sixth Straight Game

The Renegades basketball fans extended their win streak to six games Saturday as they posted a hard-fought victory over College of the Sequoias at Taperse Arena. The Renegades ended the year on a high note as they prepare to face Fresno City College for conference. Bakersfield has now won their last six games after dropping their first three games.

Since 1917, the Renegades have dominated the basketball scene, with 1804 Wins and 13 losses. Since then, they have won the conference title every year except 1962.
