All Incumbents Triumph In ASB Election Tuesday

Don Roberts, has been elected Student Body President for the spring semester. Tuesday's ASB and class elections, in which Roberts won over Paul Myers by a 2-1 margin, resulted in a runoff election for the District Attorney position.

RepsBanquet Will Honor BC Leaders

Members of this semester's Board of Representatives and one semester's board will attend the annual Board of Representatives Banquet tomorrow evening at 7 p.m. The banquet, which is held to recognize outstanding students, will feature the presentation of the three student government awards:

1. Leadership Award
2. Service Award
3. Academic Award

The Scholarships, which will be presented by Miss Margaret Langham, Dean of Students, will be given to the Board members with the highest overall average.

The Service Award is presented by Mr. Collins on the basis of several factors. They include: degree of excellence in performing duties of their office, initiative in going beyond assigned duties, willingness to perform extra assignments when requested.

The basis for the Development in Leadership Award is the ability to recognize the need for action, organizing for action, and developing opportunities, building students for their responsibilities and maintaining harmony. Dr. Edward Simonson, President of Bakersfield College, will present this award.

The recipients of the various Board Board Scholarships will be selected by a committee of: Assistant of the Student Body Advisor.

Rob Evans, ASB President, will present certificates of merit to the board members who have served for the full semester. Evans will select next semester's Board members.

Kayla Michelle will entertain the Board members and their guests.

GADES FACE EL CAMINO 5 TONIGHT, STAND 1-1

The hot and cold Rendezvous basketball team of E.C. faced five tonight in the BC gym. The hot streak was ended by BC coach Jim Nau as a very good team. In last game, a fast game, the Gades had good outside shooting and are strong on rebounding. El Camino easily downed a good Harbor team last week.

The Gades take tomorrow night off and then will resume play next Friday at home. The starting five will probably be Lorne Thomsen, Bobby Koudoun, Don Mills, Ron Melia, and Al McDaniels. Forward Koudoun suffered a cut lip in the game and鲕; the word is he will be able to play tonight.

Friday night, the Gades opened their conference play on a winning note by downing Santa Monica 75-63. Poor shooting and a press bothered the Gades in the first half and held them to a tie at half. In the second half BC settled down and pulled away from the south crew.

AMS Cagers
Down Faculty

By 8 Points

A crowd of 250 excited students watched the Associated Men Students Down Faculty 27-19 last Friday in a heated basketball game.

Holding the monster for the faculty was Ron McHaffin, the high point man of the game. Jack Hisz, Robert Follow, Jack Hersh, Dale Soles, and Don Poole. The students were also led by two of the students, Ed Udell, team captain, Wally Parkinson, Dave Malmberg, Larry Graft, Jim Neris, Ray Triv, and Barry Wilson.

The student body was led in chants by Bobby Sorensen, Jere Davis, and Judy Mallot.

Coach Gets
Baseball Job
With Bears

Head BC Grid coach Ray Newman, who needs little introduction to most circles after this season, adds another notch to his supply of duties via an appointment as director of promotion and hitting for the Bears, local baseball team of the California League.

The appointment was approved by the BC 14-man board of directors and was announced by president Wally Beaudry.

While he definitely not give up his on-charging as coaching duties at BC, he will part-time on his new baseball assignment until the closing of the spring semester and then full-time during the summer.

Roundballers Drop
Sam Barry Touney

The Christmas holidays proved rough on the Gades in general, who dropped games to both Fresno and Hanover before entering tournament play at Santa Ana. There the Gades lost two games in two days.

Following Christmas, the Gades journey to Glendora for the Sam Perry Tournament. The four teams included: the Gades, St. Paul, Pasadena City, and Foothill. In the final, however, the Gades blanked the Rams 80-0.

It was the second straight year that the Gades moved seventh in the nation in national tournaments. Lorne Thomsen and Don Mills made the All-American team this year as well.

In distribution of awards, the Gades scored 5 points, Foothill 2, and Pasadena City and Glendora 1 point each.

Unbeaten Wrestlers
Eye Cal Poly Meet

Starting off with a rush, like the football team, the Rendezvous wrestlers won their second and third matches in a row during the past week. The unbeaten grapplers after a pre-Christmas 41-0 sweep over Calpoly JC, took Los Angeles City College by the same score last Friday, then Tuesday traveled to freshman to down Fennco City Calle, 19-14.

Tuesday, BC went into their next two matches trailing 14-11, but Joe Greco (91) decided Bobbly Cook 5-1 in the 137-lb. class, and captain Larry Carpenter (BTC) defeated Bill Long 12-7 in the 167-lb. event.

Champ Wins
The Gades were put in an early hole when Bob Fassler (125) and Chris Bradford (110) were defeated in close matches by Riles (137) was pinned in 2:30 of the third period. BC came back to take the next three matches, and it is up, setting the stage for two more matches.

Against LACC, the Gades were sound before they began wrestling. LA came out in cumber, two of them in the 167-lb. class. They forfeited the 125, 130, 157, 167, and 177-lb. classes.

Starting up the last time,帕玛爾和布里福德, both of BC, wrestled at exhibition, with the heavier Bridgford winning by decision, 6-3. Then, Motis, who was by for-in the 170-lb. class, wrestled LACC's second best, pounder, being hit by a decision. In the 147-lb. class, Dwain Frye decided on his opponent 8-5.

Two Gades Battle

Jim Bridger also won by decision. (157), then Carpenter and Duvall, both of whom had trouble with out of three matches, as the longest to.

In the 191-lb. class, Alan Adams was looking at a 7-0 record for this season, but opponent took to in the throw in the out of injured ribs, and Adams surpassed the 7-0 point. Ends, wrestling for Calpoly, had a heavy-weight class, pinned his opponent in 2:30 of the second period.

Tomorrow, the Gades closed to San Louis Obispo for the Cal Poly Invitational. They will next be back home, Fri., Dec. 19, at 4.30 in the gym against COS.
