Bakersfield Jazz Festival Starts

By DON DORR

When Gas McMath, legendary baritone saxophonist, offered the idea of a jazz festival to the Student Government of Bakersfield College, it was a step into the future.

With the success of the first annual Bakersfield College Audition at 9:30 on Friday, May 1, the second one will be held in the same location. This time the festival will be sponsored by the Student Government. The line-up includes Bill Andrews and the Blue Rhythm Band, The Flamingo Band, and the San Bernardino State College Orchestra.

TOURNAMENT NEEDS JUDGES

Judges are desperately needed for the upcoming speech tournament at Flsher High on Saturday, February 2. Mrs. Florence Glenn, North High, and Mr. Tom Hopper, North High, have volunteered as judges.

Any student who has had high school speech experience is qualified to be a judge. The tournament will be held at North High, and speakers in return to appreciate the efforts of their peers in the tournament. Those who need to be heard are invited to participate.

Clubs: Get a Good Publicity Man

How to get a publicity man in your club. The publicity man is in one of the most important club offices, perhaps, to the president. The publicity man is a third of the social organization of the club and should be utilized to some extent. The publicity man's duties include:

1. Preparing news releases and announcements.
2. Writing and distributing bulletins and newsletters.
3. Coordinating public relations activities with other club officials.
4. Assisting in the planning and execution of club events.
5. Maintaining records of club activities.
