Orientation Changes Proposed

A fine new program to attract BC students is a "Sophomore Seminar," proposed by the Orientation Committee. At the first committee meeting, Bill Jones, explained the program to the board.

The committee decided that there are many high school students who have not been introduced to the college world. In an effort to acquaint such students with the advantages of attending BC, the program will be introduced to them in the fall.

The seminar would be conducted by a team of two or three college students, selected on the basis of their academic performance and personal qualities. The students would be assigned to different high schools in the area, and would visit each school for a period of two to three days. They would be responsible for introducing the high school students to the college environment, and for answering any questions that they may have.

The seminar is designed to help high school students make an informed decision about whether or not to attend college. It is also intended to provide them with a sense of what college life is like, and to help them to develop the skills necessary for academic success.

The new program will be implemented in the fall, and it is expected to be a great success.

Big Dream Doesn't Register

By Ruth Clark

At the beginning of the year, Ruth Clark was looking forward to the future, and to all the opportunities that the college would offer. She had decided to major in English, and was excited about the possibility of working in a field that she loved.

But the reality of college life soon set in, and Ruth found herself struggling to keep up with the workload. She began to feel overwhelmed by the amount of reading and writing that was required, and she began to doubt her own abilities.

Ruth's situation is not unusual. Many students find it difficult to adjust to college life, and it is important that they receive support and guidance in order to succeed.

Tut Watchers Learn

By Ruth Clark

Tut Watchers is a group of students who meet regularly to discuss and analyze their training. The group is led by Bill Jones, who is a former Tut Watcher himself.

The Tut Watchers meet every week to discuss various aspects of their training, and to help each other with any problems that they may be experiencing. They are encouraged to ask questions, and to share their thoughts and experiences with the group.

The Tut Watchers are an important resource for new students, and they provide a supportive and encouraging environment for those who are struggling to adjust to college life.

New Crew To Replace Committee

By Alan Hunt

The current committee is retiring, and a new crew of students will be taking their place. The new crew will be responsible for planning and executing the activities of the club, and will be working closely with the faculty and staff to ensure that the club is able to continue to thrive.

The new crew is looking forward to the challenge of planning and executing a wide variety of activities, and they are excited about the opportunity to work with the faculty and staff to ensure that the club is able to continue to grow and develop.

In summary, the new crew is looking forward to the challenge of planning and executing a wide variety of activities, and they are excited about the opportunity to work with the faculty and staff to ensure that the club is able to continue to grow and develop.
Help Raise A Cafeteria

by Ron Long

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS

Sophs Lack Drive

Sophomore class had the most money to donate of all the class. And every of the college's football, was sponsored by the cheerleading team.

The basketball team, however, did not do as well. The football team did not donate any money at all.

Trick or Treat

Doggone People!

by Camille Carter

Here's $50 for the Athletic Team.

Stay In VN
Say BCites

Hope to Change Image

by Ken Long

The Vietnamese War has been going on for so long, it seems like there's nothing we can do about it.

We should just accept it and move on with our lives.

BC Claims California First

by D'Arin D'Ellis

The BC team has reached the final four in the NCAA tournament.

Jazzy Sounds Mark Big Band Comeback

The BC band will be playing at the

Shirley Hotel on Saturday night.

To any kid
who'd like to go somewhere:

We'll pay half your fare.

American Airlines

American Airlines
Wrestlers Enter Regionals

The answer is blowin' in the wind.

Our quality dress shoes are on the way up.

As advertised in Seventeen
Glamour Bazaar

BC Trackmen Invade SMCC

BC's SC Diving Champ
Coed Shares Board With Guys

Who's A Good Prof?
State Tourney Enters Round Two

BC Hosts Eight Outstanding California Junior College Basketball Teams

By Gary Wilson

The BC tournaments will be held today and tomorrow. This is a non-holiday season for the Debuggers and it is the only season where the Debuggers have a chance to win the league. The Debuggers have a chance to win the league if they win both games of the regular season.

Upper Breaker

The BC tournaments will be held today and tomorrow. This is a non-holiday season for the Debuggers and it is the only season where the Debuggers have a chance to win the league. The Debuggers have a chance to win the league if they win both games of the regular season.

Tracksters Face Falcons

By Alex Hunt

Thedebuggers versus the SF Falcons will be held today and tomorrow. This is a non-holiday season for the Debuggers and it is the only season where the Debuggers have a chance to win the league. The Debuggers have a chance to win the league if they win both games of the regular season.

Collins Backs Publications Board Proposal

By Dr. Snyder

Collins believes that the board of publications should be controlled by the faculty. This is his belief because it is his belief that the faculty should control the board of publications. He also believes that the board of publications should have the authority to hire and fire faculty members.

Six Characters: Play Within A Play

By Janine Chase

Six characters will be played by the faculty in the play. This is the play that will be performed at the end of the semester. The play will be about the faculty and the students and the faculty will be playing the students. This is the play that will be performed at the end of the semester.
BC Matmen End Season

BC Squad Takes 2nd In State

BC 9 Heads South

Gade Trackmen Visit East LA

BC Aquamen Travel;
Face Corsairs Today

Delano Labor Hearings Favor Unions

Would You Believe...?
A BC Cowboy Team

Controversy Fills Board Agendas

BC Students to Join
March to Sacramento

'We Are Number One'

T-Shirts, Ties
And Bermuda
Editorial

Bite the Helping Hand?

A recent article published in the official newspaper of the BC campus stated that, "Helping hands are given freely, but helping hands are never refused." It is imperative to point out that this statement is not entirely accurate. While it is true that helping hands are generally welcomed, there are situations where拒绝 assistance is necessary. Concepts of personal boundaries and consent should always be respected. Therefore, it is crucial to balance the gives and takes, ensuring that actions are performed with integrity and respect for others' autonomy.

A Student First? Or What?

As a student, your primary goal is to excel academically. However, the atmosphere in the BC campus has been tense recently. Many students are feeling stressed and overwhelmed, which can negatively impact their performance. It is important to take care of your mental health and well-being. Engage in activities that you enjoy, seek support from friends or family, and prioritize self-care. By doing so, you can maintain a healthy balance and achieve academic success.

Trick or Treat?

The Halloween season is upon us, and the BC campus is buzzing with excitement. While it is a lot of fun to dress up and participate in the festivities, it is important to remember the importance of safety. Pay attention to surroundings, avoid excessive drinking, and make sure you have a safe and enjoyable time.

There Was A Blatt; It Is No More

Recent events at the BC campus have brought into question the existence of the Blatt. While it was a beloved tradition, it is clear that the time has come to let it go. However, the memory of the Blatt will live on in the memories of those who participated in it. As we move forward, let us focus on creating new traditions and experiences that bring joy and community to our campus.

Are You Intrigued By Heavenly Bodies?

The stars align on Friday afternoon as the BC campus prepares for the upcoming astronomy event. It is a perfect opportunity to explore the beauty of the universe and gain a deeper appreciation for the wonders of the cosmos. Whether you are a seasoned astronomer or a casual observer, there is something for everyone at this exciting event.
SPORTS

BC Cindermen Eye Metro Crown

Tough Vikes Attempt Hold-up

In their quest for a third consecutive Metropolitan Conference track and field championship, Bob Quarles' Cindermen meet Long Beach today on the Viking track.

BC's 11-year team hasn't had much success in recent years as they were defeated by Long Beach last year. However, Bob Quarles' team has been steadily improving in recent years and is judged to be a tough opponent for the Cindermen.

The game is scheduled to start at 9 a.m. at Long Beach's new track and field complex.

Renegade Nine Hosts Falcons

Printing andfitting may be the feature attraction tomorrow at Bishop Field when the Renegade baseball team hosts the Centron Falcons. The fall season begins here next week.

The starting lineup will be Larry Horvat and Jon Berube. Grit and determination are the names of the game for the Renegades.

Tennis Team Travels

The five-room, six-story Metropolis Conference tennis tournament is set for play tomorrow at Bishop Field. The tournament is open to all players regardless of age and skill level.

In the five-room, six-story Metropolis Conference tennis tournament, the Renegades are expected to face stiff competition from the Falcons.

Simmers Host EC

The BC Simmers will host the El Camino in a variety of sports this week. The Simmers are expected to face tough competition from the visitors.

Gym Team-Lame Duck

The BC gym team, under the guidance of coach Bill Johnson, just managed to keep up with their chief rivals, the El Camino. However, they are expected to face tough competition from the El Camino in the upcoming matches.

SAM'S DARI DELITE

Try Good Food—On River Blvd.

Wickersham Jewelers

1511 19th—Downtown

Keyed-up students attended at Sheraton during spring and summer recreation and save money...

SPORTS

Troops Conquer

“Foreign Lands”

When will the troops be back?

No, the question doesn't refer to the American troops in Vietnam, but to the real-life troops of the Renegade basketball team. They have had four dual meets thus far—three victories—but their homecoming doubleheader against COS was a close fight.

The next meet will be held in foreign lands.

Gerry Wilson

GBC Golfers Try To Even Record Today

The Bakersfield College golf team will attempt to get back on top of the conference today at the UCA Invitational to be held at the Bakersfield Country Club. They have gained too much of an advantage this season to be taken lightly.