Jim Keifith as Randall, Mike Carter as Gla. and Belle Brown as Dona, return a scene from the BC production "Slow Dance on the Killing Ground." The play will open tonight in the Theatre, with further performances Jan. 17 and 18.

"Slow Dance on the Killing Ground" will make its West Coast opening at 8:00 p.m. on the stage of the BC Theatre. Under the direction of Robert Clower, this play presents the humorous and rejecting life of the young degenerate and the problems of the recent generation. The presentation by Robert Clower will be an attempt to present the show in a most stimulating fashion. The play is certainly not meant for those who are easily upset, but rather for those who enjoy laughter and like to be entertained.

The subject is the art, the theme is the magnificent Bobra. It is the story of a man who has been found dead in the kitchen.

CANDY IS CHEAP THRILL
or, is Candy true even to the book?

An Open Letter

Three social problems need attention today. A splendid mixture of pedestrianism, apathy, and complacency, all in a rather unappealing package. A defeated city, a city in need of a new face, and a city that needs a new direction. These are the social problems that need attention today.

Cagers 0-3 in loop

The Bakersfield College Community dropped a pair of Metropolitan Conference games over the weekend, losing at visiting Santa Maria, 74-68, and at home to the Bradshaw High School Vikings, 64-48.

The Cagers' record for the season now stands at 0-11-0, and seven of the last eight games have been decided at the last minute, with Bradshaw, which is 9-8-0, coming out on top of BC, 12-12.

The community's woes over the weekend were highlighted by undergraduate Bob Blythe, who located all three of his three-pointers from the field in the game against Bradshaw. The Cagers' last victory was over Bakersfield High School, 79-78.

The Conference Fliers, which has been the only team to have a winning record this season, met with a 6-6-0 mark, and its 12-12 record is the highest in the league.

Blythe's three-pointers were his first seven in the game, and he ended up with a total of 10 points in the game. BC, which shot 36.6 percent from the field, was led by Bob Blythe with 19 points, followed by Bob Blythe with 10 points, followed by John Blythe with 12 points.
