The changes of the homosexual community, however, while other groups may not be nearly so visible, is felt at AC, felt strongly by the "Gay". "Looking into the future," the "Gay" world now, to our community probably will not sit easy.

There’s a path in acceptance, but the hope beyond that path is not yet clear. It is the path of the future, I suppose. If they don’t know what the future holds, I don’t know how the audience and the administration would like it, it might not be a lot of trouble to those people. They are trying to say the same thing. It’s still the path of the future, I suppose.

The obstacles that confront those groups are indeed challenging in many ways. "Though we could segregate the meals on our own, I don’t know I would be doing it. I don’t know if I really believe in that," he said.

That path in acceptance, but the hope of the future lies not in that path. It is the path of the future, I suppose. If they don’t know what the future holds, I don’t know how the audience and the administration would like it, it might not be a lot of trouble to those people. They are trying to say the same thing. It’s still the path of the future, I suppose.

One way or another, the hope beyond that path is not yet clear. It is the path of the future, I suppose. If they don’t know what the future holds, I don’t know how the audience and the administration would like it, it might not be a lot of trouble to those people. They are trying to say the same thing. "Gay" militant's eye recognition

BY FERRO LEWIS

One of the most striking developments of the past year has been the growing interest in "Gay" recognition. The "Gay" community has been actively involved in this recognition, and it has been widely heralded as a major step forward in the fight for equality.

The growth of "Gay" recognition has been accompanied by a corresponding increase in understanding and acceptance. This has been evident in the media, where "Gay" people have been given more coverage than ever before. The "Gay" community has also been active in lobbying for "Gay" rights, and has been successful in gaining some important victories.

However, there are still many challenges ahead. The struggle for "Gay" recognition is far from over, and there is much more work to be done. But the "Gay" community can take heart from the progress that has been made, and work toward a future in which "Gay" recognition is fully realized.

KBC remodeling near completion

BY GARY CLARK

It was jubilation and a half a year ago that KBC,_bolstered (Red) Club's campus radio station, added its own to broadcasting on Campus Center to open an on-campus studio, thanks to some finishing touches, the work has been completed.

The studio itself has six offices, a new and a program office, separated by a glass wall. The new offices include three studios. There will be a program studio, a production studio, and an office. Each will be separated completely from the other, acoustically and physically.

The KBC remodeled for a better sound experience. The total studio space is 1,500 square feet, and the new offices include three studios. There will be a program studio, a production studio, and an office. Each will be separated completely from the other, acoustically and physically.

Many of the old equipment was used, but it was necessary to provide additional pieces. On a less hectic budget, station personnel were forced to buy some of their own.

The station was built entirely by radio personnel, some of whom had their experience that was "Without a doubt, the best way to enjoy the station is to walk down and listen to the music. The sound is great and the staff is friendly. We’re proud of the station and we hope you’ll join us soon."

The station’s tuning is "The KBC" is a good station and has been for years. It’s a real shame that it’s going to close."

Popcorn and 'pop porn' go hand-in-hand

RIP PHOTOS BY BEN DURHAM

Story by FERGIE LEWIS

Some people say it's better to find 'pop' entertainment at the theater instead of watching it on television. And, they may be right. For those who think watching movies at the theater is the best way to enjoy a good flick, it's true. But for those who prefer watching movies at home, it's a different story.

Theaters, like the local one in my area, are a great place to go to see a movie. You can choose from a variety of movies, and the theater itself is usually comfortable. But for those who prefer watching movies at home, there are some disadvantages.

For one thing, you have to go to the theater to see a movie. This can be a problem if you have a lot of other things to do. And, of course, there are some other disadvantages, too. For example, you have to pay to see a movie, and the food at the theater is usually more expensive than the food at home.

But for those who prefer watching movies at home, it's a different story. You can choose from a variety of movies, and you can watch them on your own terms. You can watch them at home, at night, in the middle of the day. You can watch them with your friends, or by yourself.

So, if you're looking to watch a movie, it's important to consider your options. Whether you prefer watching movies at the theater or at home, you can find a movie that you'll enjoy.

Here Is What Noted Stereo Critic Julian Hirsch Had To Say About The Advent Model 201 Cassette Deck:

"The Advent 201 easily met its specifications, and established itself at least for now as the best cassette recorder we know of."

"It is difficult to describe the quality of the Advent 201. The unit comes with a demonstration tape that had been dubbed onto Only One Tape by the specific machine into a Dekker "A" master tape. The sound quality, especially with the finest playback speakers and headphones, was literally exquisite, as was the total absence of any extraneous noise."
