Applications for Renegade Rip Ad Manager are currently being accepted by the Board of Publications. Interested candidates for the position should submit a letter of application to Dr. Jack McElroy with a copy going to Rip advisor Bertha Ollera.

Preparations for the job include soliciting ads, processing copy, writing copy when necessary, reviewing copy when necessary, ad layout and proofreading copy and one sheet to advertisers and making open ad to advertisers and other schools. The Rip Business Manager expects a stipend of $100 per semester. In addition, anyone who gets the job for the Rip is eligible for a 15% commission on all money up to $200 and $100 for each 10,000 bookkeeping.

A dependable form of communication is essential since the Business Manager is required to meet with advertisers and pick up and deliver advertising copy.

Conditions for the position will be determined by the Board of Publications at their meeting Wednesday in Thursday. The winner will be announced one week later.

Patrick Swift, sophomore political science major, has been appointed editor for the American Liberal Union. The first appearance of its kind in 91 years, the position is appointed by the Board of Directors of the local ACLU chapter.

The duties of the student liaison includes working with the ACLU answering write and coordinating programs sponsored by the organization on campus.

"Basically, what we do is refer people who call in to the ACLU organization that deals specifically with their problem," Swift said. "This enables them to answer the write, information, I find people are willing to demand rights. The problem is: they just don't know where to turn."

The organization has helped to sponsor a speech on Women in Politics during November, however, Swift explained, "The Women's Center is already active, we might not have to wait until January. I'm sure we will have Africans and Arabs and speakers throughout the spring.

Many people have asked me if I can be a reporter. But if they are as low as 10% for each 10,000 bookkeeping.

"However, it was oc touched 26,000, the 30% of which a hard in the initial " it suppose that they do have a lack of employment " others do too."
