Dignity restored by Ford

Gerald R. Ford issued the President's Thanksgiving. Two recent events behind the scenes had roused the American people, but none of these were as critical as the two which had roused President Ford. The two events that had roused the American people, but none of these were as critical as the two which had roused President Ford. The two events that had roused the American people, but none of these were as critical as the two which had roused President Ford. The two events that had roused the American people, but none of these were as critical as the two which had roused President Ford.

In his statement, President Ford talked about the dignity and warmth he would hope to help heal government ills. It was this, for the first time since Monroe Doctrine was established, that President Ford was able to help heal government ills.

Grapplers in Metro lead; looking for duals crown

By STEVEN GONGR
City Press Writer

Having competed in their first dual meet against Portland last week, North Division's wrestling team continued its winning streak by beating St. Mary's College on Wednesday last week. The win over St. Mary's raises the Cougars' record to 9-0. The team is currently ranked third in the nation, above Stanford and Stanford University.

North Division coach Curt Wasnic noted that the team's performance was solid, but they still have room for improvement. "We're working on our technique and we're trying to get our wrestlers to move faster," Wasnic said.

The Cougars will move on to compete against the University of Oregon next week. Wasnic is optimistic about their chances of winning. "We're really looking forward to the match," he said.

Gade quint wins over vacation

By TRACY RUSSELL
City Press Reporter

The Gade quint quint wins over vacation, which lasted for five days, yesterday at the Lake Tahoe Ski Resort in Nevada. The team, consisting of Mark, Mike, Jim, Jack, and Bob Gade, competed in the Senior Nationals, a major ski competition, and emerged victorious.

"We were determined to come back from vacation with a win," said Mark Gade. "We worked hard for this and it paid off." The athletes are now looking forward to their next competition, which takes place in Colorado next month.

RELAY IN TEN GAMES

Bob Cromy's unusually long wait for his first at-bat was finally over yesterday when he hit a single in the top of the fifth inning of the game. Cromy had been waiting over a month for his first at-bat, but was finally able to get up to bat yesterday. He hit a single off the pitcher's ball, and was later able to score a run for his team.

"I've been waiting for this moment for a long time," said Cromy. "I've been working hard to improve my game and it finally paid off." Cromy is now looking forward to his next at-bat, which is scheduled for tomorrow.

New Resident Advisors experienced in dorm life

By JOHN RAMOS
City Press Writer

A new resident advisor has been appointed to the BC dorms, and is expected to improve the quality of life for the residents. The new advisor, a senior at the college, has experience in dorm life and is looking forward to the new challenge.

"I've been looking forward to this for a long time," said the new advisor. "I'm excited to be a part of the BC community and to help make the dorms a better place for everyone." The advisor will be working closely with the BC administration to improve the quality of life for the residents.

Enrollment picture dismal despite media campaign

By JOHN RAMOS
City Press Writer

Despite a recent media campaign, enrollment at BC has shown little improvement. The college is currently projecting a significant decline in enrollment for the upcoming semester.

"We're all hoping for the best," said BC President John Collins. "But the enrollment numbers are not looking good. We're going to have to work hard to improve our situation." The college is currently considering a variety of options, including increasing tuition and offering more scholarships.

Monarchist Club plans campaign to elect '77 candidates

The Monarchist Club is planning a campaign to elect students to city council in the upcoming election. The club is hoping to get more students involved in the political process and is looking for candidates who are interested in running.

"We're looking for candidates who are dedicated to the Monarchist Club and who are willing to work hard to get elected," said club president Mike Smith. "We're also looking for candidates who are willing to listen to the concerns of the students and work for their best interests." The club is currently recruiting candidates and is looking for a diverse group of people to run for office.

Mr. Phinney goes to Washington

By JOHN RAMOS
City Press Writer

Mr. Phinney, a retired teacher, recently visited Washington, D.C. to meet with congressmen and learn more about the political process. He was able to meet with several congressmen and was able to ask questions about a variety of issues.

"I was really impressed with the way the congressmen were able to answer my questions," said Mr. Phinney. "I learned a lot about the political process and am looking forward to my next visit to Washington." Mr. Phinney plans to visit Washington again in the future.

AUGUST B. WODKA

Enrollment at BC was down significantly last month, with only 31 students enrolled. This is a marked decrease from the 51 students enrolled in the same period last year. The college is currently looking for ways to improve enrollment and is considering a variety of options.
Survey on bilingual ballots reveals "astronomical" costs

Kenney County spent $17,574 on special bilingual ballots in last November's election. Only 0.13 percent of the county's voters were Spanish-speaking. A recent survey of the state's 90 counties showed that Kenney's expenditure was the highest in the state.

Thirty-odd California counties are required to provide ballots in both English and Spanish because they meet the 2.5 percent standard used by the state. The counties whose ballots were required in the 1990 election included those with large Mexican-American populations, but none of these counties required bilingual ballots for the 1988 election. Kenney County, however, was among those that required bilingual ballots for the 1990 election.

The results of the survey indicate that the cost of bilingual ballots is soaring. In 1978, the state required bilingual ballots in 21 counties, and the cost of producing them was approximately $10 per ballot. This year, the cost per ballot is estimated to be $25 to $30.

Some counties have decided to stop using bilingual ballots altogether. For example, Santa Clara County recently announced that it would switch to using English-only ballots.

The survey also revealed that the number of voters who actually use bilingual ballots is low. In 1988, only 0.4 percent of the county's voters used bilingual ballots. This year, the number is expected to be even lower.

Kenney County is one of the few counties in the state that continues to use bilingual ballots. The county's election officials say they will continue to use bilingual ballots until the state mandates that they switch to English-only ballots.

ASB: Student input needed

In a recent survey, the ASB (Associated Students of Biola) found that students are concerned about the lack of diversity in the curriculum. They also expressed interest in increasing the number of minority students on campus.

The survey results suggest that the ASB should take action to address these concerns. The ASB can work with the administration to develop a plan that would increase the number of minority students on campus while also ensuring that the curriculum remains diverse.

State reluctant to help fund Mt. Vernon freeway ramps

Last November’s Bi-Weekly announced the start of construction on the Mt. Vernon freeway ramps, which are expected to cost about $30 million and will help ease traffic congestion.

However, the funding for the project has been uncertain. The state has not yet allocated sufficient funds to cover the cost of the ramps, and the city has been forced to delay the start of construction.

Letters, letters, letters, letters

We received a number of letters this week expressing concern about the state of the country. Many of these letters were critical of the government's handling of the economy and the war in Iraq.

Some letters were more positive, however. One letter, for example, praised President Bush for his leadership.

Mental facilities reviewed by Mark Thurnau

This week we reviewed the mental health facilities on campus. Overall, we found that the facilities are well-equipped and staffed by experienced professionals.

However, we did find some areas for improvement. For example, we recommended that the university consider adding more mental health services for students.

VD in Kern County is on increase; Health Department sounds alarm

There was an increase in the number of cases of genital warts in Kern County last year. The Kern County Health Department is sounding an alarm, urging people to get tested for the disease.

The disease is caused by the human papilloma virus (HPV), which is transmitted through sexual contact. It can lead to serious health problems, including cervical cancer in women and penile cancer in men.

The Kern County Health Department recommends that all sexually active people get tested for HPV at least once in their lifetime. It also recommends that people get tested more frequently if they have a partner who has had sex with someone who has had HPV.

New choir director conducts choral group with enthusiasm

The new choir director, Barrie Nicholas, has begun his tenure with a burst of energy and enthusiasm. He has already planned a number of concerts and performances for the coming season.

Nicholas was previously the director of the chorus at the University of California, Los Angeles. He brings a wealth of experience in choral music to his new position.

His first concert will be on January 20th, with the theme "Songs of Freedom." The concert will feature works by composers such as Beethoven and Brahms.

The book is available in both print and electronic formats, and it is highly recommended for all fans of the Harry Potter series.
'Generation gap' foreseen in new Congressional session

By GEORGE HENDERSON

"The vote yesterday in the U.S. Senate of the 95th Congress on legislation to extend the minimum voting age to 18 is a reflection of the profound generation gap that exists among the members of Congress," said George Burns, who is the new House majority leader.

"For the last three years, the issue of lowering the voting age has been the subject of repeated floor debate and has been the focus of numerous floor votes. The current bill, S. 123, extends the age limit to 24 for federal elections and 18 for state and local elections. The bill, which was introduced by Sen. Bill Motley, D-Jackson, was passed by the Senate with a vote of 95 to 14. The House passed the bill by a vote of 312 to 108. The bill is now awaiting action in the House of Representatives.

The measure would require all citizens over the age of 18 to be registered to vote in federal elections and all citizens over the age of 24 to be registered to vote in state and local elections. The bill would also require all citizens over the age of 18 to be registered to vote in state and local elections.

Rip staff writer makes debut as Washington correspondent

By森林 framed

Looking back on it, I really should have said hello to Washington. I found the States heparoid, to be honest. It's a strange place, with its big buildings and traffic, and I think I was a little intimidated by it all. But I quickly adjusted to the new environment and made some new friends.

The Washington correspondent

The Washington correspondent is a position that is currently vacant. We are looking for a talented journalist with experience reporting on Washington politics to fill the position.

People look up to freshman Ward

By GREG LIPFORD
Rip Sports Editor

Touted as the Gades’ floor leader for next season, Ward has the responsibility of controlling the overall game and the ball handling. Ward is skilled at passing, shooting and bolstering the morale of team members. He has all the ingredients to lead a team to victory.

Ward, the 6-4 forward that jumps well above the average, has the potential to be District Basketball’s choice as a first team all-Valley. He has the ability to score in every situation and he is not afraid to make a pass to a teammate. With Ward running the floor, the Gades will be formidable.

A freshman from BHS, Ward is slated to go down as one of the greats on the court. His stats would be cause for that alone, when he put up 15 with a 60 percent average and a 50-plus shooting percentage, but his tremendous leaping ability adds as added value.

Surprisingly, Ward has been a consistent scorer but an intermittent rebounder, contrary to his experiences in BHS, where he led the Dons in rebounding and was all-DSL and all-freshman guard with most points (BHS finished second in the Valley in 1975).

According to Knudt, Ward’s defensive opponent; however, has shown a strong tendency to make good decisions when a situation seems difficult. For Ward to gain his edge, he must practice regularly. But, with the Gades men, "Ward will stick to his biggest step forward, he’s getting better all the time.

Never one to waste through rehab, Knudt says Ward is “easy to work with” and “great to have around.”

In team, Ward credits his coach with allowing him to become a more versatile ballplayer. "The key is to win, but he (Knudt) really gives you a lot of freedom on the court.
