Superb performances in "Jun"; repeat showing Friday, Saturday

The play deals with an Irish family, where all of the characters, including the tone of voice and the style of speaking, are kept in a certain rhythm. The author of the play, a social and political statement, uses a good deal of theatrical language. Johnny (Tom Boltell), the son of the family, has to find his own way and fight in the army, dealing with a lot of social issues at the same time. Anna (Sandy Waltz) is the only one who is interested in the play's end with the discovery of her son's body. Kelly (Terry Davis), the mother, is going through a hard time trying to understand what happened. Penny Watts, best known for her role as D. J. D. in last year's "Square," portrayed a comical Captain Jack, O'Connor's symbol of evil.

Audience is to $2, $1 with an ASB card. In their roles she was Melville, Desmole Waltz, Perry West, Kathy Ames, Tom Boltell and Ellen Holloway.

Younus's basketball career almost took a turn for the worse when a freak accident caused him to miss the last half of his senior year of basketball at Earl High School.

During a game with Football High at the fast game, Youman went up to block a shot when his leg gave out, and he fell to the ground breaking his wrist.

The arm was put into an air cast on the floor and later replaced with a permanent cast that kept him from playing basketball for the rest of the season and as a result, Youman's success at the time of Youman's accident, was unable to make the Valley playoffs.

Although GUS is only 76 in the season Youman feels there is only one team that the Cowboys can't beat.

"In the Big Eight Holiday Tournament we played three of the top four teams in the conference and we held our own in each game. Kansas may be the only team that we won't be able to defeat in the Big Eight," claimed Youman.

Kamus, by the way, is ranked 19th in the Associated Press top 30 with 8.3 record, and possesses a top flight player to guard David Valentino.

Another advantage to playing for the Cowboys is the reputation that Youman enjoys. Each time Youman takes the floor these days are playing before crowds that exceed 10,000.

"I don't think that I would play any differently if it was 1,000 people out on the court that can see and hear the BC games last year. I'm ready to play against the team in each game," added Youman.

Since Jun 44/45, behind a 26-point effort from Darrell Gardner, the Gades returned home for a two-game winning streak at the end of the season.

The Goats opened with a loss to a 57 to 46 Moose club, 89-83 despite 24 points and gathered in 17 the point margin.

The Goats look forward to a 13 to 12 game, breaking the old mark of 127 set in 1975 to 127-101 win over Miami College.

The next night in San Diego, BC met the tournament host and last in a controversial 75-70 win with a turnover call with 24 seconds left in the game.

Christmas vacation was a time of wins and losses for the BC Renegades as they couldn't combine a winning pattern.

Over the holidays, the Gades played below 500 basketball losing on of their last two contests, while posting a 4.8 overall record--not including last Sunday's performance that kept him from the loss in the Gateway Classic in the BC gym.

The interesting story will have to wait until next week, though, as the basketball season opens against the Metro champions with two important teams.
