Harkins promoted to vice chancellor Hernandez to return to classroom

By KIMBERLY WARD
Editor-Chief

Dr. Richard Harkins, former BC Dean of Instruction, has been named vice chancellor of the Ken County Community College District (KCCCD). According to Chancellor James Young, Harkins will replace Dr.
Jack Hernandez, who, after nine years of administrative duties, is coming back to the classroom.

Harkins, the new vice chancellor, feels he will bring a tremendous amount of "hands-on" experience to the position and sees it as being "a real challenge."

"I feel that my experiences with students and professors on campus directly lends itself to that office and its needs," he comments. "Until this chance presented itself, I had reached the point where, but if it presents the challenges I anticipate it will ... it will be a few more years.

Until a permanent replacement can be found for Harkins, Dr.
Charles Carlson will be filling in as BC dean of instruction.

Hernandez, who for the last four years of those nine has administered the Office of Instruction for the Ken Community College District (KCCCD), returns to the classroom and in his new position in the Office of Instruction.

This is the second year the workshop has been funded.
The project is being supported by the El Paseo Times of the New Observer and El Mexicano.
The play is the first to focus on the Mexican-American cultural experience.

By MICHAEL BLACK BULL
Staff Writer

A Down Jones Newspaper Frand of approximately $1,500 will be marketed by funds from The Bakersfield Californian to make possible a Bakersfield College 1985 Teaching Writing Workshop for Menstrual Students.

The workshop, entitled "Multi Cultural Media," will be run April 30, 1985. The program will run from 4 p.m. to 9 p.m., four days a week, over a three-week period.

Approximately 20 Kern County minority high school students in South Central Bakersfield will take part in the workshop.

Students will participate in various activities designed to build their writing skills and introduce them to basic journalistic principles, including story ideating, editing, headline writing, layout, and proofreading.

In addition, students will learn about various aspects of the printing industry, and for those students who wish to explore writing for the daily press, the weekend workshop will feature guest lecturers from The Bakersfield Californian and El Mexicano.

... The program is a good plan to begin training for a career in journalism.

The workshop, entitled "Multi Cultural Media," will be run April 30, 1985. The program will run from 4 p.m. to 9 p.m., four days a week,
over a three-week period.

Approximately 20 Kern County
minority high school students in
South Central Bakersfield will take part in the workshop.

Students will participate in
various activities designed to build
their writing skills and introduce
them to basic journalistic
principles, including story
ideating, editing, headline writing, layout, and
proofreading.

In addition, students will learn
about various aspects of the
printing industry, and for those
students who wish to explore
writing for the daily press, the
weekend workshop will feature
guest lecturers from The Bakersfield Californian and El Mexicano.

... The program is a good
plan to begin training for a career
in journalism.

The workshop, entitled "Multi Cultural Media," will be run April 30, 1985. The program will run from 4 p.m. to 9 p.m., four days a week,
over a three-week period.

Approximately 20 Kern County
minority high school students in
South Central Bakersfield will take part in the workshop.

Students will participate in
various activities designed to build
their writing skills and introduce
them to basic journalistic
principles, including story
ideating, editing, headline writing, layout, and
proofreading.

In addition, students will learn
about various aspects of the
printing industry, and for those
students who wish to explore
writing for the daily press, the
weekend workshop will feature
guest lecturers from The Bakersfield Californian and El Mexicano.

... The program is a good
plan to begin training for a career
in journalism.

The workshop, entitled "Multi Cultural Media," will be run April 30, 1985. The program will run from 4 p.m. to 9 p.m., four days a week,
over a three-week period.

Approximately 20 Kern County
minority high school students in
South Central Bakersfield will take part in the workshop.

Students will participate in
various activities designed to build
their writing skills and introduce
them to basic journalistic
principles, including story
ideating, editing, headline writing, layout, and
proofreading.

In addition, students will learn
about various aspects of the
printing industry, and for those
students who wish to explore
writing for the daily press, the
weekend workshop will feature
guest lecturers from The Bakersfield Californian and El Mexicano.

... The program is a good
plan to begin training for a career in journalism.