Anniversary of Kern Water brings political bigwigs to BC

By Keith Kacenrek Reporter

Kevin McCarthy, Republican congressman and majority whip for the House of Representatives, attended the Kern County Water Division's 2016 event at Bakersfield College. McCarthy was invited to participate in order to celebrate the 90-year anniversary of the California State Water Agency.

McCarthy took part after a fire hall and focused on water use and management, saying: “Our biggest challenges as a growing population, governor who share the same name, told him, referring to the challenges.

The audience then participated in the discussion put in place by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service in order to protect an endangered species of fish called the "delta stiletto."
HALLOWEEN SPIRIT IN BAKERSFIELD

By Monica Bolger

By Nate Perez

The Rocky Horror Picture Show, which is banned by the Bakersfield College students, opened in the Foothills Theatre on Oct. 31. The movie was rated R in 1975, but is no longer censored. The show ran for about two hours and 45 minutes.

By Rebecca Arambrula

The Bakersfield College Theatre Club participated in the Safe Halloween event on Oct. 31.

ART CLUB CREATES MASKS TO RAISE FUNDS

By Monica Bolger

The Rip and the BC Art Club are working together to raise funds for the school's softball team.

THEATRE CLUB PARTICIPATES IN SAFE HALLOWEEN

By Nate Perez

The Bakersfield College Theatre Club participated in the Safe Halloween event on Oct. 31.

LOCAL ZOO TURNS GOHULISH

By Monica Bolger

The Kern County Fire Department decorated as a fire engine at the Safe Halloween event on Oct. 31.

ROCKY' THRILLS, CHILLS AND FULLFILLS

By Nate Perez

The Rocky Horror Picture Show, which is banned by the Bakersfield College students, opened in the Foothills Theatre on Oct. 31. The movie was rated R in 1975, but is no longer censored. The show ran for about two hours and 45 minutes.

Keeping in the Halloween spirit, a black bear chases down some pumpkins during Boo at the Zoo at CALM.

By Rebecca Arambrula

The Bakersfield College Theatre Club participated in the Safe Halloween event on Oct. 31.