Art exhibit on campus showcases unique art

By Monica Bodeker

The Wyile and Mar Louisa Jones Gallery inside the Grace Van Dyke Brit Library opened its doors for the semester's first open framing reception of "Exprax" on Sept. 8. It will continue to be open to the public Sept. 22. Opening night featured numerous art pieces that complement each other and represented different artists and their signature style of work.

"The concept of our show is that we all have a unique style of expression," said Brett Anderson, assistant professor of art. "We thought it would be interesting to let different artists from different disciplines show work together. It's great. There is a great opportunity to open up art to everyone out there on campus."

The gallery was filled with visitors that focused among the diversity in art, expressing different styles and mediums. Anderson said the guests responded well.

"It's been very positive and given us a lot of feedback. People really like it. I like to have it out so we can bring more life into the place," said Mar Louisa Jones.

The Wyile and Mar Louisa Jones Gallery is located on the third floor of the Van Dyke Brit Library. For more information about the current show, contact Brett Anderson at 360-650-3545 or brett.anderson@wwu.edu.

BC professor passes away, but gave fond memories

By Cassandra McGeown

Communication is a fine

growing degree for college and community members to create a database of all school changes.

"Once you have gone through a training program, you can say we've seen a lot of changes," said Falck. "It wasn't so much changes, but they were a part of the process of changing."

The program is in its final year of
and is in its third year of Community members are involving in the program in by Pollard, founder of the BC Writing Center, in the new BC Writing Center be helpful to students.

The center is open to all students and has

The best part of the curriculum is being able to give feedback to students and learning community,

By Patricia Bach

Recently retired Bakersfield College professor, Thomas Van Dyke, passed away on this early morning at the age of 95. Van Dyke's funeral service was held on Monday, May 30, 2010 at 11 a.m. at Grace Van Dyke Brit Library. The service was

Tom Van Dyke, former Bakersfield
College professor, passed away on this morning at the age of 95. Van Dyke's funeral service was held on Monday May 30, 2010 at 11 a.m. at Grace Van Dyke Brit Library. The service was attended by family, friends, and colleagues.

Van Dyke was born on Oct. 11, 1914 in Lincoln, Nebraska. He

He was a beloved teacher and

Van Dyke was born on Oct. 11, 1914 in Lincoln, Nebraska. He

He was a beloved teacher and

Van Dyke was born on Oct. 11, 1914 in Lincoln, Nebraska. He

He was a beloved teacher and

Van Dyke was born on Oct. 11, 1914 in Lincoln, Nebraska. He

He was a beloved teacher and

Van Dyke was born on Oct. 11, 1914 in Lincoln, Nebraska. He

He was a beloved teacher and

Van Dyke was born on Oct. 11, 1914 in Lincoln, Nebraska. He

He was a beloved teacher and

Van Dyke was born on Oct. 11, 1914 in Lincoln, Nebraska. He

He was a beloved teacher and

Van Dyke was born on Oct. 11, 1914 in Lincoln, Nebraska. He

He was a beloved teacher and

Van Dyke was born on Oct. 11, 1914 in Lincoln, Nebraska. He

He was a beloved teacher and

Van Dyke was born on Oct. 11, 1914 in Lincoln, Nebraska. He

He was a beloved teacher and

Van Dyke was born on Oct. 11, 1914 in Lincoln, Nebraska. He

He was a beloved teacher and

Van Dyke was born on Oct. 11, 1914 in Lincoln, Nebraska. He

He was a beloved teacher and

Van Dyke was born on Oct. 11, 1914 in Lincoln, Nebraska. He

He was a beloved teacher and BC remembers and honors those who gave their lives

Story by Amber T. Troupe
Photos By Megan Luecke

Above: Paula Dahl, the women’s basketball head coach, sings the national anthem before the matchup between Bakersfield College and Saddleback College.

Left: Military veterans, police and fire department members stand to be recognized during its 31-17 loss to Saddleback College on Sept. 12.

Bottom Left: The captains of both teams, Saddleback College and Bakersfield College, meet for the coin toss before the Sept. 12 game at Memorial Stadium.

Top: The American flag and the flag of the Naval Reserve Officer Training Corps are presented before the Sept. 12.

Right: Kern County Fire Department, engine 44, displays the American flag at the Sept. 12 game between Saddleback College and BC.

BC students reflect on the 10-year anniversary of 9/11

It has been more than 10 years now about the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001. Everyone in the world is still trying to come to terms with how it happened and how it was done. The 9/11 attacks were a shock to the world and it has changed the world in so many ways.

Many of the students here at Bakersfield College have either grown up or attended school during the time after the 9/11 attacks. Some people have even served in the military. It has been a long time since that day, but it will always stay in the hearts and minds of many.

On that day, everyone was affected in some way. Some people lost family members or friends, while others had to deal with the aftermath of the terrorist attacks.

The world was never the same after the 9/11 attacks. It has been a long time since that day, but it will always stay in the hearts and minds of many.

The attacks of September 11, 2001, changed the world in so many ways. It has been a long time since that day, but it will always stay in the hearts and minds of many.