

The Kern Promise

What is the Kern Promise Program?

The Kern Promise is a commitment to help students complete their Associate Degree for Transfer (ADT) within two instructional years through structured support and priority access to courses. Upon successful completion of The Kern Promise and Associate Degree for Transfer, students will be guaranteed junior standing admission at one of the 23 campuses of the California State University system.

Eligible students interested in participating in the program will need to apply during the application period for the cohort beginning in Fall.

Eligibility Requirements

- First time, incoming college student
- Graduating from a Kern County high school during the year of application to the Kern Promise Program
- Declared an Associate Degree for Transfer Pathway
